Welcome to Huggins and Scott Auctions, the Nation's fastest growing Sports & Americana Auction House. With this catalog, we are presenting another extensive list of sports cards and memorabilia, plus an array of historically significant Americana items. We hope you enjoy this.

VERY IMPORTANT: Due to size constraints and the cost factor in the print version of most catalogs, we are unable to include all pictures and elaborate descriptions on every single lot in the auction. However, our website has no limitations, so we have added many more photos and a much more elaborate description on virtually every item on our website. Well worth checking out if you are serious about a lot!

WEBSITE: WWW.HUGGINSANDSCOTT.COM

Here's how we are running our April 9, 2015 auction:

BIDDING BEGINS: Monday March 30, 2015 at 12:00pm Eastern Time

Our auction was designed years ago and still remains geared toward affordable vintage items for the serious collector. We describe and photograph each item in the most clear and easy to understand way possible. However, WE LOVE QUESTIONS! Call us anytime at 301-608-0355. Always leave a message if you get our machine. It's always the first thing we check everyday.

REGISTRATION: You must pre-register to bid. You can do this over the phone at 301-608-0355 or online at www.hugginsandscott.com. Should you choose the online method and have any problems, please call us for assistance. Our normal business hours are Monday-Friday 10-6pm EST. Weekends by appointment only.

Once registered you will need to confirm your email address by following the link in the confirmation email that is automatically sent to your email address that you register with. At the time of registration, you will create a User ID and Password, that you are responsible for; you will use that same User ID and Password every time you log into our site for this and all future auctions. Bidding is done online or by telephone. ALL TIMES ARE EASTERN TIME

3-STEP BIDDING PROCESS:

STEP 1) Initial Bids

NOTE: our countdown clock on each lot is synchronized by Network Time Protocol to eastern time. The clock is set to reach 0d 0h 0m 0s at 11:30pm eastern time, which is when the lot would end if no additional bids are placed on the lot. If you have not bid on the lot, you will need to place your first bid by the time the countdown clock reaches 0d 1h 30m 0s. If you have any questions, please ask in advance!

You must place an acceptable, initial bid on an item by 10:00 pm on the night the item ends, in order to proceed to STEP 2. A way to check if your bid was accepted is to go to “My Bid List”. If the item you bid on is listed there, you are in. You can now sort your bid list by which lots you hold the current high bid for, and which lots you have been outbid on. IF YOU HAVE NOT PLACED A BID ON AN ITEM BEFORE 10:00 pm EST (on the night the item ends), YOU CANNOT BID ON THAT ITEM AFTER 10:00 pm EST, in the extended bidding session (STEP 2). However, at 10:00 pm on April 9th, if you are the only bidder on an item that ends that day, that item will close and you will be declared the winner. We cannot stress enough; you will want to get your bids in early. For example, once you get your catalog, if you were to place a bid (even if you get outbid by another bidder) on every item that you are interested in, you are good to go and will be allowed to bid at the end of the auction, without the possibility of being shutout.

STEP 2) Extended Bidding Session

Between 10:00 pm and 11:00 pm is our “extended bidding session”. This period of bidding is getting you ready for the end. You are welcome to continue placing bids on any item that you have previously bid on, but you may not jump in on a new item during this time.

STEP 3) Unique Auction Ending Style

Now adopted by most major auction houses; You're Welcome! Years ago, for some unknown reason, most other auction houses adopted the procedure to end entire auctions all at one time. Our way is much more bidder friendly. Here's how it works: Bidders have our catalog for roughly two weeks prior to the auction's end, giving them ample opportunity to place an initial bid before 10:00 pm on the item's end date. Lots will then begin closing at 11:00pm on their respective end date. If only one bid has been received and the clock strikes 10:00pm, the lot will officially close and the lone bidder will be declared the winner. If there have been two or more bids on a particular item, that item will remain open until 30 minutes have passed without any additional bids on that item. A 30-minute timer is provided for each lot and will be automatically reset every time a new bid is made on that lot. If you up your own high bid in the last 30-minutes, the 30-minute clock will NOT reset. This is now available in real time on our website. You will want to hit the "REFRESH" button on your computer as the clock counts down, as our system will not automatically show an increase in bids. Bids on items will continue to be accepted between 10:00 pm and 11:00 pm from any bidder that has bid on the item prior to 10:00 pm (Extended Bidding Session). Based on these rules, no lot with two or more bids prior to 10:00 pm can close prior to 11:30 pm ET.
BIDDING INCREMENTS:
If the current bid is $X, the Bid increment is $Y:
- $50 - $249: $10.00
- $250 - $499: $25.00
- $500 - $999: $50.00
- $1,000 - $2,499: $100.00
- $2,500 - $4,999: $250.00
- $5,000 - $9,999: $500.00
- $10,000 - $24,999: $1,000.00
- $25,000 - $49,999: $2,500.00
- $50,000+: $5,000.00

Here are some examples:

a) Two bidders named A & B are the only two who have bid on Lot 420 prior to 10:00 pm on the day that the lot ends. Only Bidder B & B can bid on Lot 420 after 10:00 pm. At 11:00 pm, Bidder A was the high bidder on Lot 420. If no one else bids before 11:30 pm, Bidder A will win the auction. If, however, Bidder B bids again at 11:27pm, the new end time for Lot 420 is 11:57 pm, giving Bidder A another 30 minutes to raise his bid. No other auction lots are affected by A & B's bidding on Lot 420.
b) If Bidder A was the only bidder on Lot 420 at 10:00 pm, he automatically wins the lot at 11:00pm.

This format accomplishes two very bidder-friendly things: it prevents snipers, as once you bid the clock resets for 30 minutes even if you bid with 1 second left. Also, it allows people to know they have won an item without having to wait for every item in the auction to close.

We are sure that once you read and use this bidder-friendly Auction Ending style, you'll appreciate, as we do, that it is just "a better mousetrap." However should you have any questions about this procedure, PLEASE call us: 301-608-0355. A few examples for those of you that may not understand:
a) If an item has an opening bid of $200 and does not have a bid, you can click on the drop box and you have the option at bidding $200, $210, $220, $230, $240, $250, $275, $300, $325, $350, $375, $400, $425, $450, $475, $500, $550, $600 and so on.
b) If an item's bid currently stands at $1800, your options for bidding are $1900, $2000, $2100, $2200, $2300, $2400, $2500, $2750, $3000 and so on.

Let's say an item currently stands at $750. You enter a max bid of $850 and the system comes back and says that you've been outbid and the current bid is now $850. Simply, this means that the other bidder's max was also $850, that they placed BEFORE YOU PLACED YOUR BID, and one more bid will make you the current high bidder. You can enter the next acceptable bid of $900 and you will be the current high bid.

PAYMENT OPTIONS
We accept personal checks, business checks, money orders, bank checks, and cash. We WILL accept Paypal for auction items (if pre-authorized before the auction ends. Call or email for details). We DO NOT accept credit cards for auction winnings!

FOLLOWING THE AUCTION
We will send winning bidders an email as well as written invoices the week following the auction. Payment is requested within 15 days from the end of the auction. Extremely late or non-payments may result in the revocation of bidding privileges for future auctions. Please note: when you bid on an item, you are entering a legally binding contract, indicating that you will pay for your items, plus the buyers' premium and any additional associated fees (sales tax, shipping, insurance, collection agency fees, etc.). You are responsible for any and all bids placed with your User ID and password. We will sell your debt to a collection agency if you fail to make payment.

MORE ABOUT OUR AUCTION
1) All items are sold AS IS to the highest bidder

2) Buyer's Premium and Sales Tax - Please note our BUY-ERS PREMIUM is 19-1/2% of the hammer price. This means if an item sells for $1000, the winning bidder will pay ($1195.00 plus shipping, handling and insurance). This is added to the item before any sales tax (6%), which is applicable to all Maryland residents ONLY!

3) No one who is currently employed with Huggins and Scott or House of Cards may bid on any items in any Huggins and Scott Auctions. However, the auction house and its employees may consign items to the auction.

4) "Items With Reserves" feature slightly modified:
We have expanded and modified the "items with reserves" feature for this auction. Now, the items with reserves are noted with a red outline around the lot and the words "ITEM WITH RESERVE" heading above the lot. They will also appear in the appropriate category section based on the item. The reason we have started this is to allow us to offer more unique and special items, while also giving our consignors the assurance that the items will at least reach a certain minimum. All items with reserves will have an opening bid and an estimated value range. The reserve bid on any item will never be greater than the low value in the estimated range. By starting the bidding below the reserve price it will allow our bidders to get their initial bids in prior to the 10:00pm cutoff time for "initial bids" on the final day of the auction and then all eligible bidders can decide what they want their final bid to be on that day. The items will have a statement in the bid box on our website saying either "Reserve Not Met" or "Reserve Met". Those two phrases should be self-explanatory. If you are entering a ceiling bid on one of these items and your ceiling bid exceeds the reserve, the computer will only take you to the value that equals the reserve. The remaining amount of your ceiling bid will be kept hidden to everyone but you. If the item ends with the "reserve not met" the item will be deemed "passed" with a zero sale price. We are trying to make this a simple and easy-to-understand feature in our auction; should you have any questions, concerns or comments on this new venture, we welcome your feedback.

5) Shipping - Is the buyer's responsibility. We will work with you on larger lots to find the best way. All items must be fully paid for, including shipping and insurance, before they will be sent out. We strongly encourage any local bidders to pick up their winnings at our Office or at the House of Cards. International bidders should contact us prior to sending payment to discuss specific shipping options.

6) Return Policy - ALL LEGITIMATE RETURNS OR CREDIT REQUESTS MUST BE BROUGHT TO OUR ATTENTION WITHIN 30 DAYS OF RECEIPT OF YOUR ITEMS! AFTER 30 DAYS, THERE ARE NO REFUNDS, EXCHANGES OR CREDITS! ALSO, THE ENTIRE LOT MUST BE INTACT AND IN THE SAME FORM AS WHEN IT WAS SOLD IN ORDER TO RECEIVE ANY CREDIT OR REFUND CONSIDERATIONS - NO EXCEPTIONS!!
We have conservatively graded most items, however we strongly encourage you to ask specific questions or better yet, come view the items you are interested in. If you are unsure of anything, ask, then bid. We reserve the right to make any changes from the print catalog on our website. Any changes that are made, we will notify all who have placed bids on that item by email.

7) Bidding Privileges - Huggins and Scott LLC reserves the right to revoke any bidder privileges for what we deem as unethical behavior.

PLEASE NOTE: Once a bid is placed, we CANNOT retract it. We have two safeguards to make sure that you are aware of the bid that you are placing, and which lot you are bidding on. Bid retraction will result in cancellation of all bids in the auction and bidding privileges revoked. WE CANNOT COMPROMISE THE INTEGRITY OF THE AUCTION BY CANCELING BIDS.

8) Previewing Items Before the Auction - All items are available for viewing at our auction office: 2301 Broadbirch Dr. Ste 150, Silver Spring, MD 20904. Calling in advance for an appointment is strongly SUGGESTED. We ask that you provide a list of the items that you want to examine, so we may have them ready for you.

9) All bids are in US Dollars!

10) When we refer to a population report about graded cards, we only reference the population of that card’s grading company. For example, if we say an SGC card has three equals and none better, we are only referring to that card’s population among all SGC graded cards, unless otherwise stated. All population counts are valid as of the time of writing and are subject to change.

About Our Autographs:
All autographs sold thru Huggins & Scott Auctions come with either a JSA- James Spence Authentication (our most used), PSA/DNA, Upper Deck Authenticated (UDA), Stacks of Plaques, Kevin Keating or Steiner COA’s. Some even have more than one. At Huggins & Scott, we take great pride in offering “IRONCLAD”, “LEAD PIPE”, “NO QUESTIONS ASKED” autographs. In today’s world of autopens, secretarial, clubhouse and ghost signers, you can rest assured that your autographed items from H&S have passed the most stringent examination.

Note: For those that do not know, a “clubhouse” signature was a common practice among teams where the key players would not actually sign the item, but a clubhouse attendant would sign for the player. We note any signature that is a clubhouse signature.

Multiple Autographed Item Lot LOA’s:
For the more valuable autographs, we are obtaining full photograph LOA’s from one of the respected third party authentication companies. For the lesser valued items, we are having those items authenticated and noted with a unique sticker/certificate combination for each item. In the remaining cases, on lots with more than one autographed item, we will issue one blanket auction letter of authenticity for the entire lot (although we are trying to do away with this altogether, but sometimes it is the only cost effective method). This is the original letter that we receive from the authentication company describing the offered lot. You may use this “auction” LOA to obtain individual LOA’s should you chose to do that, however the auction LOA’s are only valid for 45 days from the end of the auction. Please see the item’s description for specific authenticity on each individual lot. Please call if you have any questions regarding these auction lot LOA’s.

MLB Authentication:
Due to the MLB Authentication protocol, many items that were in fact game used and verified as such by team personnel, are deemed “Team Issued” on the MLB Authentication website with numbers corresponding to those on holograms issued by MLB. While we will remain consistent with MLB’s assessments in our descriptions, several of these items are game worn as well as team issued; and they have varying degrees of use, from light to heavy.

Framed Items:
Framed items included with lots: while we make every effort to protect the frames included in these lots during pre auction storage and post auction shipping, we are not responsible for any damage to the frames themselves, and no refunds will be given due to frame damage.

About Our Grading:
Many lots, throughout the auction have been Professionally graded and encapsulated by independent grading companies. Many other lots have been graded by our highly educated writers. For the most part, these are conservative grades, but we are human and sometimes we may miss something. We are not responsible for a third party grading company agreeing or disagreeing with our assessment and we cannot issue refunds or credits if cards do not receive a numerical grade or the exact grade that we describe. We strongly recommend that you come look at any items that you are bidding on, and make your own determination about it’s grade.

Becoming one of Our Field Representatives:
Huggins and Scott Auctions is a constantly growing company. Should you have an interest in joining our staff, we are always looking for part-time field representatives in new areas. Call our head of Field Representatives, Steve Dickler at 215-530-4365 to discuss an opportunity; its a no lose situation for you, as well as a chance to make some serious money.

Consignments For Our Next Auction:
We have already begun taking consignments for our June 11, 2015 auction and our “Event of the Year”: our August 6, 2015 Masterpiece Auction, where the premiere pieces will be on display at our booth at the National Convention. Consignment deadlines: May 4th (for June’s auction) and June 29th (for August’s auction) - by consigning your items early, you allow us the opportunity to advertise your items on our website, in trade publications and press releases, as well as at major shows across the country. This is an invaluable way to expose your items to our thousands of current bidders and possible new bidders, who can then plan ahead to bid on your items. Believe me, it happens!

We are always looking for unique Americana items to try in our catalog. Even if you have something you don't see (primarily 1960s and older, though), feel free to call us and discuss it. You may have a pile of gold that's just hidden under a little dust, or needs the right exposure!

ALSO: We are the best major catalog auction company for newer modern insert, relic and autographed cards. Virtually every consignor has been pleased with the results for their "Shiny Cards" through our auction.

Contact one of our representatives to discuss the sale or consignments of your cards and other treasures.
While the debate rages on over baseball’s first true “card,” there’s never been a shadow of doubt in our other national pastime. Harry Beecher’s 1888 N162 Goodwin Champions is more than just the genesis of football cartophilia—it’s also arguably the Honus Wagner of the gridiron. Fewer than 75 examples are estimated to exist, 32 of which have been graded by PSA, with three NM-MT 8’s reigning supreme. But even that triumvirate cannot compare with the unprecedented, unfathomable sight of sixteen Beechers compiled by a single hell-bent collector who endlessly quested for these holy grails. Not since the silver-obessed Hunt Brothers has anyone cornered the market like this! This item has a reserve (estimated value $25,000-$50,000).
A once-in-a-lifetime assembly virtually never rivaled in the annals of card collecting!

Opening Bid $10,000.00
2. (45) 1909-1911 T206 White Border PSA Graded Cards—All Different

Opening Bid $500.00

3. (17) 1909-1911 T206 White Border Tougher Backs—All PSA Graded
Diversify your 1909-11 T206 White Border portfolio with this assortment of (17) different advertising reverses. Each graded by PSA. Includes: Sovereign: (8 cards) with PSA 2: (6 cards) with J. Delehanty (150), Lake (New York, 150), Oldring (Fielding, 350), Pfeiffer (460), H. Smith (460), J. Tannehill (Washington, 350); PSA 1: (2 cards) with Carrigan (350), Reulbach (Glove Showing, 150); Polar Bear: (4 cards) with Burch (Fielding, PSA 3), Knight (Portrait, PSA 2.5), Meyers (PSA 2), He. Wagner (Bat on Right Shoulder, PSA 4, mk); American Beauty: Commy (with Bat, PSA 4, 460); Brown Hinde: Beaumont (PSA 1); Old Mill: Wiltsie (Pitching, PSA 2); Sweet Caporal: Reulbach (No Glove Showing, PSA 1, 350-460 Fact. 42 back) and Topstic: Azt (PSA 3).
Opening Bid $250.00

4. (10) 1909-1911 T206 White Border PSA Graded Cards of More Popular Players
Not quite Hall of Famers and definitely not commons. These ten 1909-11 T206 White Border singles will add depth to any tobacco card gathering. Each card displays a common advertising back and is graded by PSA. Includes: PSA 3: Wiltsie (Portrait, with Cap); PSA 2: (3 cards) with D. Howard, Lobert, Taylor; PSA 1.5: (2 cards) with Demmitt (New York), Shulte (Front View); PSA 1: (4 cards) with Murphy (Throwing, horizontal), Pattee (horizontal), Powers and Scitz (Norfolk).
Opening Bid $200.00

5. 1909-1911 T206 White Borders Hal Chase (Throwing, Dark Cap) with Old Mill Back PSA 6—None Better!
Graded EX-MT 6 by PSA, “Prince” Hal Chase is the royal subject of the offered 1909-11 T206 White Border (Throwing, Dark Cap) pose. This crisp antiquty displays four relatively sharp corners, creamy edges and accurate centering along with a clean Old Mill subjects back. In fact, this artifact may very well be undergraded. Of the 17 total Chase poses validated by PSA with an Old Mill back, this prize resides as one of four at the grading level with none better.
Opening Bid $250.00

6. 1909-11 T206 White Borders Ty Cobb (Red Portrait) with Tolstoi Back—SGC 10
Graded 10 Poor 1 by SGC. Captivating 1909-11 T206 White Borders Ty Cobb (Red Portrait) with a tougher Tolstoi advertising back. The haunting image of the Hall of Fame icon is crease-free and framed by four evenly worn corners, relatively crisp edges and a perfectly contrasted central image. Aside from reverse paper residue due to extraction from a period scrapbook, this card otherwise presents as a mid-grade specimen. A total of 21 copies of this pose have been judged by the third-party service.
Opening Bid $150.00

7. (4) 1911 T205 Gold Border PSA Graded Cards with Cobb
Each graded by PSA. Formidable foursome of 1911 T205 Gold Border tobacco cards. Includes: PSA 3: Devlin (Sweet Caporal); PSA 2: Phelps (Polar Bear); PSA 1: (2 cards) with Cobb (Piedmont) and Nee (Polar Bear).
Opening Bid $250.00
8. 1910-11 T3 Turkey Red Cabinets #9 Ty Cobb (Checklist Offer)—SGC Authentic Graded Authentic by SGC. Stunning 1910-11 T3 Turkey Red Cabinets #9 Ty Cobb with a checklist offer reverse. This antiquity presents beautifully with moderate, but even perimeter wear along with a gorgeous multi-color ballpark setting. A minor corner crease traces toward the upper left corner, far apart from the prominent central image. A combination of back glue residue and paper loss along with faint period writing does not disrupt the overall qualities of this century-old treasure.
Opening Bid $250.00

9. (4) 1910-1911 T3 Turkey Red Cabinets with #26 McGraw—All SGC 20-30
Graded either 30 Good 2 or 20 Fair 1.5 by SGC. Intricate player detailing and intense action sequences are attributes of these four 1910-11 T3 Turkey Red Cabinets. Each antiquity presents at the peak of its technical assessment and displays checklist reverses. Aside from general peripheral wear, the lush obverses display only minor age-induced soilings. Careful removal from a period album along with faint reverse writing account for the assessments. Includes: SGC 30: (3 cards) with #33 Pfeister, #90 Doolan, #98 Hoffman and SGC 20: #26 McGraw.
Opening Bid $250.00

10. (4) 1919-1927 Baseball Hall of Fame SGC Graded Cards with (2) Mathewson, Cobb & Sisler
Each graded by SGC. Formidable quartet of 1919-1927 Baseball Hall of Fame samples depicting the monarchs of “The Christian Gentleman”, “Gentleman George” and “Georgia Peach”. Includes: 1919-21 W514: (2 cards, both SGC Authentic) with #43 Cobb, #72 Mathewson, 1920 W516-4: #24 Mathewson (SGC Authentic) and 1927 American Caramel Series of 60: #49 Sisler (SGC 20).
Opening Bid $150.00

11. 1927 Exhibits Ty Cobb SGC 40
Graded 40 VG 3 by SGC. Depicted as a Philadelphia Athletic during his final season, the legendary Tyrus Raymond (Ty) Cobb displays perfect batting form on the offered 1927 Exhibits sample. This 88-year-old jewel is crease-free and displays only general corner and edge wear consistent with the technical grade. The creamy blank reverse is clean and absent of any residue or writing which so frequently plagues the issue.
Opening Bid $150.00

12. 1948 Leaf Baseball #3 Babe Ruth PSA 2
Graded Good 2 by PSA. Those die-hard “Bambino” collectors on a budget will desire the offered 1948 Leaf Baseball #3 Babe Ruth portrait. This cardboard classic was released only months following Ruth’s passing and displays only general wear commensurate with its technical assessment. The biographical reverse proclaiming Ruth as the “Greatest of all home run hitters” is problem-free.
Opening Bid $250.00

13. 1951 Bowman Baseball #253 Mickey Mantle SGC 10
Graded 10 Poor 1 by SGC. The offered 1951 Bowman Baseball #253 Mickey Mantle rookie was obviously well loved by its original owner. Despite a combination of extensive obverse creasing and general wear consistent with handling, this debut of “The Commerce Comet” will still hold serious clout in any “golden age” cardboard gathering. Simply put, Mantle rookies are recognized as cornerstones in the collecting hobby and will be admired in any condition. This item has a reserve. Estimated value ($1000-2000).
Opening Bid $300.00

14. 1952 Berk Ross Mickey Mantle SGC 60
Graded 60 EX 5 by SGC. Early Mantle completists will want to place a strong bid for the offered 1952 Berk Ross sample. This early specimen features an image that was borrowed from Mantle’s “true” 1951 Bowman Baseball rookie card. Unlike the mass-produced Bowman edition, only 68 total examples of this odd-ball keepsake have been assessed by the third-party grading service. Displays incidental peripheral wear commensurate with its technical assessment.
Opening Bid $250.00

