Welcome to Huggins and Scott Auctions, the Nation's fastest growing Sports & Americana Auction House. With this catalog, we are presenting another extensive list of sports cards and memorabilia, plus an array of historically significant Americana items. We hope you enjoy this.

VERY IMPORTANT: Due to size constraints and the cost factor in the print version of most catalogs, we are unable to include all pictures and elaborate descriptions on every single lot in the auction. However, our website has no limitations, so we have added many more photos and a much more elaborate description on virtually every item on our website. Well worth checking out if you are serious about a lot!

WEBSITE: WWW.HUGGINSANDSCOTT.COM

Here's how we are running our December 11, 2014 auction:

BIDDING BEGINS:
Monday December 1, 2014 at 12:00pm Eastern Time

Our auction was designed years ago and still remains geared toward affordable vintage items for the serious collector. We describe and photograph each item in the most clear and easy to understand way possible. However, WE LOVE QUESTIONS! Call us anytime at 301-608-0355. Always leave a message if you get our machine. It's always the first thing we check everyday.

REGISTRATION:
You must pre-register to bid. You can do this over the phone at 301-608-0355 or online at www.hugginsandscott.com. Should you choose the online method and have any problems, please call us for assistance. Our normal business hours are Monday-Friday 11-6pm EST. Weekends by appointment only.

Once registered you will need to confirm your email address by following the link in the confirmation email that is automatically sent to your email address that you register with. At the time of registration, you will create a User ID and Password, that you are responsible for; you will use that same User ID and Password every time you log into our site for this and all future auctions. Bidding is done online or by telephone.

ALL TIMES ARE EASTERN TIME

3-STEP BIDDING PROCESS:

STEP 1) Initial Bids

NOTE: our countdown clock on each lot is synchronized by Network Time Protocol to eastern time. The clock is set to reach 0d 0h 0m 0s at 11:30pm eastern time, which is when the lot would end if no additional bids are placed on the lot. If you have not bid on the lot, you will need to place your first bid by the time the countdown clock reaches 0d 1h 30m 0s. If you have any questions, please ask in advance!

You must place an acceptable, initial bid on an item by 10:00 pm on the night the item ends, in order to proceed to STEP 2. A way to check if your bid was accepted is to go to “My Bid List”. If the item you bid on is listed there, you are in. You can now sort your bid list by which lots you hold the current high bid for, and which lots you have been outbid on. IF YOU HAVE NOT PLACED A BID ON AN ITEM BEFORE 10:00 pm EST (on the night the item ends), YOU CANNOT BID ON THAT ITEM AFTER 10:00 pm EST, in the extended bidding session (STEP 2). However, at 10:00 pm on December 11th, if you are the only bidder on an item that ends that day, that item will close and you will be declared the winner. We cannot stress enough; you will want to get your bids in early. For example, once you get your catalog, if you were to place a bid (even if you get outbid by another bidder) on every item that you are interested in, you are good to go and will be allowed to bid at the end of the auction, without the possibility of being shutout.

STEP 2) Extended Bidding Session
Between 10:00 pm and 11:00 pm is our “extended bidding session”. This period of bidding is getting you ready for the end. You are welcome to continue placing bids on any item that you have previously bid on, but you may not jump in on a new item during this time.

STEP 3) Unique Auction Ending Style
Now adopted by most major auction houses; You're Welcome! Years ago, for some unknown reason, most other auction houses adopted the procedure to end entire auctions all at one time. Our way is much more bidder friendly. Here's how it works: Bidders have our catalog for roughly two weeks prior to the auction's end, giving them ample opportunity to place an initial bid before 10:00 pm on the item's end date. Lots will then begin closing at 11:00pm on their respective end date. If only one bid has been received and the clock strikes 10:00pm, the lot will officially close and the lone bidder will be declared the winner. If there have been two or more bids on a particular item, that item will remain open until 30 minutes have passed without any additional bids on that item. A 30-minute timer is provided for each lot and will be automatically reset every time a new bid is made on that lot. If you up your own high bid in the last 30-minutes, the 30-minute clock will NOT reset. This is now available in real time on our website. You will want to hit the "REFRESH" button on your computer as the clock counts down, as our system will not automatically show an increase in bids. Bids on items will continue to be accepted between 10:00 pm and 11:00 pm from any bidder that has bid on the item prior to 10:00 pm (Extended Bidding Session). Based on these rules, no lot with two or more bids prior to 10:00 pm can close prior to 11:30 pm ET.
Here are some examples:

a) Two bidders named A & B are the only two who have bid on Lot 420 prior to 10:00 pm on the day that the lot ends. Only Bidders A & B can bid on Lot 420 after 10:00 pm. At 11:00 pm, Bidder A was the high bidder on Lot 420. If no one else bids before 11:30 pm, Bidder A will win the auction. If, however, Bidder B bids again at 11:27pm, the new end time for Lot 420 is 11:57 pm, giving Bidder A another 30 minutes to raise his bid. No other auction lots are affected by A & B’s bidding on Lot 420.

b) If Bidder A was the only bidder on Lot 420 at 10:00 pm, he automatically wins the lot at 11:00pm. This format accomplishes two very bidder-friendly things: it prevents snipers, as once you bid the clock resets for 30 minutes even if you bid with 1 second left. Also, it allows people to know they have won an item without having to wait for every item in the auction to close.