15. 1952 Bowman Baseball #101 Mickey Mantle SGC 60
Graded 60 EX 5 by SGC. Construct the foundation of your prospective 1952 Bowman Baseball edition around the offered #101 Mickey Mantle. This second-year centerpiece portrays “The Mick” in a ballpark setting. Presents on par with the technical appraisal with well-defined corners, crisp edges and accurate centering. The illustration displays bright colors with a problem-free reverse.
Opening Bid $200.00
16. 1952 Topps Baseball #311 Mickey Mantle Rookie—SGC Authentic
Graded Authentic by SGC due to attempted surface restoration. Undaunted by the intense spotlight of being Joe DiMaggio’s heir apparent and playing in the nation’s largest media market, Mickey Mantle did not wilt under intense scrutiny. The boyhood idol to generations of young baseball fans, “The Commerce Comet” makes his debut on the offered 1952 Topps Baseball #311 high number. Extensive hobby lore surrounds this famed slab of cardboard. Sufficient to say that this card is perpetually atop many wantlists and is desirable in any condition. Aside from the attempted restoration, this particular example otherwise presents (FR to GD) with well-handled corners, surface abrasions and multiple vertical spider creases. Despite those imperfections, the overall canvas still presents nicely and is a suitable proposition for those seeking a copy of this card. The reverse proclaiming Mantle’s future prospects is problem-free with bold text.
Opening Bid $1800.00

17. (76) 1952 Topps Baseball PSA Graded Cards with Stars
Presented are (76) 1952 Topps Baseball PSA graded cards with stars. 20. 1955 Bowman Baseball Salesman Three-Card Panel with Aaron—PSA Authentic
This 1955 Bowman Baseball salesman sample three-card panel was originally distributed to vendors to generate interest in forthcoming products. Although most were discarded upon review, the few remaining on the secondary market have substantial value. Graded Authentic by PSA, this wood bordered survivor presents in (FR) condition with extensive creasing throughout and tape on the upper card. Features #178 Brewer, #179 Aaron and #180 Logan. The advertisement for “TV Baseball Card Gum” is vibrant with crisp blue-and-red text and displays traces of reverse paper loss.
Opening Bid $250.00

21. 1963 Topps Baseball #537 Pete Rose Rookie SGC 82
Graded 82 EX-MT+ 6.5 by SGC. With Rob Manfred’s appointment as Major League Baseball’s commissioner, the Hall of Fame may yet call Pete Rose to join its ranks. This 1963 Topps Baseball #537 high number exhibits strong corners, creamy edges and bright surface hues. Despite slightly errant top-to-bottom centering, the overall presentation of this instantly familiar cardboard classic is not compromised.
Opening Bid $200.00

30. 2010 Bowman Baseball 18U USA Baseball Chrome #1BBC8 Bryce Harper BGS 10
Opening Bid $150.00

The King of Modern Minor League Cards! Graded VG-EX 4 by PSA. The offered 1980 Charlotte O’s Police Orange Border Cal Ripken Jr. cornerstone is one of only 21 confirmed examples validated by the three major grading services (PSA, SGC, BGS/BVG) and likely fewer survive due to “crossover” resubmissions. Since the monumental initial Orange Border Ripken offering in October 2013, a handful of additional copies have trickled through the marketplace. However, with such an important early “Iron Man” piece, the vast major of Ripken die-hards have yet to handle, let alone own a copy of the 1980 Charlotte O’s Police minor league card. This particular copy was recently uncovered by our Maine-based consignor along with a near set that is available elsewhere in this auction. The centered image is crease-free with moderate perimeter wear and relatively accurate centering. The portrait of the future Hall of Famer is set at Crockett Park and bolstered by intricate uniform detailing that emerges from a bright orange foundation. The “hints” reverse is absent of writing. 64. Circa 1889 Cape May Baseball Player Cabinet Card Lot of (10) with (2) SGC Graded Regarded as the oldest seaside resort in the U.S., Cape May, NJ served as host to an 1880s-1890s summer baseball team manned by players who attended major eastern colleges. Offered is a lot of (10) c.1889 Cape May baseball player cabinet cards with (2) SGC graded. Produced by Chester Studio of Cape May, these nicely-preserved photo cards measure approximately 4-1/4 x 6-1/2” and show incredible original details with sharp images and appealing gloss. Each card features a player attired in a Cape May baseball uniform posed in front of backdrop scene of the ocean. The reverse of each card is handwritten with the corresponding player’s name, position and the date ’89, along with the school and/or city they were associated with. Three of the subjects, Elwood “Woody” Wagenhurst, Billy Day and Dave “Cheese” Anderson played for the National League Philadelphia Quakers/Phillies during the late-1880s to early-1890s. Day also played in the Delaware State League and most of the others including Wagenhurst are cited as having attended Ivy Leagues schools. Featured players are: Elwood Wagenhurst SGC 20; “Cheese” Anderson SGC 20; and (8) non-graded cards average (VG to EX) with: Billy Day, George Bergen, Mart Bergen; C.C. Davis; “Flip” Durell, “Kid” Lansing; Joe Upton and “Slump” Watts. This item has a reserve. Estimated value ($5,500-$10,000). More on our website.

70. 1914-16 T213 Type 2 Coupon Cigarettes Christy Mathewson
This scarce 1914-16 T213-2 Coupon Cigarettes Christy Mathewson was released and distributed over a limited region in Louisiana. Far scarcer than the mainstream T206 White Borders pose, this rendition of the “Christian Gentleman” is desirable in any condition. Due to the harsh elements of the Bayou, the glossy surfaces were particularly prone to obverse creasing and crazing. Presents (FR to GD) condition with moderate creasing throughout and a clean advertising back.
Opening Bid $150.00
71. 1887-1941 Pre-War Baseball Grab Bag (63) Including (20) Hall of Famers & Several Types

Clarke (PR, with Bat, reverse stamp, Piedmont), Willis (FR, with Bat, Old Mill); 1931 WS17: #9 B. Harris (VG), (2) #36 Vance (one VG is unnumbered, one GD is numbered); 1933 DeLong: #2 Simmons (FR), #5 Gehrig (PR, reverse residue), #6 Cochrane (GD), #24 Goslin (PR, reverse residue); 1933 R337 Eclipse Import: #420 Lazzeri (FR); 1936 Goudey: Cochrane (VG), Klein (GD); 1941 Double Play: #51/#52 Greenberg (EX), #61 Gomez/#62 Rizzuto (VG) and 1941 Goudey: #24 S. Andrews SP (VG-EX). More on our website.
Opening Bid $400.00

73. 1926-29 Exhibits Lou Gehrig, Postcard Back
As an integral component of the Murderers’ Row offensive machine, period Lou Gehrig material is in demand regardless of condition. This 1926-29 Baseball Exhibits of the pinstriped legend is flanked by postcard back. Aside from a faint crease near the upper left corner along with minimal edge wear, the action pose of the southpaw batter is unobstructed by any serious detractor. The correspondence reverse is absent of any writing or notation. A quality piece, worthy of third-party professional consideration that presents in (VG to VG-EX) condition.
Opening Bid $150.00

75. 1933 Goudey Baseball Lot (40)
Jump into the classic 1933 Goudey Baseball edition with the offered group of (40) cards. Although 43% of the cards display reverse writing or residue, still present in (GD to VG) condition with moderate, but even perimeter and interior wear.
Includes: #6 Dykes (GD), 12, 13, 15, 17, 21, 26, 33, 34, 38, 39, (2) 40, 43, 46, 48, 55, #62 P. Martin (GD), 78, #79 Faber (FR, reverse writing), 87, (2) 90, 100, 115, (2) 118, 120, 130, 136, 139, 155, 159, 167, 200, 210, 221, 225, 226 and 228.

116. Scarcely 1961 Topps Baseball Full Uncut Sheet (132 Cards) Including Mays and (5) Other Hall of Famers
A scarce survivor is uncovered with the offered 1961 Topps Baseball Series 2 and 3 full uncut sheet. Comprising (12) eleven-card rows, this printing press artifact presents remarkably well given its advanced age. Aside from general perimeter wear including moderate tear near the left middle edge and limited trimming along the right boundary (not affecting the cards), the obverse of this oversized display piece is still relatively clean with minimal instances of interior creasing, abrasions or contusions. The reverses of the four cards along the upper right corner ranging from #167 Giants Team to #121 Grba exhibit white paint residue. Four of the rows are double printed. Key players include: (2) #120 Mathews, (2) #132 Lopez, #136 Alston, (2) #141 B. Williams RC (one with slight abrasion), #150 Mays and #160 Ford.

165. 1962 Mantle/Maris “Safe at Home” One-Sheet Poster
In case you haven’t had the pleasure, we recommend viewing the delightful 1962 trailer from this classic baseball picture (linked on our website). The 27x41 one-sheet poster has been adhered to a modern cardboard backing that basically serves the role of the linen-backing process. Both the standard fold lines and minor peripheral wear are shored up and ameliorated by the card-board mount. Apparent EX condition.
Opening Bid $200.00

166. 1964 Mantle/Berra “Yoo-Hoo” Store Counter Sign
Who better to promote the “Drink of Champions” than this perennial winning pair? Fresh, crisp and beautiful, the counter sign consists of a 4x7 glossy pictorial front and a 3x7 hinged back. It was clearly never used, but rather stored away for all these decades. Near Mint condition.
Opening Bid $150.00

167. 1975 Topps Baseball Cards Store Advertising Poster
This point-of-sale display poster encourages youngsters to buy the newly released 1975 Topps Baseball series. The poster was meant to be displayed in candy store windows. Printed on slick paper stock and measuring 17x24, it features 27 cards from the 1975 set around the perimeter of the border. The cards include some from the MVP series, ’74 highlights (Kaline, and Ryan), two team cards, and player cards, including Munson, Perry, Foster, Allen and others. EX appearance overall with close inspection revealing faint surface foxing throughout and typical minor peripheral wear.

171. Baltimore Orioles 1954 Inaugural Season Full-Size Pennant - Extremely Rare!
From perennial cellar dwellers to a fundamentally sound prototype, the St. Louis Browns took flight as the Orioles and were “hatched” in Baltimore in 1954. This vintage full-size pennant was issued during that inaugural season! Listed as “Extremely Rare” in Mike Egner’s 2013 Vintage Pennant Price Guide II, the orange felt banner features a scroll-style roster listing, appliquéd near 100% with minimal cracking and original black spine and tassels. This one is a beaut!
Opening Bid $150.00

172. 1950s-1970s Baltimore Orioles Pennant Lot of (8) With Several Rare Examples
As the pieces fall into place, the words “pennant” and Orioles” became synonymous. These (8) Baltimore Orioles banners hail from those glory years and include: (5) 1950s: including a three-quarter size listed as “Rare” in Mike Egner’s 2013 Vintage Pennant Price Guide II and (4) 1950s examples (identical design with different color schemes; one three-quarter and three full-size) “Rare”; (3) 1970s: with (2) 1970 and (1) 1971 American League Champions. Appliqué is crack-free throughout and spines/tassels (where applicable) intact.
Opening Bid $150.00

173. 1950-1963 Pennant Better Grade Lot of (15) with (2) 1950 League Champions & (2) 1963 World Series
Pennant pickers reap a ripe harvest with this lot of (15) 1950-1963 better grade full/mini size pennants. Highlights are: (2) 1950 league champions 28x11 full-size with: American League “N.Y. Yankees” (VG-EX); and National League “Fightin’ Phillies” (VG-EX), both with nearly full appliqués/lettering, tassels absent, each with a few small, unobtrusive holes; (2) 1963 World Series both Dodgers versions vs. Yankees with: 30x12 (EX-MT); and 30x11 (EX-MT), both with tassels attached and negligible traces of wear of the appliqués/lettering. 177. 1954 Baltimore Orioles Team-Signed Ball (Full JSA) and Frank Skaff 1954 20th Anniversary Game-Worn Ensemble
As Baltimoreans lined the streets for miles between downtown and 33rd Street, a raucous celebration as the Orioles paraded to their 1954 home opener resembled that reserved for a World Series winner. And while these “Baby Birds” were in their debut season, it wasn’t long before those championship parades were annual. These (2) artifacts celebrate those ’54 O’s. Included are: 1954 Team-Signed Ball: (30 signs) with Coan, Courtney, Durham, Dykes, Eng, Larsen and Wiatkus (full JSA); 1954 20th Year Reunion Ensemble: tailored by Brooks Robinson Sporting Goods, the ensemble was worn by former coach Frank Skaff at a 1974 reunion at Memorial Stadium. Pristine! More on our website.

178. Late-1950s Washington Senators Home Jersey Used In Film Production of “Damn Yankees”
From his living room in a Maryland suburb of Washington, D.C., Joe Boyd could only lament as his beloved Senators struggled in their hopeless pursuit of those Bronx Bombers. In exchange for his soul, however, Boyd becomes a youthful Joe Hardy and powers the Senators to prominence. Such are the fantastic plot twists in the late-1950s film adaptation of “Damn Yankees.” This Washington Senators home jersey was used in that award winning production that tested the limits of loyalty and morals. The cream-colored flannel garment features proper “Wilson” tagging and identifiers found on the club’s actual gamers. LOA from Phil Wood. More on our website.

179. 1959 World Series Hickok Award 10-Karat Gold Belt Buckle Presented to Series MVP Larry Sherry
In the Fall Classic for the first time since departing Brooklyn, the 1959 Dodgers prevailed in six games. On a triumphant roster headlined by legends such as Snider, Hodges, Koufax and Drysdale, it was little-known relief pitcher Larry Sherry who garnered World Series MVP laurels, finishing all four of the Dodger wins while collecting two wins and two saves. For his efforts, Sherry was awarded this Hickok belt buckle. The 10-karat gold accessory features a relief figure and wreath with engraved identifiers reading “S RAE HICKOK AWARD – PROFESSIONAL ATHLETE – L.S.” On the hollowed reverse, the engraved legend reads “HICKOK CHAMPION OCTOBER 1959 LARRY SHERRY BASEBALL.” This unusual relic is as stunning today as it was upon its presentation more than half a century ago!

180. Tom Seaver 1973 New York Mets N.L. Champions Salesman’s Sample Ring
In last place as late as August 31, the 1973 New York Mets rose from the depths and advanced to the World Series despite a record-low 82 regular season triumphs. An integral component on a resilient roster, Hall of Famer Tom Seaver went 4-2 in September. This salesman’s sample ring was crafted for Seaver for that championship effort. The Balfour 10-karat gold size 10 accessory weighs 24.3 grams and features a blue center stone with an array of simulated diamonds arranged to form a baseball. A raised-letter proclamation reads “N.L. CHAMPIONS – 1973 – N.Y. METS.” The left shank showcases the Mets’ skyline-themed logo, as well as “SEERVER” and “41” engravings. The opposite shank is home to relief likenesses of Shea Stadium, an NLCS composite line score and a Mets cap. Amazon!”
Opening Bid $1500.00

181. Steve Garvey 1977 Los Angeles Dodgers N.L. Champions Salesman’s Sample Ring
Still viewed as a squeaky clean role model and face of the Los Angeles Dodgers, Steve Garvey delivered career bests in home runs (33) and RBI (115) as he powered his club to the 1977 World Series. This salesman’s sample ring was crafted for Garvey that fall. The 26.9-gram accessory tests positive to be between 10 and 14 karat gold and features a facing with a blue stone and (4) simulated diamonds surrounding as “bases.” The raised-letter proclamation of “DODGERS NATIONAL LEAGUE CHAMPIONS.” On the left shank, a Dodgers logo is flanked by a pennant with a “GARVEY” engraving and a home plate with an engraved “6.” The opposite shank is home to relief likenesses of an airplane (perhaps to symbolize the cross-country Fall Classic), “LA” and “1977.” As stated, the ring is gold, but “Dodger Blue” at the same time!

182. Babe Ruth 1937 Sinclair “Babe Ruth Baseball Contest” Ball
A full two years after he had trotted the bases for the 714th and final time, Babe Ruth remained a marketing cash cow and the idol of millions across the globe. Attesting to those sentiments, this 1937 “Sinclair Babe Ruth Contest” baseball was a coveted prize for youths willing to submit an essay. The lightly toned orb features ONL Frick stampings, a sponsor logo and a secretarial Ruth signature on a side panel. Accompanying are (2) “Essso Babe Ruth Boys Club” contest coupons from an unrelated 1930s promotion.
Opening Bid $250.00

184. (3) Babe Ruth Items with 1950s Babe Ruth League Baseball in Original Box and (2) 8x10 Promo Photos
Babe Ruth’s clout continues to echo across the ages with this Ruth related memorabilia lot of (3). Featured are: 1.) an Official Babe Ruth League baseball (NM) off-white with bold stampings and very minor traces of toning, housed in its original MacGregor manufacturer’s box which presents in solid and handsome (EX) condition; 2.) 8x10 batting pose promo photo with blue facsimile signature and “Greatest Player Ever” caption (EX); 3.) 8x10 potentially rare promo photo with Harry Heilman and two boys (VG-EX). 186. 1954 Philadelphia Banquet Original Photo Featuring Cobb, Grange, Mack, Foxx and Joe Louis
A veritable Who’s Who of then-living legends, this gathering centers on Connie Mack and Ty Cobb smiling and shaking hands front and center with Joe Louis looming above. They are joined by Chuck Klein, Red Grange, Jack Kelly, Jimmy Foxx, Frank Baker, Dave Bancroft, Mickey Cochrane, Tris Speaker, Lefty Grove and Willie Hoppe. All names are noted on the reverse, along with the event details: “Phila. Sports Writers 50th Annual Dinner At Broadwood Hotel / January 25th, 1954.” Displayed within a 14x10 matte, the 10-1/4 x 6-1/4” visible area is apparent VG-EX with a small surface wrinkle touching Cobb’s face. Overall image quality is exceptional with great focus and contrast.
Opening Bid $150.00

188. 1951 New York Yankees World Champions Oversized 14x17 Team Photo
 Appropriately for their passing of the torch, old Joe D is positioned in the wings, while the fresh-faced young Mick takes center stage. Stalwarts Berra, Rizzuto and Stengel also stand out immediately from the 39-man lineup. Seldom seen in this impressive size and scope, the dramatic display technically rates about GD due to creasing and a few edge tears. Close examination of the image itself suggests that it was not printed from the original negative, yet viewed at arm’s length one can hardly tell the difference. Elegant framing would further enhance this classic shot’s visual appeal.

187. “Ruth’s Cafe” 16x20 Archival Pigment Limited Edition Print of Babe Ruth and Father in Their Baltimore Tavern - Exclusively Numbered 1/100!
There exist only a few original examples of this iconic photo—the sole known image of Babe Ruth and his father. Each elite survivor is likely valued at over $50,000. However, an innovative Baltimore printmaker has steadfastly toiled away on his ambitious quest to create a perfect colorized version using cutting-edge, pixel-for-pixel digital technology and a state-of-the-art printing process. And he has succeeded with flying colors. Following up on the “Ruth’s Cafe” Printer’s Proof Prototype (#1/1) that was auctioned in 2013, this is the project’s second-ever public offering and, significantly, it boasts the desirable “#1” designation from the forthcoming limited-edition series numbered to just 100. The lower margin has also been accentuated with the signature-style embossed imprint “BABE RUTH’S CAFE.” More info on our website.

183. Circa 1950s-1960s Babe Ruth Toy Bat & Ball Set in Original Display Package
Newly founded in the 1950s, Empire Industries of Tarboro, NC wasted no time in cashing in on “Babe” Ruth’s enormous popularity with the introduction of this “Babe Ruth Bat and Baseball” plastic toy set. Consisting of an 18” long bat and a 2” diameter ball this toy was apparently intended for the preschoolers. House in its original cardboard baseball glove display package the offered set has remarkably escaped use by the intended tykes to remain in like new condition. Both bat and ball show no signs of wear and the 5x6 packaging remains solid. More on our website.

Mesmerizing. Disarming. Cryptic. There’s a Mona Lisa-like quality to the way Shoeless Joe stares at us down the knowing half-smile of someone harboring a deep dark secret. You could almost imagine this being a picture held in Ray Kinsella’s hand as he puzzles over Jackson’s legacy in Field of Dreams. It’s that iconic. What’s more, the image quality is terrific, right down to the clarity of the individual hairs in his unibrow and the crow’s-feet around his eyes. A reverse pencil caption, “Joe Jackson / Cleveland,” suggests news-service usage, yet there is no sign of the typical handling wear and crop marks, etc. Clean EX condition with a lustrous surface sheen.

189. 1920s-1930s Baseball Negatives Lot (4) Including Cobb, Collins and Hornsby

This quartet of matching 4x5 acetate negatives deliver striking, high-quality portraits of Ty Cobb, Eddie Collins, Rogers Hornsby and Ollie Bejma. Image areas rate EX-MT/NM with typical minor wear in the surrounding margins. All feature handwritten name captions directly on the negative. Although Ty Cobb’s uniform style can be pinpointed to the 1920-26 period, Bejma only played in the 1930s and acetate negatives were more common then. Also included are the weathered original envelopes, which correctly note Bejma and Collins, but incorrectly identify the names “Fohl Lee” and “Johnson” on the other two examples.

190. 1960s-1980s United Press International Photos Lot (78) Including 28 Hall of Famers

Virtually all are 7x9 or 8x10 and carry stampings from the 1962-1985 period—thus spanning the 1962 introduction of the zip code to UPI’s stamp style up through the 1985 demise of UPI’s picture service. Generally speaking, this is a Type III collection—meaning that the photos were produced at the time of the image itself, but either were not produced from the original negative or else were transmitted over UPI’s Telephoto wire service. That said, there do appear to be occasional examples with the superb image quality of a Type I (Frank Robinson) or Type II (Mel Ott). A handful of photos also feature attached paper captions. EX condition overall with typical evidence of newsroom usage. Highlights include: Aaron (2 - one from 7/15th HR with paper caption), F. Robinson, Rose (2), Schmidt (’80 WS), Ott, Ripken Jr. and Carlton (5).

191. 1970s-1990s Major League Team-Issued Photos (1,300+)* Including (93) Hall of Famers - From the Files of Noted Sports Journalist Norm MacLean

According to our consignor, this massive archive was obtained from Sports Press Service editor/writer Norm MacLean, whose 5-decade journalism career includes more than 50 Stanley Cups and 50 World Series, plus 10 Olympics and 34 Super Bowls. Mostly black-and-white images with some color in the mix, the collection appears on modern Kodak-style photo paper that is blank-backed except for consistent handwritten caption notations of the image subject(s) and an occasional identification as to the photographer/distributor. To be clear, these are not Type I, Type II or Type III photos, but rather Type IV photos (i.e., reproductions made at a later date). However, they remain a veritable Who’s Who of Cooperstown and carry the allure of having been used in printed publication. About half measure approximately 8x10, with the other half generally ranging from 4x5 to 6x8. Highlights of the 450+ HOFers include: Jeter (2), Aaron (2), DiMaggio, Mays (2), Mantle/Stengel, DiMaggio/Mantle, Cobb, Foxx/Gehrig, Ruth, Maris, Paige/Campanella, T. Williams, Shoeless Joe, Koufax, Clemente, Maddux and Boggs. EX condition overall.

Daniel Duffy Introduction
A rising star on the sports art scene, Daniel Duffy literally paints with words. Through MLB.com, stadium shops, show appearances and his website, he has sold over 10,000 portrait prints featuring his unique brand of text art—yet fewer than a dozen of his original works have ever come to auction. Of those, this quartet (’56 Yankees, ’80 Phillies, ’86 Mets and ’14 Giants) represents the first public offering of Duffy’s popular “Road to the World Series” project, in which he meticulously depicts championship celebration scenes using the entire season’s game log of dates, locations, results and scores. (Even the pinstripes are intricately composed of data!) Each piece appears on art-board and is signed and dated by Duffy.

193. 1956
Yankees
Larsen/Berra “Road to the World Series”
Large 19x27
Original Pen-
and-Ink
Artwork by
Daniel Duffy
This perfect tribute to Larsen’s perfecto captures one of the most iconic moments in Yankee history as Berra leaps into his battery mate’s arms after the 27th and final out. It came on Larsen’s 97th pitch—a called third strike against Dale Mitchell. Duffy’s text begins with “APR 17TH
AT WSH W 10-4” and concludes with “NEW YORK YANKEES WIN 17TH WORLD SERIES.”
Opening Bid $500.00

194. 1980

World Series”
Large
20x27 Original
Pen-and-Ink
Artwork by
Daniel Duffy
Among the 19 pitchers with a World Series-clinching strikeout are Sandy Koufax, Bob Gibson, Bruce Sutter, Jesse Orosco and Tug McGraw. The Tugger’s came on a 1-2 fastball past Willie Wilson, and it brought the house down as Vet Stadium erupted in pandemonium, and as McGraw and Schmidt leaped in triumphant joy. Duffy’s text begins with “APR 11TH VS MON W 6-3” and ends with “PHILADELPHIA PHILLIES WIN 1980 WORLD SERIES 4-2.”

Mets Orosco
“Road to the World Series” Large
19x27 Pen-
and-Ink
Original
Artwork by
Daniel Duffy
Orosco recorded more career pitching appearances than anybody in major league history, yet the most significant one of all occurred in Game 7 of the ’86 World Series. The ace reliever retired the side in the 9th inning, then dropped to his knees with his hands raised to the sky as Gary Carter and company raced to join him. (The moment was further immortalized as part of the closing credits for This Week in Baseball.) Duffy’s text begins with “APR 5TH AT PIT W 4-2” and ends with “NEW YORK METS WIN 1986 WORLD SERIES 4-3.”

196. 2014 Giants Bumgarner/Posey/Sandoval “Road to the World Series” 16x20 Original Pen-and-Ink Artwork by Daniel Duffy
With 2 wins, 1 save and just 1 earned run in 21 innings, Madison Bumgarner’s World Series performance was one for the ages. Backstop Buster Posey signaled for 5 straight fastballs down the homestretch...and Mad Bum delivered. The fifth heater brought a foul popup snagged by Pablo Sandoval for the final out. Dynasty! Duffy’s text begins with “3/31 AT ARI W 9-8” and ends with “SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS WIN 2014 WORLD SERIES 4-3.”

Timothy Raines Introduction

What sets Timothy Raines apart from many prominent sports artists is that he didn’t make his name in the memorabilia industry, but rather crossed over from the elite art world of galleries and museums. Raines' explosive mix of abstract expressionism and brand identity has earned him much praise and attention, ranging from exhibitions throughout Texas and Florida to a 2012 show at the Monaco Grand Prix. He even has his own very Timothy Raines Gallery in St. Petersburg, FL. Clients include Aston Martin, Michelin, Major League Baseball, the Tampa Bay Rays, Blue Cross/Blue Shield and duPont REGISTRY. Raines’ prints are also widely available on MLB team websites. However, this pairing of the Orioles and Braves represents the first time that Raines’ team-logo artwork has ever been publicly offered at auction. To see Timothy in action as he works his magic with paint bottles in hand, we recommend viewing the “Timothy Raines - White Tiger” YouTube video (linked on our website).

Please note: These items will ship directly from the artist in St. Petersburg, FL.

197. Baltimore Orioles Team Logo 24x30 Original Acrylic-on-Canvas Painting by Timothy Raines According to the O’s official website, this logo incarnation debuted in 2012 and is referred to as the “New Cartoon Bird” with this description: “To celebrate the 20th Anniversary Season of Oriole Park at Camden Yards, the team introduced a slightly modernized cartoon bird on its home and road caps and batting helmets. The new bird borrows elements from the cartoon bird of the 60’s and 70’s, with refined details and also the team’s O’s alternate cap.” Opening Bid $1100.00

198. Atlanta Braves Team Logo 24x30 Original Acrylic-on-Canvas Painting by Timothy Raines With Maddux, Glavine, Cox and Smoltz recently elected to the hallowed HOF pantheon, Atlanta’s logo takes on special resonance these days. The franchise incorporated its tomahawk into the “A” cap design in 2003, and gazing upon it you can just hear the Tomahawk Chop echoing throughout Turner Field: Ooooh-oooh, ooooh-oooh-oooh, ooooh-oooh-oooh. Opening Bid $1000.00

199. Jimmy Rollins/Mike Schmidt “Phillies All-Time Hit Record” Large 18x24 Original Oil Painting by Dick Perez - Used for Official Phillies Poster Promotion The greatest constant in Dick Perez’s unparalleled four-decade career has been his tenure as Official Artist of the Philadelphia Phillies. Even as he blazed a trail with Perez-Steele, Diamond Kings, The Immortals and the Conlon Collection, Perez never failed to deliver for his home team, never lost sight of his commitment to create classic works showcasing key players and important milestones. Last year, the Phillies asked Dick to commemorate J-Roll’s franchise hit record for a poster that was gifted to “Early Bird Special” season-ticket buyers. Rollins laced a single to surpass Mike Schmidt with hit 2,235—and none other than Schmidt himself was the first to offer his congratulations. The heartwarming moment led to a brief halt as the Phils dugout emptied for more hugs, handshakes and high-fives. Perez’s oil-on-canvas-panel rendering boasts all the hallmarks of his trademark impressionism, with vibrant hues, deft chiaroscuro and thick impasto brushstrokes. It’s the ultimate celebration of the only two Phillies franchise players who captured championship glory. Opening Bid $500.00

200. Ryan Zimmerman 2007 Topps Turkey Red #127 Original Dick Perez Artwork The longest tenured Washington Nationals player and franchise all-time leader in home runs (184), Ryan Zimmerman is the subject of this original artwork for his portrayal on the 2007 Topps Turkey Red #127 card collectible. Composed by artist Dick Perez on a 10-1/2 x 15” thick stock placard, the colorful oil painting shows Zimmerman in action at the hot corner. Opening Bid $150.00

Kirk Timmons Introduction
Emerging artist Kirk Timmons has burst on the scene in recent years with his unique style of number art. Each pen-and-ink portrait montage appears within the player’s iconic uniform number and is then digitally formed into the prints that are sold on MLB.com’s team websites. Never before has Timmons publicly or privately sold any of his number-art original pieces, so we’re pleased to debut them here and we look forward to witnessing this up-and-comer’s growth in the sports-art market. Rendered on white paper and signed by the artist, each dynamic offering spans the subject’s career with classic poses from all facets of play. Because these are working illustrations, there is incidental light peripheral wear from the artistic process. All are unframed.

209. 19th Century “Dartmouth Battery” Baseball Mechanical Bank in Full Working Order
Condition strength, design appeal and crossover potential promote this marvel of 19th Century engineering. Presented is a c.1880s “Dartmouth Battery” baseball mechanical bank in full working order. Several collector genres, including 19th Century baseball memorabilia, mechanical banks and Black Americana are represented and command attention on this famous bank whenever offered, assuring permanent demand. Three meticulously crafted player figures stand ready for action atop a base decorated with a crossed bats/ball design centered between the title words. The pitcher’s right hand has an opposable thumb which clamps on a coin when his arm is moved to the rear, an activating pin behind the catcher causes the coin to be pitched past the batter into a moving trap-door in the catcher’s chest which opens to the coin reservoir. Approximate dimensions are 7-1/4” at the highest point and 9-3/4 x 2-5/8” at the base. Marked by overall light, age-appropriate wear this captivating specimen shows quality in design and preservation from end to end with an appealing degree of original paint and well-cast detail definition. The hardware screws, spring, lever and reservoir stopper are consistent with known period examples and the stopper is engraved with “PATD FEB 2 1875”. More on our website.

210. 1930s Detroit Tigers Cast Iron Door Stop
Figural fanatics pounce on this fantastic 1930s cast iron Tiger door stop. Modeled in an exact replica of the Detroit Tigers end seat figural design installed during a late-1930s Briggs Stadium expansion renovation, this handsome example is one the finest offered as compared to those discovered in sales stretching back for a decade. Standing 8-1/2” tall by 6” wide on a 4-1/2 x 2-1/2” base this fearsome bat wielding Tigers mascot shows an excellent degree of originality including sharp facial details and nearly full painted black stripes. 218. 1911 World Series Game 1 Polo Grounds Program
Before “Bruth Stadium” was known as “The Polo Grounds,” Manhattan had but one contender as this program was issued in Harlem for the opener of the 1911 Fall Classic. The 12-page guide features team and composite photos of the participants, as well as pre-printed lineups with scoring grids marked in pencil to document a 2-1 Giants triumph. With covers and thick stock pages secure throughout, this is among the better survivors you’ll find! Nearly indiscernible, a vertical compacting crease is a common flaw on guides of this era. Among the advertisements is one for Jacob Ruppert’s “Knickerbocker” Beer. Ruppert, of course, later purchased the Yankees and began the winningest dynasty in American sports, drawing the ire of Giants ownership to prompt an eviction from the Polo Grounds and force the creation of Yankee Stadium. This item has a reserve (estimated value: $1000-$2500).
Opening Bid $300.00

Issued during the waning years of the “Dead Ball” era this antique group of (4) 1910-1920 baseball publications is sure to peak the interest of sports historians. Featured are: (2) 1910 Sporting Life’s booklets titled “Official Playing Schedule of the American League Baseball Clubs” (EX, VG-EX) both attractive with classic team composite images inside; 1918 The Sporting News “Record Book of 1918” presents VG with deference to detached back cover page, great marching players cover; 1920 Spalding Catalog (VG-EX) with numerous illustrations.
Opening Bid $200.00

220. New York D.A. Frank S. Hogan’s Signed 1924 Columbia University Yearbook with 1923 Lou Gehrig Photos
Seemingly Lou Gehrig’s home runs traveled further than he did. Growing up in Manhattan, “The Iron Horse” starred at NY School of Commerce and Columbia University before joining the Yankees. Offered is a 1924 Columbia University yearbook which belonged to longtime NYC district attorney Frank S. Hogan featuring (3) photos of Gehrig from the school’s 1923 baseball season. Embossed with Hogan’s name on the front cover this one-of-a-kind relic is also signed by the famous DA. Gehrig appears posed, at bat and in a team photo. More on our website.

238. 1926 World Series Game 1 Yankee Stadium Ticket Stub From Gehrig's First-Ever W.S. Game - PSA “Authentic”

Humble and content to let his celebrated counterparts have the headlines, Lou Gehrig remained an unsung performer in seven World Series, posting as .361 career Fall Classic mark as his team won six of the showdowns — but plaudits went seemingly to everyone but Gehrig. Encapsulated and assessed “Authentic” by PSA, this Yankee Stadium ticket stub was issued for Game 1 of the 1926 World Series, Gehrig’s first-ever October spectacle. The “Grand Stand” voucher presents nicely and has tails from a 2-1 Yankee win in which Gehrig drove in both runs. This item has a reserve (estimated value: $1000-$2500).

Opening Bid $300.00

239. 1926 World Series Game 2 Yankee Stadium Ticket Stub - PSA “Authentic”

Prone to epileptic seizures often mistaken for bouts with drunkenness, Hall of Famer Pete Alexander remained baffling to opposing batters as he stymied the Yankees with two complete game wins and a Game 7 save in the 1926 World Series, a battle that ended on Babe Ruth’s curious stolen base attempt as he represented the tying run. Encapsulated and assessed “Authentic” by PSA, this ticket stub was issued at Yankee Stadium for Game 2 of that Fall Classic, a game in which the 39-year-old Alexander went the route for a 6-2 triumph.

Opening Bid $400.00

240. 1929-1931 World Series Full Ticket Stubs at Philadelphia's Shibe Park (3)

With Mack at the helm; Foxx, Cochrane and Simmons at the plate and Grove on the hill, one could make a strong case that the 1929-1931 Philadelphia A’s dynasty was as good as any ball club that ever took the field. All three World Series appearances are represented by these approx. 5 x 2-1/2 “Main Stand Pavilion” tickets featuring classic, attractive design and Mack’s facsimile signature. Includes: 1929 Game 3 (GDVG); 1930 Game 1 (EX); and 1931 Game 3 (EX).

Opening Bid $150.00

241. Mickey Mantle 1951 New York Yankees Spring Training Full Tickets Pair

For a change of scenery, the ’51 Yankees said goodbye to Florida and hello to Arizona. Both of these attractive, nicely preserved tickets are for contests at Phoenix Municipal Stadium against the Indians. The first hails from the first Yankee home game of Mantle’s rookie year—and thus from his game-action debut in pinstripes! (It’s also the game where he was adjusting his sunglasses for a high fly ball and got bonked directly on the forehead.) The 1-5 x 6” ticket has a crisp VG/EX appearance with a few faint edge creases and some staple wear at top. The second ticket represents the last Yankee spring-training game before breaking camp and heading east. It measures 2x6 and would be EX or better but for surface toning and a staple mark at top.

Opening Bid $150.00

242. 1952 National League Season Pass, Schedule and Wallet Compliments of NL President Warren Giles

Dedicated ticket seekers will not want to pass on this 1952 National League season pass/schedule combo. Housed in their original presentation wallet these seldom offered souvenirs remain highly appealing. Issued to “Carew Tower Cincinnati, Ohio” the season pass rates a (VG) grade due to light creasing, though the sturdy stock and bold printing present better. Embossed in gold with “Compliments of Warren C. Giles President” the accompanying schedule booklet appears as though it has never been opened. More on our website.

Opening Bid $100.00

243. June 24, 1964 Jim Bunning Perfect Game Ticket Stub

The seventh “perfecto” in MLB history came on Father’s Day for a man who would ultimately have 9 children of his own. Over the course of just 90 pitches, Bunning recorded 10 strikeouts, with opposing Mets batters managing just 4 balls to the outfield. Oh, and he rapped out a 2-run double himself for good measure! Apity showing a crying Mr. Met, this 1-1/2 x 3-1/4” stub gave entry to a $3.50 Field Level Box seat. It displays frontally as VG/VG-EX with a bright appearance, bold print, light corner creasing and an errant pencil mark at center left. The reverse has some paper loss along the bottom perforated edge.

245. 5/24/05 New York Yankees Owner’s Suite Full Ticket from Cano’s 1st Career Home Run—SGC Authentic

Silver Slugger quality hitting and slick fielding have propelled five-tool superstar Robinson Cano to perennial All-Star status. Ticket specialists knock one out of the park with this 5/24/05 New York Yankees Owner’s Suite full ticket from Cano’s first career home run game. Designed Authentic by SGC this impressive ticket bears muddied photos of Yankees greats with Ruth, DiMaggio and others along with the classic Yankees top hat and bat logo at center. Adding prestige to this milestone souvenir is the printed term “Comp” in place of a face value price.

Opening Bid $100.00
246. Scarce December 2, 1899 Army-Navy Program and Ticket Stubs (2) - 1st Neutral Field Game in Rivalry History!
Although Army and Navy began doing gridiron battle from 1890-1893, it wasn’t until 1899 that the annual rivalry as we know it today actually took shape. Henceforth the games were played on neutral ground, often roughly equidistant from the academies at Philadelphia’s Franklin Field. The Black Knights captured the historic 1899 contest 17-5, thus bringing their Army-Navy series record to 2-3. Dated 12/2/99, this trio begins with a 3x5 program featuring full lineups plus colorful interior corner designs. FR condition due to vertical fold lines. As for the 1-1/2 x 2-5/8" stubs, the West Stand example is FR/GD and the North Stand example has a GD display appearance with heavy mounting wear on the reverse.
Opening Bid $200.00

247. Scarce 1900 Army-Navy Program at Franklin Field - 2nd Neutral Field Game!
The Midshipmen advanced their Army-Navy series record to 4-2 with an 11-7 win on the neutral ground at Franklin Field. Dated 12/1/1900, this 3x5 program features full lineups and rates FR with an unobtrusive score notation on the front.
Opening Bid $150.00

248. Scarce 1903, 1904 Army-Navy Programs Pair at Franklin Field
The Black Knights won their third and fourth straight Army-Navy Games in ’03-’04, lifting their overall series record to 6-4 with routs of 40-5 and 11-0 at Franklin Field. Both of these programs measure 3x5 and feature full lineups. The 11/28/03 example is technically VG but displays much cleaner with a clean frontal presentation. The 11/26/04 example is GD w/pencil notations and reverse mounting wear.
Opening Bid $150.00

249. 1905-1907 Army-Navy Program and Tickets Lot (4 Items)
The 1905 contest marked the first tie in Army-Navy rivalry history, and Navy’s 1907 victory tied up the series at 6-6-1. Three of these four relics hail from the latter game. The 3x5 program displays frontally as VG-EX with a horizontal centerfold, plus a few numerical pencil notations inside and mounting wear throughout the reverse. Its corresponding ticket pair measures 1-1/2 x 2-5/8", with an EX frontal appearance and mounting wear throughout the reverse. (South Stand example bears a rough perforated edge.) Lastly, the like-sized 12/2/05 ticket has a GD/VG front and mounting-wear reverse.
Opening Bid $150.00

250. Scarce 1906 Army-Navy Laced Program and Full Ticket at Franklin Field
The powers-that-be spared no expense and pulled out all the stops on this design. The binding of the luxurious, surprisingly thick, gold-embossed vinyl covers is actually laced together like a football! Measuring 7x10, the 272-page, book-sized program technically rates GD/VG overall but displays very nicely and features mostly NM interior pages. An absolute treasure trove of Army-Navy nostalgia inside! Accompanied by a 5-1/4 x 2-3/4" full ticket in impressive EX/MT condition with the bearer’s name inscribed at the top.
Opening Bid $200.00

251. November 27, 1926 Army-Navy Program and Full Tickets (3 Items) - Soldier Field Dedication Game!
One of the biggest events in all of Soldier Field’s long, rich, proud history came on November 27, 1926, when the stadium was officially and formally dedicated before a crowd of 110,000 for the 26th annual Army-Navy game—a 21-21 tie that gave Army a 14-12-3 lead in the age-old series. Measuring 5-3/4 x 2-3/4", the gray ticket is GD/VG and the pink ticket is GD with notations on the reverse. The accompanying 7-3/4 x 10-3/4" program rates FR/GD.
Opening Bid $150.00
252. November 26, 1927 Army-Navy Program and Full Tickets Lot (3 Items)
A Polo Grounds crowd of 70,000 witnessed Army’s second-half comeback from a 9-point deficit to win 14-9. Measuring 6 x 2-3/4” and rating NM, these two beautiful, ornate, full proof tickets would have entitled the bearer to pricey $25 box seats’ (Obviously predating the Great Depression.) Both are encapsulated as PSA/DNA AUTHENTIC. The 9-1/2 x 12” scored program is FR with additional pencil notations.
Opening Bid $150.00

254. 1930s-1940s Army-Navy Programs Lot (8)
This is technically a VG collection overall due to typical general wear, however the presentation quality is much nicer and the illustrated covers are riveting. Includes: 1936 (Howard Chandler Christy cover), 1940, 1941 (tape on spine), 1944 (taped edge tear on reverse), 1945 (tape on spine), 1947, 1948 (GD), 1949 (GD, tape on front and back).

258. 1910s-1970s Collegiate Football Tickets Lot (38)
The collector behind this grouping did not merely cobble it together through memorabilia shows and auctions, but rather personally enjoyed many of the games himself. One testament to this fact is that any included pairings are actually for adjacent seats. Condition averages VG/VG-EX overall with typical usage wear, uneven torn edges and occasional reverse mounting wear or notations. Highlights include; 11/16/12 Dart./Harv., 11/1/14 Brown/Harv., 11/2/29 Navy/Penn, 11/14/36 Navy/Harv., 11/2/40 Penn/Navy (full, bicentennial commemoration), 11/8/41 Army/Harv. (2) and 10/27/45 Navy/Penn (full). More on our website.

THE BROWNSTOWN COLLECTION

In the mid-1970s, our consignor not only discovered some of the long lost baseball and football cards of his youth, he also found other early hobby enthusiasts at that time with the same passion for those cardboard relics of years gone by. He started amassing as many cards as he could get his hands on, always with the stress on completing Topps sets in the best condition that he could find/afford at the time. With the advent of card shows, and then auctions, his collection grew in leaps and bounds.

He basically stopped collecting in the late 1980s, and it wasn’t until about five years ago that he started PSA grading some of the better cards in the collection, to the tune of almost 1,000 cards graded over a very short period of time! Huggins & Scott is proud to have been selected to offer this fresh-to-the-hobby collection to our valued customers. We hope you enjoy owning parts of the “Browntown Collection” as much as our consignor enjoyed putting it together.