We are sure that once you read and use this bidder-friendly Auction Ending style, you’ll appreciate, as we do, that it is just “a better mousetrap.” However should you have any questions about this procedure, PLEASE call us: 301-608-0355.

A few examples for those of you that may not understand:

a) If an item has an opening bid of $200 and does not have a bid, you can click on the drop box and you have the option at bidding $200, $210, $220, $230, $240, $250, $275, $300, $325, $350, $375, $400, $425, $450, $475, $500, $550, $600 and so on.

b) If an item’s bid currently stands at $1800, your options for bidding are $1900, $2000, $2100, $2200, $2300, $2400, $2500, $2750, $3000 and so on.

Let’s say an item currently stands at $750. You enter a max bid of $850 and the system comes back and says that you’ve been outbid and the current bid is now $850. Simply, this means that the other bidder’s max was also $850, that they placed BEFORE YOU PLACED YOUR BID, and one more bid will make you the current high bidder. You can enter the next acceptable bid of $900 and you will be the current high bid.

PAYMENT OPTIONS

We accept personal checks, business checks, money orders, bank checks, and cash. We WILL accept Paypal for auction items (if pre-authorized before the auction ends. Call for details). We DO NOT accept credit cards for auction winnings!

FOLLOWING THE AUCTION

We will send winning bidders an email as well as written invoices the week following the auction. Payment is requested within 15 days from the end of the auction. Extremely late or non-payments may result in the revocation of bidding privileges for future auctions. Please note: when you bid on an item, you are entering a legally binding contract, indicating that you will pay for your items, plus the buyers’ premium and any additional associated fees (sales tax, shipping, insurance, collection agency fees, etc.). You are responsible for any and all bids placed with your User ID and password. We WILL sell your debt to a collection agency if you fail to make payment.

MORE ABOUT OUR AUCTION

1) All items are sold AS IS to the highest bidder

2) Buyer’s Premium and Sales Tax - Please note our BUYERS PREMIUM is 19-1/2% of the hammer price. This means if an item sells for $1000, the winning bidder will pay ($1195.00 plus shipping, handling and insurance). This is added to the item before any sales tax (6%), which is applicable to all Maryland residents ONLY!

3) No one who is currently employed with Huggins and Scott or House of Cards may bid on any items in any Huggins and Scott Auctions. However, the auction house and its employees may consign items to the auction.

4) “Items With Reserves” feature slightly modified! We have expanded and modified the “items with reserves” feature for this auction. Now, the items with reserves are noted with a red outline around the lot and the words “ITEM WITH RESERVE” heading above the lot. They will also appear in the appropriate category section based on the item. The reason we have started this is to allow us to offer more unique and special items, while also giving our consignors the assurance that the items will at least reach a certain minimum. All items with reserves will have an opening bid and an estimated value range. The reserve bid on any item will never be greater than the low value in the estimated range. By starting the bidding below the reserve price it will allow our bidders to get their initial bids in prior to the 10:00pm cutoff time for “initial bids” on the final day of the auction and then all eligible bidders can decide what they want their final bid to be on that day. The items will have a statement in the bid box on our website saying either “Reserve Not Met” or “Reserve Met”. Those two phrases should be self-explanatory. If you are entering a ceiling bid on one of these items and your ceiling bid exceeds the reserve, the computer will only take you to the value that equals the reserve. The remaining amount of your ceiling bid will be kept hidden to everyone but you. If the item ends with the “reserve not met” the item will be deemed “passed” with a zero sale price. We are trying to make this a simple and easy-to-understand feature in our auction; should you have any questions, concerns or comments on this new venture, we welcome your feedback.

5) Shipping - Is the buyer’s responsibility. We will work with you on larger lots to find the best way. All items must be fully paid for, including shipping and insurance, before they will be sent out. We strongly encourage any local bidders to pick up their winnings at our Office or at the House of Cards. International bidders should contact us prior to sending payment to discuss specific shipping options.

6) Return Policy - ALL LEGITIMATE RETURNS OR CREDIT REQUESTS MUST BE BROUGHT TO OUR ATTENTION WITHIN 30 DAYS OF RECEIPT OF YOUR ITEMS! AFTER 30 DAYS, THERE ARE NO REFUNDS, EXCHANGES OR CREDITS! ALSO, THE ENTIRE LOT MUST BE INTACT AND IN THE SAME FORM AS WHEN IT WAS SOLD IN ORDER TO RECEIVE ANY CREDIT OR REFUND CONSIDERATIONS - NO EXCEPTIONS!!