327. 1951 Bowman Baseball #253 Mickey Mantle Rookie - PSA 4 True Mantle Rookie! Graded VG-EX 4 by PSA. As one of the foundation pieces of the modern collecting hobby, the offered 1951 Bowman Baseball #253 Mickey Mantle rookie card is coveted by hobbyists the world over. This horizontal high number presents exceptionally well for the technical judgment and precedes the Topps “rookie” by a full season. The young Oklahoma slugger emerges from a cloudy stadium backdrop by exhibiting his switch-hitting prowess. The obverse displays a well-concealed spider crease that is mostly hidden by the perfectly contrasted illustration. Despite a trace of reverse wax staining common to the issue, the biographical back detailing Mantle’s rookie exploits is bright and clean.
Opening Bid $750.00

352. Ty Cobb 1919 Single-Signed and Dated Baseball Personalized to Helene Champlain - Full JSA

“A Chinese sage wrote that exaggeration is to paint a snake and add legs. With me, they attached fangs, claws, file-sharpened spikes, and fire snorting out each nostril.” A damning self-assessment, to be sure, but a portrayal Ty Cobb endured through a lifetime of torment quelled only during the heat of competition. Surely, there are numerous accounts of Cobb’s generosity and genuine kindness. But the popular definition always leans toward the sensational, which, in Cobb’s case, all but obscures his good deeds. This autographed baseball is a definitive link to a companionship and its heartfelt sentiments. Given by Cobb to an East Coast friend, this OAL Johnson baseball is among the most glorious single-signed Cobb examples in the hobby. With trademark “Reach” stampings that date specifically to 1918-1924, the Junior Circuit orb is covered with a thin, uniform coat of period shellac. On a side panel, Cobb has inscribed in black-ink steel tip fountain pen: “To Helene Champlain — July 30th — 19 from (signed) Ty Cobb.” Cobb’s potent signature extends to the somewhat faded but legible trademark stampings. Complete with his customary paraph, Cobb’s penning projects every bit of (“7-8”) strength and clarity, with lesser pen pressure on the “C” preventing even higher assessment. As for Cobb’s relationship with Champlain, perhaps the above-cited quote applies. Correspondence between Cobb and Champlain has surfaced with examples from 1923, 1927 and 1948 and the “consensus” is that Champlain was Cobb’s “mistress.” The 1927 correspondence, incidentally, was a Christmas card from Cobb and his wife. As for Champlain, she has been described as a book salesperson at Macy’s in New York and a member of the Trinity Church. While speculation always follows controversy, the only “truth” here is that this is one of the most spectacular Cobb signatures we’ve encountered. Full photo LOA from JSA.

353. Jimmie Foxx Single-Signed Mini-Ball From His 1959 Galesburg, Illinois Restaurant - Rare! (Full JSA)

While a compact swing and tape-measure home runs were Jimmie Foxx’ forte, finance management was not. Broke throughout his retirement thanks to lavish spending, poor investments and ultimately, alcoholism, Foxx heeded a friend’s advice and opened a restaurant in Galesburg, Illinois in 1959. This miniature baseball hails from that short-lived eatery and is autographed by the Hall of Fame slugger. Measuring approximately 6-1/4” in circumference, the tiny orb has stampings which read “JIMMY (sic) FOXX RESTAURANT – GALESBURG, ILLINOIS” and was undoubtedly a giveaway at the baseball-themed restaurant. On the sweet spot, Foxx’ blue ink penning projects (“6”) strength and clarity. While there was nothing “miniature” about Foxx and his achievements, this ball is an appropriate medium as Foxx grew up in rural Maryland and relished the prospect of establishing himself in the small Illinois town. Full photo LOA from JSA. This item has a reserve (estimated value: $1200-$3000).
Opening Bid $400.00

354. Babe Ruth Signed Baseball - Full JSA

It has long been the gospel truth that baseball is beloved in Major League cities, as well as in cities, towns, villages or rural settings in which no big league teams exist. What remains an anomaly is the undying popularity of Babe Ruth that burned sacred well after his playing days. This autographed baseball attests to both aforementioned beliefs. The medium is an unofficial “Tober” sphere that shows apparent use. The Tober plant began producing baseballs in 1938 in Rockville, Connecticut but was immediately “Major League” the moment Ruth decorated one of its orbs with a black-ink fountain pen signature! In its rightful occupancy of the sweet spot, Ruth’s scripting is minimally affected by surface abrasions, yet still maintains (“5-6”) strength and clarity. Full photo LOA from JSA.
Opening Bid $1500.00

355. Charlie Berry Single-Signed Baseball - Full JSA

He was on the field when Alan Ameche burst into the end zone at Yankee Stadium to end “The Greatest Game Ever Played.” He kicked the game-winning field goal to lift the 1925 Fortsville Maroons to a 9-7 upset of the “Four Horsemen” and the University of Notre Dame. He collided at home plate with Babe Ruth in a 1931 game, causing Ruth to miss two weeks. He was also on the field as Willie Mays ran down Vic Wertz’ drive in the 1954 Fall Classic. Sounds impossible, right? Well, it is indeed true that Charlie Berry (d.1972) was present and actively participating at the aforementioned events in his capacities as a player or arbiter. This OAL Harridge baseball is autographed by that omnipresent figure! The creamy orb (grade “7”) showcases Berry’s penning, which projects (“7-8”) potency on the sweet spot. Full photo LOA from JSA.
Opening Bid $200.00
356. Early 1940s American League Stars Multi-Signed Baseball With Foxx, T. Williams, Wynn and Berg
Just before World War II tore into Major League baseball and claimed some of the game’s most heralded players, this baseball was signed by (17) early-1940s American League ballplayers. The OAL Harridge sphere appears to have seen diamond use and has been decorated with the signatures of players from Red Sox, Yankees and Senators rosters. Executed in black-ink steel tip fountain pen, pennings range from (“7”) to (“4”) in terms of strength and clarity. Includes: Sweet Spot: Joe McCarthy (“7’’); North Panel: Early Wynn (“6-7’’), Hank Borowy and Jimmie Foxx (“6-7’’); South Panel: Frank Pytlak, Ted Williams (“5’’), Lou Finney and Jim Turner; West Panel: D. DiMaggio, Joe Cronin (“5-6’’), (2) unidentified and Johnny Lindell; East Panel: Ellis Clary, Bob Doerr (“4’’), Moe Berg (“4’’) and unidentified. Full JSA. Opening Bid $400.00

357. 1950 Brooklyn Dodgers Team-Signed Baseball with Full JSA

358. Late-1950s Hall of Fame Induction Multi-Signed Ball With Baker, Cobb, J. DiMaggio and Full JSA
With (2) contemporary big leaguers and the brightest stars in the Hall of Fame firmament accounted for, it’s difficult to narrow this multi-signed baseball to a specific year. What we do know is that it’s likely from a late-1950s Hall of Fame induction ceremony and oh, what a treasure it is! The creamy unofficial orb (grade “7”) is decorated with (12) ballpoint pennings averaging (“8”) strength. Includes: Sweet Spot: Jim Konstanty; North Panel: George Sisler, Joe DiMaggio (“5-6’’) strength and Mrs. John McGraw; South Panel: Frank Baker, Joe Cronin, Ty Cobb and Joe McCarthy; West Panel: Mrs. Christy Mathewson and Pie Traynor (signed and personalized); East Panel: Frank Malzone and Joe L. Brown (Pittsburgh Pirates executive). Full photo LOA from JSA. Opening Bid $400.00

359. 1959 Pittsburgh Pirates/Kansas City Athletics Team-Signed Ball With Cobb, Clemente and Full JSA
Their respective fortunes headed in opposite directions, the 1959 Pittsburgh Pirates and Kansas City Athletics assembled, likely for a spring exhibition, and autographed this baseball. On hand that day was none other than former A’s outfielder Ty Cobb. As you behold the (17) bold autographs (average “8-9’’) strength, it’s hard to decide just who the headliner is! The creamy unofficial orb is signed by: North Panel: Cobb, Daniels, Oceak (coach), Porterfield and Ward; South Panel: Clemente (“7’’) strength; rare “one-tie” signature with minor ink migration), Oceak (repeat signature) and Virdon; West Panel: Snyder, Haddix, Kuicks and Peterson; East Panel: Kravitz, Gross, Blackburn, Mejias and Stuart. Full photo LOA from JSA. Opening Bid $750.00

360. 1962 Yankee Stadium Old Timers Day Signed Ball (15 Signatures) Including Jackie Robinson, Dizzy Dean and Paul Waner
The Old-Timers’ Day tradition started with the Yankees— and Yankee Stadium has played host to some of the very best celebrations. On this day, notated as “All Stars Game New York July 28 62,” distinguished guests included Jackie Robinson (“6-7’’), Dizzy Dean (“6-7’’), Paul Waner (“6-7’’), Bill Jurges, Gus Mancuso, Pepper Martin, Johnny Mize, Edd Roush, Whitey Witt, Bucky Walters, Ernie Lombardi, Rip Collins, Dick Bartell, Joe Moore and 1 other. Signatures range from “5-8” overall on the creamy-toned, lightly scuffed OAL (Cronin) ball. Auction LOA from JSA. Opening Bid $300.00

361. Frankie Frisch Single-Signed Baseball - Full JSA
A Bronx native and Fordham University standout, Frankie Frisch never played an inning in the minors and went on to star for two World Series champions, agreeing with the New York Giants and St. Louis Cardinals. This rare single-signed Frisch baseball is a welcome addition to any Hall of Fame or “Gashouse Gang” collection. The unofficial “J.C. Higgins” orb has a Carl Hubbell facsimile signature and is signed on the sweet spot by Frisch. The blue-ink penning resonates (“7’’) potency and comes with a full photo LOA from JSA. Opening Bid $250.00
362. 1929 Brooklyn Robins Team Signed Ball (25 Signatures) Including Vance, Carey and Herman
The bright spot for the ’29 Robins was young Babe Herman batting .381 with 217 hits, 113 RBIs and 21 HRs. This cream-toned ONL (Heydler) ball has signatures ranging from “5-7” and including Vance (“7”), Carey (“5-6”), Bissonette, Ballou, Dudley, Hendrick, Rhiel, Roy, E. Moore, Moss, McWeeny, West, Clark, Warner, DeBerry, Miller, Blethen, Henline, Bressler, Picinich, Morrison, C. Moore, Herman and 1 other. Auction LOA from JSA.
Opening Bid $200.00

363. 1932-1933 Chicago Cubs Team Signed Ball (20 Signatures) Including Kiki Cuyler
The early 1930s were a time of perennial Top 3 finishes for the Cubbies. This medium-toned, scuffed ONL (Heydler) ball carries “4-8” signatures (a few lesser) with Cuyler (“5”), Hartnett (“3-4”), Billy Herman (“5-6”), Grimes (“2”), Grimm (twice), Babe Herman, Jurges, Mosolf, Stephenson, Taylor, Nelson, Hendrick, Warneke, Bush, Henshaw, Demaree, Schulte, Root, Koenig and 2 others. Auction LOA from JSA.
Opening Bid $150.00

364. 1934 Chicago Cubs Team-Signed Ball (25 Signatures) Featuring Cuyler, Hartnett and Klein
Kiki Cuyler led the league with 42 doubles and Lon Warneke posted a 22-10 record on route to the Cubbies’ third-place finish. This shellacked, darkly toned ball features signatures averaging “5-6” strength overall: Cuyler (“5”), Hartnett (“6”), Klein (“4”), Herman (“7”), Lee, Tinning, O’Farrell, Warneke, Root, Joiner, Stephenson, Herman, Grimm, Corriden, Kelly, Hurst, Galan, Hack, Jurges, Stainback, Weaver, Bush, Malone, Phelps and English. According to our consignor, the ball has been a family heirloom since it was obtained in ’34 by his grandfather. Auction LOA from JSA.
Opening Bid $150.00

365. 1937 Chicago White Sox Team Signed Ball (25 Signatures) Including Luke Appling
Opening Bid $150.00

366. 1942 New York Yankees A.L. Champions Team Signed Ball (28 Signatures) Including DiMaggio, Ruffing and Gomez
Phil Rizzuto batted .381 and Charlie Keller hit 2 HRs in the Yanks’ 5-game World Series defeat by the Cards. This shellacked, medium-toned OAL (Harridge) ball has signatures ranging from “4-7” (a few lighter) with DiMaggio (“5”), Crosetti, Rolfe, Lindell, Murphy, Rosar, Gordon, Chandler, Hassett, Dickey (“4”), Schreiber, Priddy, Gomez (“4”), Kennedy, Boroow, Cullenbine, Turner, Ruffing (“5”), Bonham, Keller, McCarthy (“4-5”), Donald and Breuer. Auction LOA from JSA.
Opening Bid $150.00
367. 1945 Detroit Tigers World Champions Team Signed Ball (28 Signatures) Including Speaker and Greenberg
Tris Speaker? Seems strange to find the Grey Eagle on a Tigers ball, yet author Burge Carmon Smith makes reference to Speaker’s presence in his book, The 1945 Detroit Tigers: Nine Old Men and One Young Left Arm Win It All. Evidently, Tris attended the Indians-Tigers game on August 24, 1945, when Bob Feller made his first start after returning from military service. This shellacked, medium-to-darkly toned OAL (Harridge) ball features 28 “6-8” signatures (a few lesser), including Speaker (8”), Greenberg (4-5”), Boron, Maier, Overmire, Mueller, O’Neill, Houteman, Outlaw, Swift, Benton, Hoover, Caster, York, Pierce, Mayo, Tobin, Hostetler, Richards, McHale, Cullenbine, Eaton, Bridges and Trout. Auction LOA from JSA.
Opening Bid $250.00

368. Superb 1956 Cincinnati Reds Team Signed Ball (41 Signatures!) Including Rookie Frank Robinson
For vintage team-signed balls, the most signatures you’re likely to see are 35 or, maybe, 37. But 41? Sounds more like a football squad! The most important one here is freshman Frank Robinson who took ROY honors with 38 HRs and a league-leading 122 runs. The creamy-white OAL (Giles) ball features “8-10” signatures including F. Robinson, Collum, Klippstein, Lane, Fowler, Temple, Gorbous, Ross, Greengrass, McMillan, Bush, Willis, Dean, Gross, Bacewski, Borkowski, Adams, Bridges, Post, Jablonski, Bartell, Simpson, Harmon, Fisher, Pearce, Nuxhall, Thurman, Bell, Seminick, Bailey, Walters, Landrith, Scantlebury and Kiszewski. Auction LOA from JSA.
Opening Bid $250.00

369. 1957 World Champion Milwaukee Braves Team-Signed Reunion Ball With Aaron,
Mathews, Spahn and Full JSA
Darling of the Midwest, the Milwaukee Braves paced the circuit in attendance for each of their first six seasons, never endured a losing season and won the World Series in just their fifth year! This OAL white baseball was autographed by (14) members of that championship installment at a 1990s reunion. Pennings average “9-10” strength with keys including: Aaron, Adcock, Burdette, Mathews, Palko, Schroen and Spahn. Full photo LOA from JSA. More on our website.
Opening Bid $100.00

370. 1957 New York Giants Final Season Team Signed Ball (26 Signatures) Including Willie Mays
The New York Times reported this about the Giants’ last game at the Polo Grounds: “Thousands of fans responded to the final melancholy out by chasing their California-bound idols to the clubhouse—and carrying away everything on the field that could be moved.” This shellacked, medium-toned ONL (Giles) ball is noted “N.Y. Giants 1957 6th” and features “7-8” sigs of Mays (“7-8”), Rigney (clubhouse), Worthington, Harris, Schroen, Blass, Bressoud, Littlefield, Grimm, Lockman, Surkont, McCormick, Sauer, Virgil, Antonelli, Mueller, McCaff, Jones, Rodgers, Taylor, Burns, Swift, Thomson and Constable. Auction LOA from JSA.
Opening Bid $200.00

371. Exceptional 1958 Baltimore Orioles Team Signed Ball (29 Signatures) Including Brooks Robinson
Gus Triandos enjoyed a banner campaign in ’58, leading the O’s with 30 HRs and 79 RBIs. This shellacked, lightly toned “Official Diamond League” ball is noted “1958 / 66 / Baltimore” and features “8-10” signatures: B. Robinson, Richards (clubhouse), Castleman, Marshall, Ginsburg, Busby (2), E. Robinson, Triandos (2), Harshman, Vincent, O’Dell, Williams, Zuverink, Harris, Miranda, Burrell, Nieman, Woodling, Lehman, Green, Johnson, Pappas, Brown, Pilarick, Boyd and Steuter. Auction LOA from JSA.
Opening Bid $200.00

372. 1959 Chicago White Sox A.L. Champions Team Signed Ball (20 Signatures) Including Fox, Aparicio and Lopez
Capturing the Pale Hose’s first pennant since its 1919 scandal, the ’59 Go-Go Sox restored dignity to the South Side. They also caused mass hysteria when fans’ celebratory air-raid sirens were mistaken for the public warning of a Soviet invasion! This creamy-white “CHICAGO WHITE SOX” ball features signatures averaging “8” strength: Fox, Lopez, Aparicio (“5”), Lown, Moore, Cooney, Esposito, Phillips, Boone, Staley, Jackson, Mueller, Cucinelli, Callison, Torgeson, Pierce, Arias, Battey, Rivera and Berres. Auction LOA from JSA.
Opening Bid $200.00

373. 1963 American League Champion New York Yankees Team-Signed Ball With Mantle, Maris and Full JSA
Earning their 13th American League pennant in 15 seasons, the 1963 New York Yankees remained baseball’s longest-lasting dynasty as an eye-opening 59 complete games led to 104 wins. This OAL Cronin ball is autographed by (21) members of that Bronx roster. The off-white orb (grade “6-7”) showcases black ballpoint pennings that average a “7” strength. Keys include: Berra, Bouton, Boyer, Ford, E. Howard, Houk (manager), Mantle (“4” strength) and Maris (“5” strength). Full photo LOA from JSA. More on our website.
Opening Bid $200.00

374. 1968 St. Louis Cardinals N.L. Champions Team Signed Ball (18 Signatures) Including Roger Maris
In his final season, 34-year-old Roger Maris made it to the World Series for the 7th time, contributing 3 hits, 3 walks and 5 runs. This creamy-toned, lightly shellacked ONL (Giles) ball averages “5-7” signatures (a few lighter) including Maris (“5-6”), Schroen (“7-8”), Cepeda (“5”), B. Gibson (“4-5”), Maxwell, Spiezio, Hughes, Flood, Javier, Schofield, Gagliano, Muffett, Briles, McCarver and Washburn. Auction LOA from JSA.
Opening Bid $200.00

375. 1971 Baltimore Orioles 20-Game Winners Ball Signed by All (4) - Full JSA
In this, an era of five-man rotations, match-ups, set-up men and closers, a starting pitcher is hard-pressed to reach the 20-win plateau. How ‘bout four of them on the same staff? In a feat likely never to be accomplished again, the 1971 Baltimore Orioles featured four starters who each won at least 20 games! This clean white OAL Budig ball (grade “9-10”) is signed by all four. Blue ballpoint pennings trump the (“10”) potency and include: Sweet Spot: Palmer; North Panel: Dobson; South Panel: McNally and Cuellar. Full photo LOA from JSA.
Opening Bid $200.00
376. Mickey Mantle
Single-Signed OAL Budig Baseball - Rare! Full JSA
As Gene Budig took office as the new Junior Circuit czar in 1994, switch-hitting icon Mickey Mantle confronted his personal demons and battled the irreparable damage caused by 40 years of alcoholism. While Mantle’s efforts were for naught, he remained compliant with an autograph request on this OAL Budig baseball. The very mildly toned orb (grade “7-8”) is signed on the sweet spot in blue ballpoint. Mantle’s penning projects (“9”) potency and is one of (5) seen on a Budig ball by renowned autograph expert James Spence. Full photo LOA from JSA.
Opening Bid $200.00

378. New York Centerfielders Multi-Signed Ball With DiMaggio, Mantle Mays and Snider - Full JSA
Glorified in song by John Fogarty, “Centerfield” is the theme on this multi-signed baseball. Specifically, (4) Hall of Famers who manned the position from their respective New York City boroughs have penned this creamy and mildly toned OAL Brown keepsake. Executed in blue ballpoint, the signatures average (“8-9”) potency and include: Sweet Spot: Mickey Mantle; North Panel: Joe DiMaggio and Duke Snider; South Panel: Willie Mays. Full photo LOA from JSA.
Opening Bid $200.00

379. 500 HR Club
Multi-Signed Baseball With Mantle, Mays, Williams and Full JSA
From a not-too-distant era during which 500 career home runs was a rare achievement that meant automatic enshrinement in Cooperstown, this OAL Brown baseball was autographed by (12) of the longball fraternity’s most esteemed members. The orb has mild toning spots and ballpoint signatures (average “9”) strength) of Sweet Spot: Williams; Robinson; North Panel: Schmidt, Aaron; Mantle; South Panel: Mathews, Banks, Mays; West Panel: Killibrew, Murray; East Panel: McCovey, Jackson. Full photo LOA from JSA.
Opening Bid $150.00

413. Alexander Cartwright and King Kamehameha IV Signed Hawaiian Property Manuscripts Pair

Elysian Fields alum Alexander Cartwright—whose 1845 “Cartwright Rules” established tag-out, foul territory and diamond dimensions—was part of the California Gold Rush but soon high-tailed it for Hawaii instead. Arriving in Honolulu in 1849, he became the city’s first fire chief and later parlayed his Freemasonry connections into advisory roles with Hawaiian King Kamehameha and Queen Emma. Offered is an 8 x 12-1/4” manuscript document featuring an elaborate, decided-ly elegant “9-10” signature by Cartwright on the Queen’s behalf. It is dated July 14, 1875, and exhibits toning/discoloration and general age wear throughout plus about a dozen scattered tiny holes visible upon close inspection. A red seal appears adjacent to Cartwright’s name, and there is an embossed royal imprint on the opposite side. The text describes the purchase of Honolulu property from a Mr. Keawekoloke.

Valuable in its own right, also presented is an 8-1/4 x 14-1/4” partly printed document with King Kamehameha’s “8-9” signature, as well as the countersignature of his sister below a red wax seal. Likewise there is toning/discol-oration/age wear throughout. This 1856 land grant is accompanied by a taped-on contract rider of some kind, along with an apparently unrelated 1867 property transfer signed by the aforementioned Keawekoloke. Full LOA from JSA.

Opening Bid $200.00

Well after the last of his record 18 World Series home runs had landed, Americans everywhere continued to adore Mickey Mantle. Seems even Bugs Bunny wanted on the bandwagon! Well, thanks to Warner Brothers and this 1992 limited edition (693/5000) animation cel, Bugs and “The Mick” went to bat together. Framed to 18x21, the display portrays Bugs batting in, dare we say, a Brooklyn Dodgers cap. Whatever the attire, it didn’t bother Mantle, who signed in gold-colored marker (“9-10” strength) and inscribed “No. 7.” Comes with a UDA hologram.

421. 1952 International League Baltimore Orioles Team-Signed Photograph - Full JSA
It was tragedy that brought success to the City of Baltimore's Baseball fortunes as Oriole Park burned to the ground in 1944 and forced the International League's Orioles into the spacious Memorial Stadium where they caught the eye of Major League Baseball and opened the door for the St. Louis Browns. This 1952 Orioles team-issued 14-1/8 x 10-5/8" black-and-white photo is autographed by (27) members of that bush league roster. Ballpoint pennings average ("8-9") strength. Keys include: Hartsfield, Hefner (manager), Jones, Rackley and Weatherly. Full JSA. Opening Bid $200.00

422. 1962 New York Mets Team-Signed 16x20 Photo Lot of (20) “Can’t anybody here play this game?!” So asked manager Casey Stengel as his 1962 expansion New York Mets set a futility standard with 120 losses. Recalling that inept roster, these (20) 16x20 color photos are each autographed by (20) members of that infamous installment. Blue Sharpie pennings resonate ("9-10") potency and include: Anderson, Bouchee, Christopher, Cook, Craig, Daviault, Drake, Foss, Hook, Jackson, S. Jones, Kranepool, Labine, Landrith, MacKenzie, B. G. Miller, Pignatano, Taylor, Thomas and Zimmer. Auction LOA from JSA. Opening Bid $900.00

423. Mickey Mantle and Billy Martin Dual-Signed Photograph - Full JSA
Recorded statistics tell us all we need to know about the on-field prowess and repeated successes of Mickey Mantle and Billy Martin. Their nighttime activities, however, are the subject of speculation and, by most accounts, legend. This 8x10 black-and-white photo portrays and is autographed by the fellow-raising teammates. Each has signed his likeness in blue Sharpie. Signatures both trumpet “perfect 10” strength! Full photo LOA from JSA. Opening Bid $400.00

424. Baseball HOFeR/Superstar Multi-Signed Photo Lot of (18) With Mantle and Spahn - All JSA
Photo opportunities and autograph requests came to fruition in this lot of (18) multi-signed 8x10 or 10x8 images! Pennings project ("9") or better potency throughout and are headlined by a 10x8 black-and-white print signed by Yogi Berra/Ralph Houk/Mickey Mantle (full JSA). Additional highlights include: (2) 10x8 color prints signed by Sandy, Sandy, Jr. and Roberto Alomar; (3) black-and-white photos signed by Bobby Thomson/Ralph Branca; and a sepia-toned 8x10 signed by Spahn and Sain. Individual JSA stickers/certs. More on our website. Opening Bid $200.00

425. Connie Mack 1950s Signed Letters and Cut Lot (5) Including Two Handwritten Examples
The Tall Tactician’s quartet of 1950-51 missives were sent to James Looby, with whom Mack appears to have developed a long-standing friendship. Two are handwritten letters featuring content with references to Mack’s 19th-century teammates Lou Bierbauer and Ted Larkin and his desire to adapt to his new role outside the dugout—highlighted by the intriguing line, “Have made up my mind not to interfere in any way with the Manager and will carry out the same.” Also included is a 2 x 3-1/2” card-stock cut signature (GD/VG w/errant marks, “8”) as well as two of the original mailing envelopes (addressed in Mack’s hand). Auction LOA from JSA. More on our website. Opening Bid $200.00

426. (50) Joe Sewell and (10) Carl Hubbell Signed 18x24 L.E. Lithograph Prints
Pre-war Hall of Fame contemporaries, Carl Hubbell and Joe Sewell are the subjects and endorsers of these limited editions (800) lithographs. Each measures 18x24 with a color collage composed by renowned artist Christopher Paluso. There are (50) Sewell examples and (10) Hubbell prints. Each has been signed by both artist and subject on the lower white border in graphite pencil (average 1⁄8-9” strength). Nice “break” value! Auction LOA from JSA. Opening Bid $500.00

432. Moe Berg Boldly Signed Album Pages Pair Including 6 Other White Sox/Yankees Signatures
He studied at Princeton, Columbia Law School and the Sorbonne in Paris. He spoke a half-dozen languages. He was a U.S. spy. Some say he was the smartest professional athlete who ever lived. Casey Stengel called him “the strangest man ever to play baseball.” Here we have a pair of “9”-strength signature examples by the notorious Moe Berg—both on 4-1/2 x 6” album pages. One also features the “8”-strength sigs of ’28 White Sox teammates Bill Barrett, Alex Metzler and Buck Redfearn, as well as the “9” sigs of ’28 Yankee teammates Mark Koenig, Earle Combs and Archie Campbell. EX condition overall with a horizontal fold line on the single-signed page. Full LOA from JSA.
Opening Bid $150.00

433. Roy Campanella “Pre-Accident” Signed Government Postcard - Full JSA
During simpler times in which players worked during the off-season to supplement their incomes and autographs were given for the asking, Hall of Fame backstop Roy Campanella signed this government postcard while still one of the most prominent members of the Brooklyn Dodgers. The 5-1/2 x 3-1/4” relic is signed on its blank side in graphite pencil. Projecting (“8-9”) potency, this is among the boldest pre-accident Campanella signatures you’ll ever find. Full photo LOA from JSA.
Opening Bid $750.00

434. Baseball HOFer Autographed 3x5 Card Lot of (6) with DiMaggio & Paige—All JSA
Showing desirable (average “8-9”) signature potency, this lot of (6) baseball HOFer autographed 3x5 cards is well suited for display with the photos of your choice. Penned neatly on unlined index cards these significant signatures originate with a generation that valued pennmanship and dedication over PEDs and graffiti-like scrawled autographs. Featured signers are: Joe DiMaggio, Bob Feller, Stan Musial, “Satchel” Paige, “Duke” Snider, Warren Spahn. DiMaggio and Paige have full photo LOAs from JSA, balance have JSA basic certs/stickers.
Opening Bid $250.00

Opening Bid $200.00
438. Babe Ruth
Cut Signature Framed Display - Full PSA/DNA
So prolific at his own trade, Babe Ruth was used as the measuring stick for occupations elsewhere, regardless of the fact that Ruth never did them himself. The New York Times once called Enrico Caruso “The Babe Ruth of Operatic Tenors.” Time saw fit to title Willie Sutton “The Babe Ruth of Bank Robbers.” Counting his profits and championship trophies, Chicago Bulls owner Jerry Reinsdorf referred to Michael Jordan as “The Babe Ruth of Basketball.” At the risk of redundancy, we offer “The Babe Ruth of Autograph Displays.” Framed to 17x15, this arrangement is headlined by Ruth’s black-ink steel tip fountain pen cut signature, a post-1927 scripting (as evidenced by the absence of quotation marks around “Babe”) which projects (“8”) potency as it trumps all others in your collection. Accenting the display are (2) black-and-white photos of the unmistakable Bronx icon. Full photo LOA from PSA/DNA. This item has a reserve (estimated value: $2500-$4000).
Opening Bid $750.00

440. Tremendous 1880s-1980s Signed Baseball Index Cards Lot (800 Different) Including Numerous Deceased Players
This is a fresh-to-the-hobby grouping of EX to NM 3x5 index cards that were painstakingly put together from the late 1970s to early 1990s and that feature players who made their major league debut during the century between the 1880s and 1980s. Signatures are mostly bold “7-10” ink and felt tip examples (some Sharpies in the mix). Players who began before 1920 have their rookie year in parenthesis after their names. What is missing as far as superstar players is more than made up for by the plethora of rare and obscure deceased old-timers—some of whom recorded brief cup-of-coffee careers (including, in a few instances, just a game or two in the Federal League). There are also notable tobacco-card subjects. Highlights include: Mel Allen, Eddie Ainsmith (1910), Lee Ballanfant (ump), Craig Biggio, “Gavy” Cravath (1908), Paul “DaBly” Dean, “Turk” Farrell, Mrs. Lou Gehrig, Gil Hodges, Elston Howard, David J. Jones (1906), Arlie Latham (1888), Tommy Leach (1898), Don Larsen, Paddy Livingston (1901), Louis B. Lowdermilk (1911), Carl W. Mays (1915), Walter O’Malley (exec.), Charles C. Robertson (2 - 1919 White Sox), Fred Snodgrass (1908), Horace C. Stoneham (exec.), Bill Wambsganss (1914), Julian V. Wera (27 Yankees), D. Harris (Doc) White (1901) and Joe Wood (1908). 442. Thurman Munson Autograph - SGC/JSA “Authentic” “Munson’s not moody, he’s just mean. When you’re moody, you’re nice sometimes.” So opined teammate Sparky Lyle in a statement aimed at both truth and humor. While Munson was most definitely all business on the diamond, he did have a “nice” moment here and there: like when he signed and personalized this souvenir. Encapsulated with autograph assessed “Authentic” by SGC/JSA, a thick stock blank sheet measures 4-7/8 x 2-3/8. On it, Munson has penned “To Tom – Best Wishes” and signed “Thurman Munson” in red ballpoint. A vertical fold minimally affects the latter portion of “Thurman,” yet the scripting maintains (“7-8”) strength and clarity. This item has a reserve (estimated value: $1000-$20000).
Opening Bid $400.00

439. Babe Ruth Signed Nestle’s Identification Card - Full JSA
The most prolific home run hitter who ever lived, Babe Ruth was deemed a “natural” on Madison Avenue to serve as a spokesperson for anything. Suits at Quaker Oats, Red Rock Cola, Raleigh cigarettes and even Remington Rifles were quick to feature Ruth on advertisements. After all, if the Babe endorses it, it’s gotta be good! In ominous fashion, Ruth autographed this “Nestle” children’s identification card. The standard-size business card is laminated and signed by Ruth on the blank reverse in blue-ink fountain pen (“7-8” strength). We cite the signing as “ominous” as the Nestlé company currently produces the “Babys” bar, which was originally marketed in 1921 by Curtiss Candy, who claimed the bar was named after President Grover Cleveland’s daughter, Ruth (who had been dead for 17 years). 452. Kareem Abdul-Jabbar 1980-1985 Los Angeles Lakers Game-Worn Home Jersey (Mears A10) and Accompanying Road Shorts

As he completed his sixth season with the Milwaukee Bucks, Kareem Abdul-Jabbar had nothing to prove. At the tender age of 28, his resume read like a fairy tale. To wit: a 79-2 record and three New York City championships at Power Memorial High School; an aggregate 88-2 mark and three NCAA titles at UCLA; and the first and only NBA championship in Bucks team annals. So while he cited that the Midwest “did not fit his cultural needs,” a trade to the Los Angeles Lakers not only sated that desire, but led to five additional NBA titles and, when all was said and done, the most points (38,387) in NBA history. This Los Angeles Lakers home jersey was worn by the legendary 7-foot-2 center as he continued his remarkable scoring clinic at the Forum. The yellow mesh pullover garment features his since-retired (by two teams, mind you) “33” sewn to the front and back in purple-on-white twill. “LAKERS” arched atop the front number in angled characters and “ABDUL-JABBAR” arched atop the back number in block-style characters. White-and-purple striped stretch ribbed knit lines the collar and arm yokes, while the left front tail is home to a “Tiernan” local manufacturer’s label. Graded A-10 by Mears, this Hall of Fame gamer exhibits evidence of heavy use and matches exemplars dating from 1980-1985. A pair of Abdul-Jabbar’s game-worn Lakers road shorts accompanies. The elasticized waistband’s interior is home to a “Tiernan” label and a swatch with a chain-stitched “33.” These Abdul-Jabbar attire items are as breathtaking as his patented “Skyhook” and the resultant numbers it produced! Full photo LOA from MEARS.

453. Buck Weaver 1932-1933 Post-Career H&B Side-Written Professional Model Bat - PSA/DNA GU9 - Second Known Example!

To our knowledge, only ONE Weaver game-used bat has ever previously surfaced in the hobby—a 1911-15 model that sold for over $50,000 in 2008. Now it is with great pride that we unveil the second known Weaver bat in existence—a post-career gamer whose origins can be traced to a decade after the Black Sox member’s eternal banishment from professional play, when his deep love of the game spurred the heartbroken Weaver to settle for semipro ball. He had already made several failed attempts at major-league reinstatement—most notably after Cobb and Speaker were exonerated from gambling charges—and a 1927 newspaper article heralded his semipro arrival with these words:

“Buck Weaver, once the idol of south side fans, is to return to recognized baseball if not organized baseball from which he was barred for life in connection with the 1919 world series scandal. The former White Sox third baseman has been signed to play infield with the Niesens, a Chicago semi-pro team...It has been Weaver’s dream of years again to appear before Chicago fans, who rated him as one of the greatest players who ever wore a Sox uniform.”

Measuring 34-1/2” and 30.9 oz., the bone-rubbed ash bat shows excellent use with a handle crack, a 1-1/4 x 1/4” piece missing from the handle, and ball marks/stitch impressions and cleat impressions on the barrel. As quoted from PSA/DNA’s Graded GU9 LOA, “An outstanding feature of the bat is the appearance of factory side writing on the left barrel bearing Weaver’s name and the date the bat was received by Louisville Slugger [6-2-32]...The player name and return date are fairly clear and confirm the bat as being returned by Weaver himself to Louisville Slugger.” What’s more, whereas the other known Weaver game-used bat offered side writing alone, this example even goes above and beyond with its blazingly engraved, highly displayable block-lettering of “Bucky Weaver.”

By all accounts, poor Buck never actually participated in the 1919 World Series fix, instead contributing a stellar .324 average with 11 hits, 4 doubles, 4 runs and no errors. Nonetheless, Commissioner Landis chose to make an example of him, stating, “...no player who sits in conference with a bunch of crooked players and gamblers where the ways and means of throwing games are discussed and does not promptly tell his club about it will ever play professional baseball.” Up to the very end of his life, Weaver fought to clear his name...to no avail. He died of a heart attack in 1956 at age 65.

Opening Bid $1500.00
454. Al Vincent 1957 Baltimore Orioles Game-Worn Home Jersey
Hand-picked by Paul Richards to help mentor the Baltimore Orioles into baseball’s most dominant franchise for more than two decades, former coach Al Vincent is credited with (among other things) the idea for an oversized catcher’s mitt to handle the knuckleball. This Baltimore Orioles home jersey was worn by Vincent during the 1957 season. The cream-colored flannel zippered garment features felt identifiers, black piping and proper “Wilson” tagging. The left sleeve is home to a “Laughing Bird” logo patch that adorned O’s jerseys from 1955-1962. Excellent game wear is evident on this Memorial Stadium original! More on our website.
Opening Bid $400.00

455. Darold Knowles 1969 Washington Senators Game-Worn Road Jersey
If it seems like Darold Knowles was everywhere, that’s probably because he was. The lone pitcher to appear in all seven games of a single World Series (1973), Knowles performed for seven different Major League teams during his career as a southpaw bullpen artist. This Washington Senators road jersey was worn by Knowles during the 1969 season as he posted a sparkling 9-2 mark, 13 saves and a 2.24 ERA. The gray flannel button-down garment features twill identifiers, proper “Wilson” tagging and the MLB silhouette logo 100th Anniversary logo patch worn throughout the big leagues that season. LOA from Phil Wood. More on our website.
Opening Bid $400.00

456. Gene Stone 1969 Philadelphia Phillies Game-Worn Road Jersey - Final Season of Style!
Still reeling from their infamous “phold” five seasons prior, the 1969 Philadelphia Phillies endured their second of seven straight losing campaigns as attendance dwindled at Connie Mack Stadium. A scarce remnant of the final days of 21st and Lehigh, this 1969 Philadelphia Phillies road jersey simultaneously embodies the new (first season of division play) and old (last season of the jersey’s style). Donned by utility player Gene Stone, the gray flannel button-down garment features embroidered identifiers, proper “Wilson” tagging and an MLB silhouette logo 100th Anniversary patch. The all-original gamer shows solid wear and is a welcome addition to any Philly collection! More on our website.
Opening Bid $400.00

457. Dave McNally 1974 Baltimore Orioles Game-Worn Home Jersey
The winningest left-hander in the pitching-rich history of the Baltimore Orioles, Montana-born southpaw Dave McNally was one of the team’s four 20-game winners in 1971 and fired the fourth of five straight shutouts during the stretch drive of the 1974 pennant chase. The Orioles home jersey was worn by McNally during that ’74 campaign. The cream-colored knit button-down garment features twill identifiers and proper “Rawlings” tagging. The all-original Memorial Stadium apparel shows moderate wear and comes with an LOA from Baltimore baseball historian and memorabilia consultant Phil Wood. More on our website.
Opening Bid $1500.00

458. Earl Weaver 1980 Baltimore Orioles Signed Game-Worn Road Jersey - With Interior Cigarette Pouch!
In arguably his finest season at the helm of the Baltimore Orioles, Hall of Fame skipper Earl Weaver helped guide a resilient squad back from an 11-game deficit, climbed within a half-game of the leader and ultimately won 100 regular-season games in a runner-up finish – and all the while dwarfed by the payroll of the Yankees. This Orioles road jersey was worn and signed by Weaver during that exciting 1980 campaign. The gray knit button-down garment features twill identifiers, proper “Wilson” tagging and a trademark Weaver feature: a cloth pouch sewn within the left breast to facilitate storage of a pack of “Raleigh” cigarettes. Heavy wear is evident, which is typical to Weaver jerseys. LOA from Baltimore baseball historian and memorabilia consultant Phil Wood. More on our website.
Opening Bid $1300.00

459. 1997 Philadelphia Phillies Autographed Game Worn Jersey Lot of (3) with Lieberthal
1997 Was a season of mourning and remembrance for the Philadelphia Phillies and not just because of their lackluster 68-94 record. Offered is a lot of (3) 1997 Phillies autographed game worn jerseys with Mike Lieberthal, Rex Hudler and Bobby Estalella. Manufactured by “Russell Athletic” these nicely-preserved gamers display average (“8-9”) signatures on the back and feature Jackie Robinson 50th Anniversary “Breaking Barriers” patches on the right sleeve and black armbands with a number “1” on the left sleeve commemorating the tragic passing of beloved lifetime Phillie Richie Ashburn. Apparently these jerseys were worn late into the season, as Ashburn passed suddenly due to a heart attack on 9/9/97. All (3) jerseys present in handsome, display-worthy condition with light signs of authentic use. The size “46” Lieberthal and size “48” Hudler shirts are gray road versions and the size “48” Estalella shirt is a white with red pinstripes home version with a “27” inscription. More on our website.
Opening Bid $200.00
460. John Buzhardt 1961 Game Used Philadelphia Phillies Jersey
Worse than the dreaded “64 “Phold” the 1961 season holds a unique place in the hearts of Phillies fans. Offered is a John Buzhardt 1961 game used Philadelphia Phillies jersey. One of the main culprits in a low-light season, pitcher Buzhardt’s 6-18 record helped the sad-sack Phils to a 23-game losing streak and a dismal 47-107 record. The offered Wilson size “42” jersey is highly appealing with light authentic wear and handsome team letter patches, name tag in the collar and “1961” patch at lower left. More on our website.
Opening Bid $150.00

461. Dave May 1967 Game-Worn Baltimore Orioles Home Jersey
While his numbers didn’t set him apart from the rest of the game’s everyday players, Dave May will always be remembered as the man who was traded for Hank Aaron. As he debuted with defending champion Baltimore in 1967, May wore this Orioles home jersey. The cream-colored flannel button-down garment features twill identifiers and proper “Wilson” tagging. LOA from Baltimore baseball historian and memorabilia consultant Phil Wood. More on our website.
Opening Bid $300.00

462. Ron Stone 1969 Philadelphia Phillies Game-Worn Home Jersey
Just five years removed from their own epic collapse, the 1969 Phillies saw fit to contribute to the demise of a rival. With the Cubs seemingly coasting, part-time outfielder Ron Stone launched his first career homer, a game-tying 9th-inning shot to spark a 7-5 win on July 11 and help send the Cubs into an eventual free fall. This Phillies home jersey was worn by Stone that year. The flannel game features embroidered identifiers and proper “Wilson” tagging. Shows solid diamond use from the first year of division play. More on our website.
Opening Bid $200.00

463. Tim McCarver Game Used Lot of (2) with Philadelphia Phillies Jersey & Signed Bat
Known as Steve Carlton’s personal caddy, or catcher during two stints with the Philadelphia Phillies, Tim McCarver employed this pair of game used items. From his earlier Phils period comes a Wilson size “44” jersey in appealing condition with ample signs of use including apparent blood stains on an embroidered McCarver name tag located inside the collar. Stitched on the lower left jersey front is “44-1971 Set 1”. From his later Phils period is a c.1977-1979 game used autographed (“7”) bat (PSA/DNA GU 9). More on our website.
Opening Bid $200.00

464. Philadelphia Phillies World Series Years Game Used Jersey Lot of (2) with 1980 Unser & 1983 Molinaro
Two of the Philadelphia Phillies most memorable teams were the super talented 1980 group which won the franchise’s first World Series championship and the enduring 1983 “Wheeze Kids” squad which also made it to the WS. Phils faithful pay tribute to these WS seasons by going for this lot of (2) Phillies game used jerseys representing these champion teams. Featured are: 1980 Del Unser Wilson size “42” white pinstriped jersey showing moderate authentic wear; and 1983 Bob Molinaro Wilson size “40” blue jersey in lightly worn condition. More on our website.
Opening Bid $200.00

465. Mike Greenwell 1988 Boston Red Sox Game-Worn Home Jersey - Full Miedema LOA
In the throes of an eight-decade “curse,” the 1988 Red Sox won their second A.L. East crown in three seasons, only to be ousted in the ALCS in orderly fashion. As he posted career-bests in home runs (22), RBI (119) and batting average (.325), outfielder Mike Greenwell wore this Red Sox home jersey that season on his way to runner-up credentials for the MVP award. The white knit button-down garment features twill identifiers and proper “Wilson” tagging. Moderate wear is evident. Full photo LOA from Dave Miedema. More on our website.
Opening Bid $200.00
466. 1993 Philadelphia Phillies Autographed Larry Andersen & Denis Menke Game Worn World Series Uniforms
Described as gritty, scruffy and full of swagger the 1993 “Macho Row” Philadelphia Phillies stunned the baseball world with a surprising 35-15 start and a more surprising NLCS upset of the Braves to reach the World Series. Presented are (2) 1993 Phillies auto- graphed WS game worn jersey/pants uniform combos with Larry Andersen and Denis Menke. Both of these Russell Athletic made uniforms present in handsome display worthy condition with average (“8-9”) jersey front signatures and prestigious 1993 WS patches on the right sleeves. More on our website.
Opening Bid $200.00

467. 1994 Philadelphia Phillies Signed Game Used Jersey Lot of (6) with MLB 125th Anniversary Patches
Coming off a trip to the World Series, the 1994 Philadelphia Phillies joined their MLB brethren in celebrating Baseball’s 125th Anniversary and prematurely ending the season with a strike. Recall this sesesaw year with this lot of (6) 1994 Phillies game used jerseys with (5) signed. Showing attractive original details these Russell Athletic “Diamond Collection” gamers bear MLB 125th Anniversary patches. Featured are: (5) signed average (“8-9”): D. Daulton, B. Estarella, J. Fregosi, K. Stocker, M. Thompson; (1) unsigned: J. Vukovich. More on our website.

Presented is a lot of (6) 2001 Philadelphia Phillies game used jerseys with late-season added 9/11 commemorative American Flag patches on the backs. Uniformly showing in excellent condition these “Majestic Authentic Collection” jerseys serve as passionate reminders of baseball’s continuity. Featured are: (4) signed: D. Coggins (“9”), R. Cormier (“7”), T. Lee (“9”), T. Wendell (“7-8”); (2) unsigned: O. Daal, J. Santiago. More on our website.
Opening Bid $200.00

469. Raul Ibañez 2009 All-Star Game Issued Jersey with MLB Sticker
Proving a great addition to an already powerful Philadelphia Phillies line-up, slugger Raul Ibañez enjoyed a banner year in 2009, hitting a career high thirty-four homers, being named a starter in the All-Star Game and helping the team to a second straight World Series. Offered is an Ibañez 2009 All-Star Game issued jersey. Bedecked with a variety of patches, this “Majestic Authentic Collection-size 50” jersey presents in stunning like-new condition. MLB hologram sticker affixed to the Majestic label at lower left on the front. More on our website.
Opening Bid $150.00

470. 2011 Shane Victorino Game Worn Philadelphia Phillies “TBTC” Jersey & Pants with MLB Stickers
The “Flyin’ Hawaiian” had a knack for making things happen during the Philadelphia Phillies recent run of five consecutive postseason berths. Served up are the “Turn Back The Clock” Phillies jersey and pants game worn by Shane Victorino on 7/22/11 vs. the Padres at Citizens Bank Park. Victorino scored twice that day in support of a 3-1 Phils win. Manufactured by “Majestic”, this lightly used ensemble presents in remarkable condition with deference to stains on the right knee and hip of the pants. Both garments are affixed with MLB hologram stickers. More on our website.
Opening Bid $200.00

Find out “For Whom the Bell Tolls” with this Jonathan Papelbon game worn 2012 Philadelphia Phillies “Throwback” uniform. Papelbon, who uses the aforementioned Metallica song as his entrance theme, became the go to guy for the “Fightin’ Phils” in 2012 racking up 38 Saves in a career high 70.0 IP. Featured are a like-new “Majestic Authentic Collection” jersey and pants combo with MLB hologram stickers certifying game use and an autograph (“9”) with “58” inscription located on the number “5” patch on back of the jersey. More on our website.
Opening Bid $200.00

472. 2011 Chase Utley and 2013 Roy Halladay Philadelphia Phillies Team Issued Jerseys with MLB Stickers
Often mired in mediocrity, the Philadelphia Phillies franchise has featured an abundance of “Phenoms” over the past decade including the potential HOFers represented here. Offered are (2) Phillies team issued jerseys with: 2011 Chase Utley size “46” gray road jersey; and 2013 Roy Halladay size “50” white with red pinstripes home jersey. 484. Dennis Higgins 1968 Game-Worn Washington Senators Home Pants and Game-Used Bat
A journeyman hurler who pitched for four different teams in his seven-year Major League career, Dennis Higgins posted four relief wins for the cellar-dwelling Senators in 1968. These items saw diamond action during that campaign rightfully dubbed “The Year of the Pitcher.” Includes: 1968 Game-Worn Home Pants: cream-colored flannel with “Rawlings” tagging in that company’s lone season associated with the expansion Senators; rare! (LOA from Phil Wood); 1968 Game-Used Bat: Hillerich & Bradsby “K55” (32.6-oz/34”) block-letter model (cracked). More on our website. Opening Bid $250.00

485. Joe Coleman 1968 Washington Senators Game-Worn Cap
The middle link in a three-generation family of Major League pitchers, Joe Coleman wore this Washington Senators cap during the 1968 season. The red wool accessory (introduced that season, as the club had previously worn blue) features a curly “W” embroidered to the front center in white-on-blue and a red button atop the six-point crown suspension. The interior sweatband is home to a “Wilson” label and a size “7-3/8” stamping, while the sweatband’s underside features an stamped “AYC” code, indicating that the cap was manufactured in February, 1968. On the bill’s underside, Coleman’s number “20” is written in blue ink. Solid game wear is evident with perspiration-induced soiling about the sweatband. LOA from Phil Wood. Opening Bid $200.00

486. 1961-1965 Minnesota Twins Game-Worn Jacket - Gorgeous!
From the Nation’s Capital and the depths of the standings, the Washington Senators left town, became the Minnesota Twins, and were in the World Series just four years later. This jacket was worn by a Twins player during the franchise’s first five seasons (1961-1965) in the Twin Cities. The blue satin-like zippered garment features twill identifiers and proper “Wilson” tagging. In terms of Twins apparel, this is among the earliest and most desirable artifacts we’ve seen! More on our website. Opening Bid $150.00

489. 1980s-2000s Baltimore Orioles Game-Worn Jacket Lot of (4) With Mills and Ponson While styles have changed, the black-and-orange “plumage” of the Baltimore Orioles has remained a constant on these (4) 1980s-2000s game-worn jackets.
490. Moe Drabowsky
1997
Baltimore Orioles
Signed
Game-Worn Spring Training Uniform
One of just five Major Leaguers born in Poland, Moe Drabowsky set a World Series single-game record by fanning 11 batters in relief. While that mark helped Baltimore to its first-ever title in 1966, Drabowsky returned as a special instructor in 1997 and wore this Orioles uniform. The ensemble includes a jersey, road pants, socks and a cap. Drabowsky has signed the jersey in black marker (“8-9” strength). The items feature proper tagging and show moderate wear. 499. Peyton Manning 1998-1999 Rookie/Second Year Game-Worn Indianapolis Colts Helmet - SCD

The son of an NFL quarterback, Peyton Manning followed in his father’s footsteps and called the signals as he led Tennessee to the 1997 SEC championship. While his breeding and talent were logical factors in his choice as the number 1 overall selection in the 1998 NFL Draft, it’s unlikely that anyone could have fathomed just what a remarkable career Manning would have. As rare as a specimen as Manning has been leading offensive units to countless triumphs, this game-worn helmet is on a similar plateau as it was worn by the future Hall of Famer in both his 1998 rookie campaign and in the 1999 season. The white plastic shell features horseshoe logo decals adhered to the sides, a four-bar face mask and “18” decals (in proper font) straddling the blue center stripe. The “COLTS” bumper and “Riddell” snubber remain intact, as do the chin strap, interior pad cells and jaw pads. Clips affixing the face mask have “3 99” stampings, indicating the face mask was replaced in early 1999 after the shell had seen significant use, which shows in the form of gouge and contact marks. The Velcro radio transmitter patch is still affixed within the left ear hole. An absolutely fabulous gamer from the inaugural season of perhaps the best quarterback of all time! Comes with an LOA from SCD endorsed by renowned expert Troy Kinunen.

Opening Bid $750.00

501. Don McCafferty 1942 College All-Stars Game-Worn Jersey

A player under Paul Brown and an assistant mentor on staffs led by Weeb Ewbank and Don Shula, former Baltimore Colts head coach Don McCafferty guided the team to its only Super Bowl triumph in his rookie season at the helm. McCafferty’s own resume included All-American status as an offensive tackle at Ohio State University (1942). In recognition of his contributions to that war-torn Buckeyes roster, McCafferty was selected to play in that year’s College Football All-Stars game at Chicago’s Soldier Field. Pitted against the NFL Champion Bears, McCafferty wore this All-Stars jersey during that battle with the “Monsters of the Midway.” The garment features satin twill identifiers and proper “May & Halas” tagging. Appropriate singe event wear is evident. More on our website.

Opening Bid $250.00

One half of a Penn State backfield tandem headlined by Franco Harris, New Jersey-born running back Lydell Mitchell was drafted by the Baltimore Colts and helped spark that franchise to its last heyday before its untimely departure to Indianapolis. This Baltimore Colts home jersey was worn by Mitchell during his tenure (1972-1977) at Memorial Stadium, which included three successive 1000-yard rushing campaigns as the club unseated Miami atop the AFC East standings from 1975 through 1977. The blue mesh pullover garment features “26” on the front, back and shoulders in white appliqué and “MITCHELL” on a namplate atop the back number in like fashion. The vented left front tail is home to a “Medalist – Sand-Knit” Baltimore Colts exclusivity label and a size “44” tag. Light wear is evident on this all-original 33rd Street gamer.

Opening Bid $400.00

500. Junior Seau Mid-1990s San Diego Chargers Signed Game-Worn Helmet - Full SCD and JSA

On the heels of back-to-back 6-10 seasons, the San Diego Chargers plucked USC product Junior Seau in the opening round of the 1990 NFL Draft. His reputation for enthusiasm preceded him and it was just two years before the Chargers were back in the playoffs for the first time since 1982, and another two years before they made their first and only Super Bowl Appearance. This Chargers helmet was worn and autographed by the 12-time Pro Bowl selection and posthumously enshrined Hall of Famer. The blue plastic shell features “thunderbolt” logo decals adhered to the sides, a “Chargers’” logo decal on the snubber and the since-retired “55” adhered to the back (along with an NFL logo badge decal and a “Chargers” bumper). On the left side, Seau (d.2012) has signed in silver marker (“9” strength) and inscribed “#55.” The original six-bar facemask is intact, as are the chin strap, interior pad cells and jaw pads. Dual “Warning” labels and a “1995 NFLP” sticker are adhered within the shell. The helmet dates to the mid-1990s (coinciding with the peak of the Chargers’ fortunes) and shows solid game use with scattered scuff and contact marks throughout.

Full photo LOAs from SCD (for helmet) and JSA (for autograph).

Opening Bid $400.00
503. John Riggins Game-Worn Washington Redskins Sideline Jacket
Outspoken off the field and punishing on it, Hall of Fame running back John Riggins wore this Washington Redskins sidelines jacket during his tenure in the Nation’s Capital. The maroon nylon zippered garment features a team logo on the left breast and “44” in yellow appliqué on the back. There are two front pockets, a hood and elasticized sleeve endings. Within the collar, a “Champion” size “XXL” tag is accompanied by a laundering instructions tag. Moderate wear.
Opening Bid $250.00

504. Joe Theismann Game-Worn Washington Redskins Sideline Jacket
The signal caller for the resurgent Washington Redskins, quarterback Joe Theismann wore this sidelines jacket during his tenure (1974-1985) at RFK Stadium. The maroon nylon zippered garment features a team logo on the left breast and a yellow appliqué “7” on the right breast. There are two front pockets, a hood and elasticized sleeve endings. Within the collar, a “Champion” size “XXL” tag is accompanied by a laundering instructions tag. Moderate wear.
Opening Bid $250.00

505. 1980s-1990s Washington Redskins Game-Worn Sidelines Jacket/Sweater Lot of (3)
As they braved to elements on the sidelines, Washington Redskins personnel wore these (3) garments. Includes: Joe Gibbs Game-Worn Jacket: a maroon nylon zippered garment worn during his first tenure (1981-1992) at the helm; 1980s Game-Worn Jacket: a maroon nylon zippered garment with a black marker notation of “68” on the left breast, suggesting wear by Hall of Fame guard Russ Grimm (1981-1992); Game-Worn Coach’s Sweater: a 1980s maroon wool zippered garment. All show moderate wear. More on our website.
Opening Bid $300.00

506. Darrell Green 2001 Game-Worn Washington Redskins Jersey - Phenomenal Wear!
Plucked in the opening round of the 1983 NFL Draft, cornerback Darrell Green proved to be a most worthy selection, playing 20 seasons under six different head coaches in the Nation’s Capital. This Washington Redskins home jersey was worn by Green during the penultimate season (2001) of his Hall of Fame career. The maroon mesh/dazzle cloth blend pullover garment features twill identifiers and proper “Adidas” tagging. Tremendous game wear is evident in the form of blood stains about the front numerals. More on our website.
Opening Bid $500.00

Selected to more Pro Bowls (12) than any cornerback in the history of the NFL, former defensive standout Champ Bailey wore this Washington Redskins jersey during the 2002 season. The maroon mesh/dazzle cloth blend pullover garment is a “throwback” to the club’s 1965-1969 style. With twill identifiers and proper “Reebok” tagging, the gridiron attire item shows moderate game wear. More on our website.
Opening Bid $300.00

508. 1994-1995 Baltimore Stallions Treasure Chest With (4) Game-Worn Jerseys
Stripped of its football team and its rich history in 1984, the City of Baltimore was granted a CFL franchise that won the Grey Cup in just its second year (1995), becoming the only American-based team ever to do so. This sizable collection of 1994-1995 Baltimore Stallions memorabilia includes game-worn items, fan apparel from the club’s successive run (albeit brief) and is arguably the most comprehensive assortment you’ll ever find! More on our website.
Opening Bid $200.00
509. 1934 N302 Mayo’s Cut Plug John Dunlop (Anonymous) PSA Authentic—Recolored Only Four Total Graded! Graded Authentic by PSA due to extraneous coloring to the black borders. Highly prized 1894 N302 Mayo’s Cut Plug featuring John Dunlop of Harvard. The portrait of the Ivy League alum is absent of any printed notations identifying the subject. The crystal-clear sepia image is perfectly contrasted with the black bordering. The enhancements are placed around the perimeter with slight bleeding along the upper edge. A diagonal crease ranging from the lower to the middle edge does not seriously disrupt the 121 year-old portrait. Importantly, the midnight reverse is absent of any residue or alterations. One of the standard bearers of the pre-war football hobby that is deserving of considerable interest.
Opening Bid $500.00

510. 1935 National Chicle Football PSA Graded High Numbers Lot of (10) Pioneering leatherheads toe the line with these (10) 1935 National Chicle Football PSA graded high numbers. Includes: PSA 5: #25 Burnell (mk); PSA 4: (4 cards) with #26 Isola, #31 Niccolai, #32 Johnston, #33 E. Smith; PSA 3: (4 cards) with #29 MacMurdo, #30 Caddel, #35 Johnsons, #36 Masterson (last card in set) and PSA 2: #28 Kostka.
Opening Bid $900.00

511. 1935 National Chicle Football #34 Bronko Nagurski PSA 1 Graded Poor-Fair 1 by PSA. Established pre-war gridiron collectors will cherish the offered 1935 National Chicle Football #34 Bronko Nagurski high number. The Canadian-born Hall of Famer is depicted during his tenure with the Minnesota Golden Gophers and displays a flare for intensity on this 80 year-old gum card. Despite a creasing near the upper left corner resulting in the technical judgment, the overall presentation is still quite attractive. The creamy reverse is clean with pronounced blue typeface.
Opening Bid $500.00

512. 1935 National Chicle Football #27 Bull Tosi PSA 3 Graded VG 3 by PSA. One of the scarcest cards in the groundbreaking 1935 National Chicle Football issues belongs to the offered #27 Bull Tosi high number. The Boston Redskins end is crease-free and have sustained only general perimeter wear commensurate with its technical grade. The blue type reverse is bright and clean.
Opening Bid $150.00

516. 1957 Topps Football Unopened Cello Pack with Johnny Unitas RC (Front)/George Blanda (Back)—PSA 7
One of the most impressive unopened centerpieces is found with the offered 1957 Topps Football cello pack featuring the rookie of #138 Johnny Unitas on the front with #31 George Blanda situated on the reverse! Graded NM 7 by PSA, the cellophane wrappings are entirely absent of any splitting or significant disruptions to the corners or edges. The high-grade obverse of the Units rookie exhibits a radiant color scheme and presents as when originally released over a half-century ago. The statistics on the back confirming #31 Blanda as the cardbox subject is flanked by tight factory sealing. With only a handful of 1950s cello packs extant on the secondary market, this relic featuring two Hall of Famers is among the best a collector can hope for. This item has a reserve. Estimated value ($5000-7500).
Opening Bid $2500.00

536. Knute Rockne Display With (2) Signed 1930 Letters on Notre Dame Stationery - Full JSA

Setting the coaching standard to which all others pale in comparison, Notre Dame legend Knute Rockne emigrated from Norway and made football his own. While he is not credited with inventing the forward pass, he popularized it like no other mentor, using it and the novel "T-Formation" to produce a 105-12-5 record and four National Championships. As a result of the 1931 plane crash that took his life at the age of 43, Rockne's scripts are as rare as his coaching achievements. With immeasurable pride, we offer this display showcasing (2) Rockne signatures from just before his untimely death. Matted to 27-1/8 x 17-1/2", two 8-1/2 x 11" sheets of vintage "University of Notre Dame" stationery are adhered to a card-board backed "golf" type specimen and lack a colorful likeness of Rockne. Respectively dated "October 14, 1930" and "October 29, 1930," both typewritten correspondence pieces were composed by Rockne in his capacity as Director of Athletics. At the conclusion of each, Rockne has signed in black-ink steel tip fountain pen. While the letters themselves are affected by edge fissures and minor paper loss, the signatures are complete and near-flawless, projecting (8-9) and (9) potency, respectively. Full photo LOA from JSA. This item has a reserve (estimated value: $2500-$5000).

537. 1959 World Champion Baltimore Colts Team-Signed Football With Units, Moore and Lipscomb - Full JSA

As an encore to their epic triumph in "The Greatest Game Ever Played," the 1959 Baltimore Colts stayed with the script and repeated with a 9-3 regular-season mark and a championship game win over the New York Giants. This football is autographed by (36) members of that "re-peat" Colts championship roster. Executed in blue ballpoint on a white "Spalding" vintage display keepake, the pennings take incredibly well to the dimpled surface, maintaining (8-9) potency throughout! Highlights include: Amerhe, Berry, Donovan, Lipscomb (signed "Big Daddy"), Marchetti, Moore, Parker and others. This is quite possibly the most stunning gathering of 1959 Colts signatures you'll ever find! Full photo LOA from JSA. More on our website.

538. Vince Lombardi 1960 Green Bay Packers Signed Check

Lombardi joined the cellar-dwelling Packers in February of 1959, lifted his team to a 7-5 record that '59 season, and then piloted the Pack all the way to the 1960 NFL Championship Game. Every Lambeau Field contest that year was a sellout—and there hasn't been a non-sellout ever since in franchise history! This "Green Bay Packers, Inc." check hails from just prior to that seminal 1960 campaign and features the "9-10" signatures of General Manager Lombardi and President Dominic Olejniczak. Measuring 8-1/4 x 3", it is made out to Western Union in the amount of $38.07 and rates crisp EX-MT condition. Full LOA from JSA.

539. Amos Alonzo Stagg 1927 "Touchdown" Signed Hardcover Book

A visionary innovator in both basketball and football, Stagg (1862-1965) was a 1951 charter inductee in the College Football Hall of Fame as both a player and coach—the only figure double-honored as such until the 1990s. Stagg's striking black-ink "9" inscription and signature on the first interior page reads, "To Bob Riss / With many good wishes from / Amos Alonzo Stagg / Aug - 25, 1939." There's also a nice front-tipspec portrait inside. Condition of the 5-5/8 x 8-1/8 x 1-1/4" book is attractive EX overall with vibrant covers/spine and bold embossing. COA from PSA/DNA.

559. James Naismith 1917-19 Reverse-Signed “Dr. Naismith” World War I Photo
In a 2009 New York Times article, biographer Rob Rains describes how the 56-year-old Naismith enlisted as a U.S. Army chaplain and served on the French front lines. What’s more, Rains recounts how the forward-thinking inventor (who had previously experimented with a breathalyzer prototype and a stretching machine to make people taller) dreamed up the idea of a G.I. Bill three decades before it was officially created! Here, Naismith is pictured with two fellow chaplains in a high-quality, heavy-stock, silver-gelatin photo (EX, 4-3/4 x 6-3/4”) that is captioned on the reverse, “In France 1917-1919.” Naismith’s black-ink “9-10” script of their three names includes the intriguing autograph-style variation, “Dr. Naismith.” Full LOA from JSA.

560. Scarce 1950-1951 Scott’s Potato Chips Minneapolis Lakers George Mikan - PSA VG-EX+ 4.5
Only three copies of the condition-sensitive regional rarity have ever been graded higher by PSA—two EX 5 examples and one NM 7. This offering is impressive and highly displayable with moderate corner wear. It features an Al Papas illustration sandwiched between Mikan’s name caption and facsimile signature. The Scott’s Potato Chip logo is about to be dribbled on by Mr. Basketball. And what biographical tidbits about the 26-year-old superstar can be gleaned from the reverse? Perhaps none juicier than this: “George, who is married and has two sons, says the key to his success is sleep. He gets 12 hours a night.”
Opening Bid $1000.00

561. John Wooden 1970s Signed and Worn Basketball Camp Coach’s Shirt - Full JSA
Over a career defined by longevity and superlatives, John Wooden was the first-ever player to be named Basketball All-American three times, setting the precedent for a coaching career that saw him win 12 NCAA national championships (including an unprecedented seven straight). In addition to mentoring legends such as Kareem Abdul-Jabbar and Bill Walton, Wooden influenced thousands of youths at summer camps during the 1970s. This shirt was worn and signed by Wooden during one of those instructional sessions. The blue knit pullover garment features “UCLA BASKETBALL” on the left breast in yellow appliqué. Just below, Wooden’s black marker autograph shows (“8-9”) potency. Full photo LOA from JSA (for autograph) and LOA from the shirt’s recipient.

586. Gordie Howe #9 Original Pen-and-Ink Artwork by Kirk Timmons
Emerging artist Kirk Timmons has burst on the scene in recent years with his unique style of number art. Each pen-and-ink portrait montage appears within the player’s iconic uniform number and is then digitally formed into the prints that are sold on MLB.com’s team websites. Never before has Timmons publicly or privately sold any of his number-art original pieces, so we’re pleased to debut them and we look forward to witnessing this up-and-comer’s growth in the sports-art market. A fine counterpart to his baseball offerings, this tribute is Timmons’ first-ever hockey portrait—and if fittingly features Mr. Hockey himself. Howe and the Red Wings held a special place in the Michigan-based artist’s heart, and Timmons has tastefully added the iconic winged-wheel logo and Olympia facade to Gordie’s six career-spanning depictions. The rendering appears on 13x19 artboard and is painted in gouache. Opening Bid $200.00

631. 1955 Topps “Rails and Sails” Original Artworks Pair

A simply beautiful duo with incredibly intricate detail. Both measure 3-1/2 x 5” and are displayed with corner tabs adjacent to the respective original card examples on individual album pages with the plaques, “RAILS AND SAILS 1954 [sic].” Includes: #152 Queen Elizabeth - Near Mint. Accompanied by copy of Guernsey’s LOA from the famed 1989 Topps Archive Auction. #53 Burlington Route “Vista Dome Coach” - Would be NM except there is some scattered flaking in the lower-left corner.

Opening Bid $200.00

632. 1956 Topps “U.S. Presidents” #31 Warren Harding Original Artwork

This wonderfully vivid portrait rendering measures an oversized 4x6 and features a caption overlay. There is the typical perimeter handling wear of a working illustration, along with a tiny surface fissure above Harding’s left temple. The artwork is displayed with corner tabs adjacent to an original card example on an album page with the plaque, “U.S. PRESIDENTS 1956.” Accompanied by a copy of the Guernsey’s LOA from the famed 1989 Topps Archive Auction.

Opening Bid $150.00

633. 1950s Topps Non-Sport Original Artworks Trio

The renderings are displayed with corner tabs adjacent to the respective original card examples on individual album pages with the plaques, “WORLD ON WHEELS 1955,” “WINGS 1955,” and “TV WESTERNS 1958.” The “Wheels” and “Wings” artworks come with copies of their Guernsey’s LOA (and purchase invoice) from the famed 1989 Topps Archive Auction. Includes: 1955 “World on Wheels” #88 Nash Ambassador - Measures 3-1/2 x 5” and has overlaid Nash logo. EX due to some peripheral spotting. 1955 “Wings” #100 F9F Panther - Radiant depiction! Measures 2-3/4 x 4” and rates EX-MT. 1958 “TV Westerns” Gunsmoke #9 “Matt in Action” - Artistically colored image measures 3-1/4 x 3-3/4” and rates EX-MT.

Opening Bid $400.00
636. Abraham Lincoln 1865 Signed Military Commission - Just 5 Weeks Before His Assassination

On March 4, 1865, President Lincoln delivered his famous "Malice Toward None" Second Inaugural Address. A mere three days later, he signed this very certificate appointing George W. King to Second Lieutenant. Ten days after that, on March 17th, John Wilkes Booth hatched his first assassination plot for a theater show that Lincoln ultimately did not attend. And then April 14th saw Booth's second plot carried out at Ford's Theater on one of the darkest days in American history.

Beyond its highly significant time frame, this 12 x 14-1/2" document also boasts the visually dramatic heading, "Abraham Lincoln - President of the United States of America," and a desirable full-name signature example, "Abraham Lincoln." The Railsplitter's script technically rates about "5" strength, but would likely be a "7" were it not for the heavy toning and wear in the surrounding area. Additional toning, spotting and general aging necessitates an overall grade of FR/ GD. That said, however, it is difficult to impugn any surviving document signed by Lincoln as President—especially one so near to the tragic end of his life. An important and impressive artifact, ideal for prominent framed display. Full LOA from JSA.

Opening Bid $1500.00

637. James Madison Cut and Dolley Madison Free Frank Signed Pair

Our 4th President’s signature rates "7-8" and the First Lady’s is an "8-9." The former appears on a 1 x 2-3/4" cut (VG-EX) and the quite scarce latter on an uneven, 3-1/4 x 1-3/4" corner from a free-franked envelope (VG, adhered to a 4-1/2 x 2-1/2" backing; stamped “FREE” and signed “Free D.P. Madison”).

Opening Bid $250.00

638. Andrew Jackson 1836 Signed Ship’s Papers

Toward the end of his second term, President Jackson graced this 12 x 14-3/4" certificate with a prominent 6" long example of his charismatic signature. In terms of boldness and clarity, the dark-ink script rates a strong "8." However, one of the document’s three standard hole punch-es (similar to bank cancellation holes) has removed the "ew" from "Andrew"—as well as the "For" from Secretary of State John Forsyth’s "7-8" countersignature. Condition of the elegantly engraved, scalloped-edge document (Dated October 14, 1836) is GD/VG with light toning/folding and three routine fold lines. The embossed starburst seal is highly attractive and almost fully complete. Full LOA from JSA.

Opening Bid $400.00

639. President Calvin Coolidge (Twice) and His Cabinet Members Signed Lot (16 Items)

Averages EX condition and "8-10" signatures overall unless noted. The Coolidge pair is composed of an 8/6/16 TLS (7-1/4 x 10-3/8") and an 8/20/32 autograph card (3-7/8 x 2-1/8, mounting remnants on front periphery). Autograph cards (3 x 1-3/4" to 3-1/4 x 5-1/4, most with heavy reverse mounting wear) are also the medium for William F. Whiting (Comm.), Andrew W. Mellon (Treas.), Roy O. West (Int.), John G. Sargent (Att. Gen.), Harry S. New (Post.), Frank B. Kellogg (State), Howard M. Gore (Agr.), James J. Davis (Lab.), Curtis D. Wilbur (Navvy), Dwight F. Davis (War) and W.M. Jardine (Agr.). But the most stunning piece may well be an ultra-high-quality Harris & Ewing studio portrait signed by Kellogg (7-1/4 x 10-1/2", Near Mint) and still housed in its original embossed folio. James J. Davis also appears in a signed Harris & Ewing portrait (9- 5/8 x 13-3/4", light handwriting). Finally, there is a 1933 H.M. Daughtery (Att. Gen.) TLS (8-1/2 x 11", with mailing envelope). Auction LOA from JSA.

Opening Bid $250.00
640. Napoleon Bonaparte
1810 Signed Military Note to Minister of War Henri Jacques Guillaume Clarke During Amsterdam Campaign
Addressed to “le Duc de fiere”—an honorary title created by Napoleon exclusively for General Clarke—this five-line message states that the Prussian regiment positioned in Lille, France, should be combined with one in Nieuwpoort, Belgium, to create a battalion of 500 soldiers. It is dated July 4, 1810—which, significantly, corresponds with Napoleon’s takeover of Amsterdam and the abdication of his brother, King of Holland Louis Bonaparte. Napoleon’s iconic “NP” signature rates “9” strength, and the 7-1/4 x 9” document exhibits EX condition with lower-left corner wear and a few modern pencil notations. Matted and framed with a plaque and color image to total dimensions of 19-1/4 x 13-1/4”. Full LOA from JSA.
Opening Bid $500.00

Military buffs come to attention for this early U.S. militia manual signed by former Connecticut Adjutant General William Hayden. Titled “Abstract of Infantry Tactics,” this leather bound edition was published in 1830 and is reported to have remained in the possession of Hayden’s family for six generations. A bookplate affixed to the inside of the front cover is printed with State of Connecticut provenance and bears Hayden’s stately (“9”) strength signature alongside the abbreviated title “Adj. Gen.” (no authentication due to lack of exemplars). More on our website.
Opening Bid $100.00

642. Ulysses S. Grant Signed Large Cut
Born Hiram Ulysses Grant, our 18th U.S. President dropped Hiram and adopted the middle initial S (which stood for nothing). He thus went by the “U.S.” initials of both our nation and our symbolic figure Uncle Sam. After capturing Fort Donelson in 1862 with the mission that “No terms except an unconditional and immediate surrender can be accepted,” the Union General also became known as “Unconditional Surrender” Grant. Here, U.S. Grant’s “7-8”-strength black-ink signature appears on a 4-3/4 x 1-5/8” piece of paper rating VG due to light creasing and spotting. Full LOA from JSA.
Opening Bid $200.00

644. Taft, Wilson and Coolidge Signed Presidential Trio
Our 27th, 28th and 30th presidents are represented here: 1917 William Howard Taft Inscribed Card - 4 x 2-3/8”, EX-MT, “9-10” signature, “8” inscription. 1922 Woodrow Wilson TLS on Personal Stationery - 7x9, VG-EX with pencil notations at lower left, “8” signature. Calvin Coolidge Signed Card - 3-1/2 x 2-1/2”, EX- “9” signature. Full LOAs from JSA.
Opening Bid $200.00

643. Exceptional William Howard Taft 1912 Signed Military Commission
Our 27th U.S. President graced this ornate document with his “7-8”-strength signature for the purpose of appointing one Nathan B. Chase to “Ensinger in the Navy.” The 16 x 19-3/4” certificate features bold print, elegant engraved imagery and a fully intact blue seal. EX condition overall with an EX-MT/NM central area and minor perimeter wear due partly to past framing. Full LOA from JSA.
Opening Bid $150.00

645. Harry S. Truman Signed 1953 Testimonial Dinner Program with Israel Content
Under a year after his presidential tenure ended, Give ‘Em Hell Harry was honored at a banquet ceremony as “An expression of appreciation from the Jewish people of Chicago to Mr. Truman on the occasion of the three-thousandth anniversary of Jerusalem for his contributions to the creation and development of the State of Israel while President of the United States of America.” This 7x10 program from the event features Truman’s blue-ink “8” signature and rates GD/VG with general surface wear and a vertical fold. Full LOA from JSA.
Opening Bid $150.00
646. Charles A. Lindbergh Signed Photo
There he is: The true-blue, all-American Golden Boy of the 1920s. Lucky Lindy looks daring and dashing as ever in this 8x10 photo, with his black-fountain-pen signature, “Charles A. Lindbergh,” rating “5” strength. The photo is VG due to peripheral wear, and it has been adhered to a modern backing board that measures 10-1/2 x 12-1/2”.
Auction LOA from JSA.
Opening Bid $150.00

Aviation enthusiasts take flight with this pair of Charles Lindbergh related keepsakes. Offered are: 1.) a 1927 “Spirit of St. Louis” brass airplane lapel pin with ribbon in excellent condition with raised lettering that reads “Capt. Lindbergh” across the wings, “Spirit of St. Louis” on the nose and “NY to Paris Non Stop” on the body, pin shows nice luster, fastening clasp functions properly, ribbon shows moderate wear; 2.) hardback book “Of Flight and Life” by Charles Lindbergh, 1948 1st edition, cover and pages are clean (EX) with original dust jacket (VG).

649. First Ladies of the United States of America Autograph Lot of (12)
Pay tribute to some great American women with this “First Ladies” of the United States autograph lot of (12).
Appearing on a variety of flats, these “Mrs. POTUS” signatures range (“8” to “10”) unless noted. Featured are: 8x10 Photos: Laura Bush, Betty Ford, Nancy Reagan; TLSs: Barbara Bush on Vice President’s House letterhead, Rosalynn Carter on her own letterhead; FDGs: Mamie Eisenhower (“7”), Eleanor Roosevelt; Cachets: “Lady Bird” Johnson, Pat Nixon, Bess Truman; Cuts: Lucretia Garfield, Helen Taft. Auction LOA from JSA.
Opening Bid $250.00

650. Ronald Reagan Signed Cut with Full JSA
Republican faithful break out your “Grand Old Party” happy dance for this Ronald Reagan signed cut. Serving as 40th POTUS during the 1980s, Reagan forged a legacy as one of our greatest leaders through policies that paved the way to ending the “Cold War”. Nicely centered on a piece of 5-1/2 x 3-1/8 cardboard stock, Reagan’s regal red ballpoint pen signature displays (“8-9”) quality, spanning 4” of the otherwise plain cut. A unobtrusive crease at top center does not contact or diminish this chief executive endorsement. Full photo LOA from JSA.
Opening Bid $150.00

El Comandante’s flawless blue-Sharpie signature rates “10” on this 9-7/8 x 13-3/8” document honoring Cuban boxer Juan Delis. Light creasing throughout results in a technical grade of GD/VG, however the attractive certificate displays quite well and would frame nicely. An accompanying English translation reads, “RECOGNITION/ Juan L. Maren Delis/ For his outstanding participation in the XII Pan American Games for obtaining a Gold Medal/ Havana March of 1995/ The year of centennial of the caida of [Cuban independence leader] Jose Marti.” Full LOA from JSA.

652. 1930s-1950s “TIME Magazine” Bound Volumes (19)
Including 247 Issues
A labor of love, this ambitious archiving project was undertaken many years ago by a devoted collector who bound the TIME issues in matching gilt-embossed leather volumes. The tomes measure approx. 8-1/2” x 11” x 2” and rate EX condition overall, while the interior issues themselves generally average EX-MT/NM condition overall with mailing labels throughout and the occasional stamping or notation. Highlight covers include: Gandhi, FDR, Cochrane, Hitler, Gehrig, Dietrich, Einstein, Welles, Rogers, Lindbergh, Freud, Stalin, J. Louis, Hayworth, MacArthur, Eisenhower, Ott, J. Robinson, T. Williams, Truman, Picasso and Mays. More on our website.

653. 1924 “TIME Magazine” Second-Year of Issue Lot (7 Different)
Founded by Henry Luce and Briton Hadden, TIME Magazine made its debut on March 3, 1923, and had a circulation of 70,000 by the end of 1924. All of these sophomore offerings were evidently removed from a bound volume and bear commensurate spine wear. Otherwise, condition averages VG-EX/EX overall unless noted. Includes: 7/14/24 Alexis Ivanovitch Rykov; 9/22/24 Leo H. Baekeland (library stampings); 9/29/24 Hiram W. Johnson (library stampings); 10/6/24 William Allen White (library stampings); 11/17/24 Frederick Huntington Gillett (pencil-annotated “Library”); 12/15/24 Dwight F. Davis; and 12/22/24 Alfonso XIII.

Surf’s up! Heed the call of 1960s surf rock with this classic 1966 Fender Jazzmaster electric guitar. Created by Leo Fender in 1958 as an upper end alternative to the iconic Stratocaster guitar, the Jazzmaster was quickly adopted by surf rock genre bands such as “The Safaris” and “The Ventures” for its characteristic mellow tones and string resonance. Housed in its original case with accompanying manual this vintage instrument shows only light authentic wear and all visible parts appear to be original. Vital statistics and features are: serial number 116178, 3-color sunburst body with offset “Contour Body” design, 25-1/2” scale maple neck, white “soap bar” single-coil pickups, multi-ply tortoise shell pickguard, Kluson deluxe in-line tuners, rosewood fretboard with perimeter binding and pearloid inlays, white control pots/toggle switch, black “rhythm only” position switch/thumbwheel controllers, chrome bridge guard/endplate and synchronized floating tremolo bar. Though this guitar has not been taken apart to examine interior electronic components, it has been plugged in and determined to be in fine working condition. More on our website.

656. Michael Jackson “Thriller” Shadowbox Display With Signed Personal Letter - Full JSA
Name “Artist of the Century,” late pop crooner Michael Jackson is far and away the most decorated artist (oftentimes quite literally) in the history of modern music. It’s only fitting that his 1982 “Thriller” release is the only LP with seven Billboard Top 10 singles. This shadowbox display showcases a “Thriller” theme and is autographed by the one and only “King of Pop.” Measuring 18-1/4 x 23-3/4,” the display features a silver-colored “Thriller” LP record and (3) 45 rpm records (“Beat It,” “Billie Jean” and “The Girl Is Mine”) with a color poster of Jackson mounted to the back. The center attraction, however, is a 6x9 sheet of “Michael Jackson Thriller” stationery conveying a typewritten personalized message regarding the success of the album. Jackson has signed the sheet in black ink (“6-7” strength). Full photo LOA from JSA.

657. 1970s-1980s High-Quality Original Rock Photos (9) Featuring the Band, Queen, Bowie, Who and Police
Seldom do oversized concert photos of this caliber reach the auction market—and more rarely still do they showcase such megastars. According to our consignor, the quartet of matching 16x20 color photos (Queen, Bowie, Who and Townshend) were developed at NYC’s Color Wheel Labs exclusively for Rolling Stone magazine and were never made available to the public as prints or posters. A fifth oversized example by photographer Elliott Landy measures 13x19 and captures the Band near Big Pink. Finally, and perhaps rarest of all, there are four smaller, 8-1/2 x 11” color photos of Sting from the Police’s famous Synchronicity Tour. The collection averages EX-MT condition overall with minor peripheral wear. More on our website.

684. 1910 E105 Mello-Mint John McGraw PSA 4—"1 of 1" Highest Graded Hall of Fame Type Card! Graded VG-EX 4 by PSA. Stunning 1910 E105 Mello-Mint John McGraw. Produced by the Texas Gum Company of Temple, Texas, few copies of this sample have endured the century. According to the PSA population report, of the six total examples judged by the third-party authenticator, this particular specimen resides as the highest graded with none better.

Opening Bid $200.00

685. 1921 E121 American Caramel Series of 80 Babe Ruth SGC 10

Highly desirable 1921 E121 American Caramel Series of 80 Babe Ruth from the season in which the “Sultan of Swat” belted 59 round trippers. Graded 10 Poor 1 by SGC, this presentable specimen depicts Ruth heaving a pitch during his tenure with the Boston Red Sox and is one of only 26 total specimens from the designation judged by the third-party grading service. Presents much nicer than other similar copies at the grading tier with evenly rounded corners, a faint peripheral tear near the lower left edge apart from the central image and a perfectly clear black-and-white image. Moderate foxing consistent with storing methods does not significantly disrupt the overall presentation but adds a distinct “aged” feel to the cardboard treasure. The advertising back is absent of any paper loss or writing and is accentuated by bold typeface.

Opening Bid $500.00

686. 1927 W560 Jimmie Foxx SGC 80

Graded 80 EX/NM 6 by SGC. Unleash “The Beast” into your collection with the offered 1927 W560 Jimmie Foxx strip card. This Hall of Fame slugger was neatly extracted from a period strip and displays four sharp corners, crisp edges and a fresh surface. The blank reverse is clean.

Opening Bid $150.00

687. 1931 W517 Babe Ruth (Throwing) Three-Card Panel with Goslin & Ott

Phenomenal 1931 W517 three-card panel featuring #47 Goose Goslin (top)/#4 Babe Ruth (Throwing, middle)/#30 Mel Ott (bottom). This 84-year-old candy store artifact measures 2 7/8 x 11 1/2” with the obverses being crease-free. The boundaries between the player portrayals showcase tight perforations. While Goslin and Ott exhibit superficial perimeter wear, the middle rendition of Ruth has escaped such detractors. Aside from horizontal paper loss spanning the bottom of Ott’s card, the reverses are clean. The exceptionally clean Ruth pose leads to interesting and potentially lucrative third-party grading possibilities.

Opening Bid $500.00

688. (11) 1931 W517 Uncut Three-Card Panels with (22) Hall of Famers Including Gehrig

An exceptional find is uncovered with these (11) 1931 W517 uncut three-card panels featuring a total of (22) Hall of Famers including Gehrig. This “new to hobby” gathering displays only mild corner and edge wear to the upper and bottom cards while the crisp sepia interiors are almost entirely crease-free. Includes: #9 B. Harris (surface writing)/17/24 Lindstrom, #10 Klein/#33 O’Doul (Phillies)/#27 Lazzeri, #11 Kelly (Reds)/13/#28 Munsh (reverse red strip along bottom edge), #12 T. Jackson/#14 Heilmann/#4 (reverse red strip along bottom edge), #19 Cuyler/#36 Vance (numbered)/#34 P. Waner (numbered, reverse red strip along bottom edge), #29 Hafey (Cards)/#11 Combs/#2 Traynor, #35 Gehrig/5/31, 43/18/#15 Alexander, #45 Lyons/#51 Averill/#16 Frisch, #49/#3 Roush/#2 and #54 Cochrane/22/#40 Simmons (paper loss along bottom edge).

698. 1952 Topps Baseball #311 Mickey Mantle Rookie High Number SGC 30

Graded 30 Good 2 by SGC. Simply breathtaking 1952 Topps Baseball #311 Mickey Mantle rookie high number. The young Oklahoma superstar tightly grips his lumber of choice as he glimpses toward his Hall of Fame future including 536 home runs, three Most Valuable Player awards and 12 World Series appearances. As the undisputed most celebrated modern trading card, this rendition of the iconic “Mick” transcends the sports collecting hobby and merits considerable attention in any environment. Unlike so many of its peers, the offered Mantle escaped excessive handling from a youthful admirer and is still a viable copy for the prospective set builder. With exception to scant obverse flaking to the facial region along with a well concealed horizontal crease, this centerpiece otherwise presents in mid-grade condition with even corner wear and relatively crisp edges. Errant right justified centering is offset by a bright blue setting along appealing flesh tone and uniform accents. The reverse heralding Mantle’s phenom status displays strong red-and-black text.

730. 1980 WBTW Charlotte O’s Blue Border Complete Set of (26) Cards with PSA 3 Ripken Presented is a 1980 WBTW Charlotte O’s Blue Border complete set of (26) cards featuring the coveted Cal Ripken card. Purportedly 1,400 sets were printed for a May 1980 Charlotte O’s home date. Unfortunately for attendees, the game was cut short by rain and many sets were ultimately tossed into a dumpster. This well-handled issue (averages GD) is difficult to uncover in any condition. The early “Iron Man” portrait of Ripken is graded VG by PSA and is one of only 44 total copies judged by the third-party service. More on our website.

Opening Bid $400.00

734. 1910s Pittsburgh Pirates Oversized Felt Pennant
Rarity connoisseurs show your affinity for the unique by capturing this 1910s Pittsburgh Pirates oversized felt pennant with “Pittsburgh” lettering in a kite shaped field. Similar in design to a known “skull & crossbones” rarity of the same period this singular specimen shows detail differences which command attention. Measuring just shy of 38” on the long edges, 36-1/2” across the middle and 14” on the short edge, this remarkable flag shows plenty of life and despite scattered moth holes, light soiling and two tears, remains solid and appealing. 736. 1922 World Series Game 2 Polo Grounds Ticket Stub - PSA “Authentic”
Suspicion clouded Game 2 of the 1922 World Series, which ended in a tie despite sunny conditions. Just three years removed from the “Black Sox” scandal, Commissioner Landis ordered the $120,000 in gate receipts to go toward World War I charities, thus dispelling any improprieties by Giants owner and known gambler Charles Stoneham. Encapsulated and assessed “Authentic” by PSA, this ticket stub was issued for that controversial game and is one of seven at its tier with none graded higher.
Opening Bid $400.00

737. 1922 World Series Game 3 Polo Grounds Ticket Stub - PSA “Authentic”
Twice a 21-game loser during his journeyman career, Jack Scott was true to the task in Game 3 of the 1922 World Series. In an hour and 48 minutes, Scott made short work of the New York Yankees, yielding four hits in a 3-0 Giants triumph. Encapsulated and assessed “Authentic” by PSA, this ticket stub was issued at the Polo Grounds for that pitching masterpiece. One of six at its tier with only three graded higher, the voucher features the facsimile signature of Giants owner and reputed underworld figure Charles Stoneham.
Opening Bid $400.00

New York boosters thrill to this Yankees memorabilia collection of (136). Highlights are: 1947 World Series Game 6 ticket stub (GD-VG); (3) Season Passes all made to Harold Latham of the North Jersey Press Bureau with: 1941 Yankee Stadium (FR); (2) Ruppert Stadium Newark Bears: 1942 (VG), 1943 (GD); 1936s Esso Babe Ruth Boys Club pin (GD-VG) with contest coupon (VG); 1967 Mother’s Day medallion (NM); (2) Pennants: c.1970 full-size with “Souvenir of Yankee Stadium” lettering (VG-EX), c.1960 3/4-size (GD). Opening Bid $150.00

Sparingly used on the 1959 Chicago White Sox, outfielder Johnny Callison did not make the postseason roster and was subsequently dealt to the Phillies. That ’59 omission proved ominous, as Callison would never bask in the October spotlight, coming close in 1964 before the infamous “pfold.” This Hillerich & Bradsby (.345-5-150) “M110” signature model bat was issued to and signed by the Philly fan favorite during the 1965-1968 labeling period. The black marker signature projects (8-9”) strength. Minimal use. PSA/DNA sticker (for autograph).

742. Derek Jeter
2009 Signed
Game-Used Bat -
PSA/DNA GU 9.5
While the postseason is but a dream to many big leaguers, Derek Jeter has made a career of October baseball, logging what amounts to a full season’s worth of stats (and impressive ones at that)
with 200 hits and a .308
batting average in 158
career postseason games.
In successful pursuit of his seventh World Series appearance, “Mr. November” wielded and autographed this
Louisville Slugger “P72”
(30.6-oz/34-1/4”) signature model bat during the 2009 campaign. The uncracked white ash
weapon features a glossy
black “Smith” finish, silver-colored trademark stampings and is signed
by Jeter in silver marker
(“9.5” strength) between the center brand and barrel stampings. Graded
GU 9.5 by John Taube,
PSA/DNA, the lumber exhibits evidence of outstanding game use with ball, cleat and deeply embedded stitch marks, as well as grain swelling, white scuff marks and blue ink transfers (from OML baseballs) about the barrel. The handle is home to a moderate coat of Mota Stick. The date of manufacture (“6/2/2009”), length and weight are stamped onto the knob. Comes with Steiner Sports certs/holograms, a Steiner Sports LOA signed by Jeter and a full photo LOA from PSA/DNA.
Opening Bid $900.00

Eli Grba’s redemption story goes like this: The promising young pitcher starts out his career with Mantle, Maris, Ford and company, winning the 1960 A.L. pennant. Then he has the distinction of being the “Original Angel”—the first player chosen by the Angels in the 1960 expansion draft. But things go south shortly thereafter and Grba is released in 1963. By 1967, after three failed comeback attempts, Grba starts working odd jobs and hitting the bottle hard. So hard that his alcoholism leads to a 1970 divorce and the loss of custody of his children. The rest of the decade is a blur of hangovers, medical issues, another short-lived marriage, drunk driving, and suicidal thoughts. Grba reaches rock bottom in 1981 and checks himself into a detox center. He soberes up, beginning the long road to recovery. Minor-league coaching stints throughout the 1980s ultimately land him back in the majors as a Philadelphia Phillies scout—and the rag-tag ’93 Phils make their fairy tale journey to the World Series. Thus, with 33 checkered years in between them, this is the second of Grba’s league championship rings—the redemption ring. Made by Balfour, the 10K-gold, size 13 showpiece delivers 80 points’ worth of genuine diamonds and rates EX-MT with minor shank wear. Accompanied by the original Balfour box and a 1998 purchase LOA.

744. Pete Rose 1983 Signed Game-Worn Shoes
With an unwavering competitive desire and energy of a high school athlete, 42-year-old Pete Rose played in all 162 games in 1983 and advanced to the sixth World Series in his remarkable career. These Mizuno shoes were worn and signed by Rose during that campaign. The maroon leather “World Win” size “9-1/2” accessories feature manufacturer’s logos on the heels, sides and tongues with size metal cleats affixed to the bottom of each. Rose has signed the toe of each in silver marker (“8-9” strength). Light wear. Auction LOA from JSA (for autographs only).

759. Walter Johnson Signed Government Postcard - Full JSA
None the worse for a sheltered existence in rural Humboldt, Kansas, Walter Johnson hit the big cities, one by one, and tamed American League hitters with a lethal right arm Ty Cobb described as “the most powerful ever turned loose in a ball park.” This government postcard is autographed by the Hall of Fame hurler. Postmarked “1942” from Johnson’s Germantown, Maryland residence, the relic is signed by Johnson (d.1946) on the blank side in blue ink. Preceded by a “Best Wishes” salutation, Johnson’s scripting shows (“9”) quality. Full photo LOA from JSA. This item has a reserve (estimated value: $1000-$1500).
Opening Bid $400.00

760. Hack Wilson Cut Signature - Full JSA
In one of the most tragic endeavors in baseball history, Hack Wilson drove in a record 191 runs in 1930 and was soon thereafter the highest paid player in the National League. Less than 20 years later, he died penniless as a swimming pool attendant in Baltimore and his own son refused to claim the remains. Posthumously enshrined in Cooperstown in 1979, Wilson (d.1948) has one of the most fleeting autographs among Hall of Fame inductees. This cut signature is a rare and welcome addition to any high-end collection. Rendered in graphite pencil on an unevenly trimmed slip of approximately 4-3/8 x 1-3/4”, Wilson’s signature projects (“8”) strength and clarity. Full photo LOA from JSA.
Opening Bid $750.00

761. Mel Ott Signed 1941 Government Postcard - Full JSA
Made for each other, Mel Ott and the New York Giants were synonymous for 23 years. For a record 18 straight seasons, Ott paced the Giants in home runs and clubbed 323 of his 511 career circuit clouts at the Polo Grounds. This government postcard is autographed by the Manhattan superstar. Postmarked “May 12 1941” (two days after Ott had launched his 395th career round-tripper), the item is signed by Ott (d.1958) in black-ink steel tip fountain pen. This ultra-tough 500 Home Run Club scripting projects (“9”) potency! Full photo LOA from JSA.
Opening Bid $500.00

762. Joe DiMaggio 1941 Autographed Government Postcard - Full JSA
As baseball purists and casual fans, alike, recall Joe DiMaggio’s amazing 56-game hitting streak, the common belief is that everyone was rooting for “Joltin’ Joe.” Well here’s documented proof of the support of a 13-year-old Johnstown, Pennsylvania boy! Postmarked “1941” from New York City, this government postcard conveys pleasant wishes and an autograph request (in the boy’s hand) and in compliance, features DiMaggio’s bold black-ink autograph (“9” strength). Full photo LOA from JSA.
Opening Bid $250.00

763. Jimmie Foxx Signed 1941 Government Postcard - Full JSA
Dubbed “The Beast” and “Double X,” Jimmie Foxx was said to have “muscles on his muscles.” As his fence-clearing career neared the end, Foxx signed this government postcard. Postmarked “1941” in Boston, the 5-1/2 x 3-1/4” relic is signed on the blank side by Foxx (d.1967) in graphite pencil. Among the most fleeting of “500 Home Run Club” signatures, this one projects (“7”) strength and clarity. Full photo LOA from JSA.
Opening Bid $500.00

764. Tris Speaker Signed Government Postcard - Full JSA
A key component on World Series winning rosters of two franchises (Boston and Cleveland) that subsequently endured lengthy droughts, Hall of Famer Tris Speaker was enjoying his retirement as he autographed this government postcard. Postmarked “1952” in Tucson, Arizona, the keepsake is signed on its blank side by Speaker (d.1958) in blue ballpoint (“8-9” strength). Full photo LOA from JSA.
Opening Bid $400.00
765. Mel Ott Cut Signature With Full JSA - Incredibly Bold!
By far the toughest of coveted “500 Home Run Club” autographs, Mel Ott’s penning is bold and beautiful on this 1944 New York Giants program page display. Executed in black-ink steel tip fountain pen and adhered to a page from a 1944 New York Giants-themed publication, Ott’s signature projects “perfect 10” strength and clarity. Pictured on the page in a managerial capacity, Ott (d.1958) prompted rival Leo Durocher to proclaim “Nice guys finish last.,” Well, not here they don’t! Full photo LOA from JSA.
Opening Bid $400.00

766. Nestor Chylak Signed Index Card - PSA/DNA 9
Awarded the Silver Star and Purple Heart for courageous battle and injuries sustained in the Battle of the Bulge, Nestor Chylak had a decidedly easier time dealing with the fury of Earl Weaver and Disco Demolition Night. Encapsulated with Autograph Grade MINT 9 by PSA/DNA, this 3x5 blank index card is signed by the Hall of Fame arbiter. With an appropriate salutation (in Chylak’s hand) of “Be a good sport,” Chylak (d.1982) has signed in blue ballpoint and inscribed “A.L. Umpire;” a title he embodied for three decades.

767. 1934 Cincinnati Reds Multi-Signed Album Page With (4) HOFers and Full JSA - Gorgeous!
Armed with three Hall of Famers in their everyday lineup and another on the mound, the 1934 Cincinnati Reds somehow managed a (then) franchise-worst 99 losses. A local fan was undeterred, nonetheless, and acquired nine signatures on this vintage album sheet. The 4-3/8 x 5-7/8” page features graphite pencil signatures that average (“9”) potency with: Bottomley, Hafey, Koenig, Lombardi, O’Farrell, Piet, Schumacher, Slade and Vance. Full photo LOA from JSA.
Opening Bid $300.00

770. 1982 Cracker Jack “All-Time Baseball Greats” Multi-Signed Panel Lot of (2) With Mantle, Aaron and Spahn
Lyrically penned into immortality in the famed 1968 “Take Me Out to the Ball Game” composition, Cracker Jack has remained an integral part of the National Pastime and issued these (2) 1982 nine-card panels that were subsequently autographed by their heroic subjects! Framed to 10-1/2 x 13-3/4”, each showcases fiber tip penning (average “9” strength). Includes: Aaron, Banks, Doby, Feller, Ford, Kaline, Killebrew, Kiner, Mantle, Mathews, Oliva, Roberts, B. Robinson, Snider and Spahn. Auction LOA from JSA.
Opening Bid $200.00
771. J. DiMaggio, Mantle and T. Williams Multi-Signed Photograph - Full PSA/DNA
While they were contemporaries for but one season, Hall of Famers Joe DiMaggio, Mickey Mantle and Ted Williams were cut from the same cloth, each establishing his greatness with feats which no other player could match. This 10x8 black-and-white photo portrays the trio during that one common season (1951) and is signed by all (3). Framed to 15x13, the display is appealing in its own right and even more so when beholding blue marker signatures that trumpet ("10") strength and clarity. Full photo LOA from PSA/DNA.
Opening Bid $250.00

773. Mickey Mantle Signed 10x8 Photograph - Full JSA
Pictured shaking hands with "The Old Perfessor," a youthful Mickey Mantle gave his skipper reason for approval as the two teamed up for the latter five of Casey Stengel's seven World Series titles. Mantle (d.1995) has endorsed the black-and-white print in blue marker. The bold penning trumpets "perfect 10" strength and comes with a full photo LOA from JSA.
Opening Bid $150.00

775. Roger Maris Autographed 1961 "61st HR" Commemorative Placard - PSA/DNA
In the eye of a storm fueled by controversy, strong opinions and asterisks, Roger Maris simply went about his business and toppled one of the most sacred standards in baseball. This 4-1/4x6 3-3/4" placard portrays Maris in the act of breaking Babe Ruth's single-season home run record and is autographed by the oft-stoic slugger. Framed to 10-3/4 x 13-1/4", the relic showcases Maris' black marker signature, which projects ("9-10") potency. Graded MINT 9 from PSA/DNA.
Opening Bid $200.00

772. Mickey Mantle Single-Signed "Rawlings Advisory Staff" Photo Lot of (4) - All Full JSA
Backed its "Finest in the Field" claim, the Rawlings Sporting Goods Co. enlisted several prominent athletes (in title only, of course) to man its "Advisory Staff." A marketing cash cow, Mickey Mantle was one such celebrity and autographed these (4) 8x10 black-and-white promotional photos. Mantle's blue marker signatures include an example that projects ("9-10") strength with a "No. 7" inscription. The remaining (3) show ("8-9") potency. Individual full photo LOAs from JSA.
Opening Bid $500.00

774. Baseball HOFer/Stars Autographed Lot of (3) With Maris and (2) Mantle - All JSA or PSA/DNA
The most prolific single-season home run tandem headlines this lot of (3) autographed items. Includes: Roger Maris: framed to 23-1/8 x 17-5/8", a Maris blue ballpoint cut signature projects ("9") strength (PSA/DNA sticker); (2) Mantle/Seaver/Garvey: (2) 1982 Z-Silk Cachets both signed in blue marker (average "9") strength by Mickey Mantle, Tom Seaver and Steve Garvey (individual full photo LOAs from JSA).
Opening Bid $200.00

776. Roger Maris Cut Signature With Full JSA - Bold!
There was nothing flashy about Roger Maris. Oh, his tape-measure home runs were cause for rave reviews, but the flamboyant showmanship common to so many other sluggers just wasn’t there. This autograph mirrors Maris’ traits. The surface is nothing spectacular. No photos, no inspirational text or images. Just a 4-5/8 x 3" blank card. But, like his swing and his fence-clearing clouts, Maris’ penning is quite powerful! Executed in purple fiber tip marker, this autograph exhibits "perfect 10" strength and clarity. Full photo LOA from JSA.

781. Derek Jeter Signed Oversized 20x30 Photograph with Many Inscriptions LE 5/6 - Steiner
After his storied career and the most hits in Yankee history, Derek Jeter hung them up in the fall of 2014. Presented is an astonishing oversized photograph of #2 diving into the gap as he did so many times. Framed to 35 1/2 x 30, the color photo is signed in blue sharpie (“9-10”) and inscribed ROY 96; 96 98 99 WS Champs; 2000 All Star MVP. Limited edition 5/6, accompanying is a Steiner hologram and Cert. Opening Bid $250.00

782. 2009 World Series Multi-Signed LE 45/50
16x20 with Jeter, Rivera, Posada & Pettitte - MLB & Steiner
Perennial champions are the focus of this multi-signed 16x20 featuring the core members of the 2009 New York Yankees. Derek Jeter, Mariano Rivera, Jorge Posada and Andy Pettitte have each signed by their likeness around the coveted trophy awarded to the last team standing in the fall classic. With a vibrant average signature strength of (“10”) this photo is sure to find its way into a New York man cave. Limited edition 45/50 with accompanying MLB hologram and Steiner holo/cert card. Opening Bid $200.00
783. 1930 New York Yankees Partial Team Signed Ball (11 Signatures) Including Ruth, Gehrig and Lazzeri

This may be the most affordable Ruth/Gehrig Yankees team ball you’ll ever come across. It’s not a championship year and it’s not for a condition stickler, but the scuffed, heavily toned, red-and-blue-seamed OAL (Barnard) ball does boast a decently displayable, front-and-center Ruth. Signatures average "3+" overall and include: Ruth ("4-5"), Gehrig (bottom of east panel, "1"), Combs, Lazzeri, Shawkey, Rice, Sherid and others. Full LOA from JSA. Opening Bid $250.00

784. George Kelly Signed Baseball - Full JSA

A plus defender and clutch hitter through his 16-year career, George "Highposters" Kelly earned high praise from contemporaries, including skipper John McGraw, who said there’s nobody he’d rather have at the plate in a big situation. This ONL Giles ball is autographed by the Hall of Famer and two-time World Series champion. The near-white orb is signed "George L. Kelly" on a side panel ("8" strength) with an illegible inscription and "1969" notation. Light shellac covers the signature and there is evidence of signature removals. Full photo LOA from JSA. Opening Bid $500.00

785. 1955 Washington Senators Team-Signed Ball With Early Killebrew, Dressen and Clarke - Full PSA/DNA

Disheartened as he may have been from three years of near misses while at the helm of the Dodgers, skipper Chuck Dressen was then assigned to mold a Senators team and its 18-year-old slugger from Idaho. This OAL Harridge ball is autographed by (24) members of Dressen’s first D.C. squad, the 1955 installment. The creamy orb has a thin layer of shellac and ballpoint pennings averaging ("7") potency. Keys include: Clarke (d.1970), Dressen (d.1966), Killebrew, Laveggetto (coach) and Vernon. Full photo LOA from PSA/DNA. More on our website. Opening Bid $250.00

786. 1966 Washington Senators Team-Signed Ball - Full PSA/DNA

While it was business as usual with an eighth-place showing and yet another second-division showing, the 1966 Washington Senators took consolation in the fact that they handily won the season series from those “Damn Yankees.” This OAL Cronin ball is autographed by (30) members of that D.C. roster. The gorgeous creamy orb (grade "9") features ballpoint pennings (average "8-9" strength) with keys including: Harrelson, Hodges (manager), J Howard, McCormick and R. Walker (coach). Full photo LOA from PSA/DNA. More on our website. Opening Bid $150.00

787. Joe DiMaggio Single-Signed Baseball - Full PSA/DNA

A perennial champion and author of a 56-game hitting streak, Hall of Famer Joe DiMaggio autographed this OAL MacPhail baseball. The lightly toned orb (grade "6") is signed on the sweet spot in blue marker. The bold and evenly flowing signature projects every bit of ("8-9") strength and clarity. Full photo LOA from PSA/DNA. Opening Bid $300.00

788. Ted Williams Single-Signed Baseball - PSA/DNA 7.5

With an outspoken nature that likely cost him MVP honors in 1941, 1942 and 1947 (despite a .406 batting average and two Triple Crown honors), Ted Williams fittingly snubbed the press as he homered in his last career at-bat and didn’t make his club’s final road trip. Somewhat mellowed in his retirement, Williams autographed this OAL Brown ball. The lightly toned sphere (grade "6-7") is signed on the sweet spot in blue ballpoint ("8-9") strength. Graded NM 7.5 by PSA/DNA. Opening Bid $250.00

789. New York Yankees Multi-Signed Reunion Ball With Mantle, Slaughter and Full JSA

Winners of 14 pennants and nine World Series titles over a 16-year stretch between 1949 and 1964, the New York Yankees authored the most formidable dynasty in American sports history. Gathered to recount those glorious days at a 1980s reunion, (21) performers from those Bronx rosters signed this OAL Brown ball. The medium-toned orb showcases black ballpoint pennings (average "8-9" strength) with keys including: Bauer, Boyer, Mantle ("6" strength), McDougald, Slaughter and Skowron. Full photo LOA from JSA. More on our website. Opening Bid $150.00

790. 1995 National League Team-Signed Baseball Lot of (11) with World Series Champion Braves

Team ball specialists hit pay dirt with this 1995 National League team-signed baseball lot of (11). Featuring a total of (250) signatures, this incredible assortment represents about half of the NL players/cohaches employed in ’95 including a galaxy of star players. Signatures range desirably in grades of ("7" to "9-10") with 10% lesser. Lot key is a 1995 World Series Champion Atlanta Braves ONLWhite ball (EX-MT) signed by (24) with Bobby Cox, Tom Glavine, “Chipper” Jones, Javy Lopez and John Smoltz. Auction LOA from JSA. 792. Joe DiMaggio
Autographed 1932 San Francisco Seals Flannel Replica Jersey - Full JSA
Recommended by his older brother, Vince, to fill a shortstop void, 17-year-old Joe DiMaggio played three games for the 1932 San Francisco Seals. Literally performing for free with no contractual agreement, the Galileo High School product did return in a "professional" capacity the following year and authored a 61-game hitting streak that, while impressive, merely set a precedent for his exploits with the New York Yankees. This 1932 San Francisco Seals replica jersey is autographed by the Hall of Fame Frisco native. The cream-colored flannel size "XL" button-down garment features felt identifiers, a blue pinstripe pattern and is signed by DiMaggio in blue marker ("8" strength) on the left front. Full photo LOA from JSA.
Opening Bid $400.00

793. Joe DiMaggio
Signed Vintage "DiMaggio's" Restaurant Jersey - Full JSA
While he strayed a bit from his father's plans for him to become a fisherman, Joe DiMaggio did feature some mighty fine seafood at his San Francisco eatery following his "other" career. This vintage flannel "DiMaggio's" jersey was tailored for the restaurant owner and autographed on the right front in black marker ("7-8" strength). The button-down garment features twill identifiers and vintage "Stroh's" local distributor's tagging. Full photo LOA from JSA.
Opening Bid $250.00

815. Rare Frankie Eddolls Signed 8x10 Photo

Among the terrific qualities of this VG-EX photo are Eddolls’ youthful intensity, his classic leather gloves, the assistant captain’s “A” on his sweater, the “-2 - EDDOLLS” notation on his stick shaft, and the prominent, perfectly placed inscription and signature rating “9”. Eddolls (1921-1961) began his career in a controversial trade between the Canadiens and Maple Leafs for Ted Kennedy. He later made his name with the Rangers, then finished out his career with the Buffalo Bisons alongside a young Pierre Pilote, who later recalled, “Frankie Eddolls was great. He told and taught me so many things.” Auction LOA from JSA.

854. 1887 Four Base Hits John Clarkson SGC 20—Only Graded!
The Four Base Hits “Good Book” Find! It is the stuff that sports collecting dreams are made of. Early in 2014 a couple from Montgomery County, Pennsylvania, trekked to a far-flung thrift store and purchased a group of used books dating back several decades. After returning home and leafing through each volume, a curious discovery was unveiled after generations of concealment. It was uncovered in a late 1800s edition of The Holy Bible and used by the original owner as a bookmark. The sepia trading card featured a portrait of a baseball player named Clarkson along with the advertising slogan, “Smoke Four Base Hits, Four for 10 Cents.” This interesting antique accompaniment was subsequently set aside over several months before the Keystone residents began to investigate its origins in greater depth.

Fast forward to March 2015. Huggins & Scott Auctions was approached by our future consignors at the Philadelphia Sportscard & Memorabilia Show in King of Prussia, Pennsylvania. After exhaustive research, the Christian couple submitted their “Good Book” artifact to third-party authenticator SGC for evaluation. Upon review, an astonishing early diamond treasure was confirmed and entrusted to our company for public sale. Graded 20 Fair 1.5 by SGC. The proudly offered 1887 Four Base Hits John Clarkson is the sole copy of the Hall of Fame pitcher validated by the grading service. Additionally, the haunting image of the Chicago White Stockings star who passed away in 1909 is the only complete version of the card known, as the only confirmed PSA specimen is judged “Authentic” by the service due to trimming.

The 1887 Four Base Hits is as scarce as it is cherished by nineteenth-century hobbyists. A total of 17 subjects from the issue have been evaluated by both PSA and SGC with only eight Hall of Fame exemplars confirmed. The fifteen card set (which may not be complete) measures 2-1/4 x 3-7/8” and is noted for its eye-catching presentation. Adding to the mystique of the 128 year-old issue is that the original manufacturer has yet to be determined. While the near impossible and uncatalogued designation remains shrouded in mystery, it has not escaped the purview of media outlets. A March 2009 article from Forbes ranked the 1887 Four Base Hits Clarkson as ninth on its list of the “world’s most expensive baseball cards.”

This particular specimen of the 328-game winner and 1963 Cooperstown inductee is breathtaking, presenting much higher than the overall technical assessment. The dapper mustachioed hurler is portrayed in his suit-and-tie against a perfectly contrasted sepia backdrop. The sturdy cardboard foundation exhibits superficial corner and edge wear with pinpoint centering and a blank reverse. Faint reverse finger print impressions and an inch-long horizontal edge crease which does not protrude the surface are evident only upon close scrutiny. While the lower obverse conceals two microscopic specs of paper loss (the larger between the “ch” in pitcher) along with a barely perceptible fissure located on the bottom edge, the overall integrity of the surface is not compromised in the least.

An exceptional “once in a generation” hobby discovery with a biblical provenance that is truly miraculous!