We have conservatively graded most items, however we strongly encourage you to ask specific questions or better yet, come view the items you are interested in. If you are unsure of anything, ask, then bid. We reserve the right to make any changes from the print catalog on our website. Any changes that are made, we will notify all who have placed bids on that item by email.

7) Bidding Privileges - Huggins and Scott LLC reserves the right to revoke any bidder privileges for what we deem as unethical behavior.

PLEASE NOTE: Once a bid is placed, we CANNOT retract it. We have two safeguards to make sure that you are aware of the bid that you are placing, and which lot you are bidding on. Bid retraction will result in cancellation of all bids in the auction and bidding privileges revoked. WE CANNOT COMPROMISE THE INTEGRITY OF THE AUCTION BY CANCELING BIDS.

8) Previewing Items Before the Auction - All items are available for viewing at our auction office: 2301 Broadbirch Dr. Ste 150, Silver Spring, MD 20904. Calling in advance for an appointment is strongly SUGGESTED. We ask that you provide a list of the items that you want to examine, so we may have them ready for you.

9) All bids are in US Dollars!

10) When we refer to a population report about graded cards, we only reference the population of that card's grading company. For example, if we say an SGC card has three equals and none better, we are only referring to that card's population among all SGC graded cards, unless otherwise stated. All population counts are valid as of the time of writing and are subject to change.

About Our Autographs:
All autographs thru Huggins & Scott Auctions come with either a JSA/James Spence Authentication (our most used), PSA/DNA, Upper Deck Authenticated (UDA), Stacks of Piaques, Kevin Keating or Steiner COA's. Some even have more than one. At Huggins & Scott, we take great pride in only offering "IRONCLAD", "LEAD PIPE", "NO QUESTIONS ASKED" autographs. In today's world of autopens, secretarial, clubhouse and ghost signers, you can rest assured that your autographed items from H&S have passed the most stringent examination.

Note: For those that do not know, a "clubhouse" signature was a common practice among teams where the key players would not actually sign the item, but a clubhouse attendant would sign for the player. We note any signature that is a clubhouse signature.

Multiple Autographed Item Lot LOA's:
For the more valuable autographs, we are obtaining full photography LOA's from one of the respected third party authentication companies. For the lesser valued items, we are having those items authenticated and noted with a unique sticker/certificate combination for each item. In the remaining cases, on lots with more than one autographed item, we will issue one blanket auction letter of authenticity for the entire lot (although we are trying to do away with this altogether, but sometimes it is the only cost effective method). This is the original letter that we receive from the authentication company describing the offered lot. You may use this “auction” LOA to obtain individual LOA’s should you chose to do that, however the auction LOA's are only valid for 45 days from the end of the auction. Please see the item's description for specific authentication on each individual lot. Please call if you have any questions regarding these auction lot LOA's.

Framed Items:
Frames included with lots: while we make every effort to protect the frames included in these lots during pre auction storage and post auction shipping, we are not responsible for any damage to the frames themselves, and no refunds will be given due to frame damage.

About Our Grading:
Many lots, throughout the auction have been Professionally graded and encapsulated by independent grading companies. Many other lots have been graded by our highly educated writers. For the most part, these are conservative grades, but we are human and sometimes we may miss something. We are not responsible for a third party grading company agreeing or disagreeing with our assessment and we cannot issue refunds or credits if cards do not receive a numerical grade or the exact grade that we describe. We strongly recommend that you come look at any items that you are bidding on, and make your own determination about it’s grade.

Becoming one of Our Field Representatives:
Huggins and Scott Auctions is a constantly growing company. Should you have an interest in joining our staff, we are always looking for part-time field representatives in new areas. Call our head of Field Representatives, Steve Dickler at 215-530-4365 to discuss an opportunity; its a no lose situation for you, as well as a chance to make some serious money.

Consignments For Our Next Auction:
We have already begun taking consignments for our February 12, 2015 auction. Consignment deadline: January 5, 2015 - by consigning your items early, you allow us the opportunity to advertise your items on our website, in trade publications and press releases, as well as at major shows across the country. This is an invaluable way to expose your items to thousands of current bidders and possible new bidders, who can then plan ahead to bid on your items. Believe me, it happens!

We are always looking for unique Americana items to try in our catalog. Even if you have something you don't see (primarily 1960s and older, though), feel free to call us and discuss it. You may have a pile of gold that's just hidden under a little dust, or needs the right exposure!

ALSO: We are the best major catalog auction company for newer modern insert, relic and autographed cards. Virtually every consignor has been pleased with the results for their "Shiny Cards" through our auction.

Contact one of our representatives to discuss the sale or consignments of your cards and other treasures.

1. “Denton T. (Cy) Young” incredibly rare full name signed cut autograph on album page—PSA/DNA 9

Incredibly rare (and possibly the only known) full name signature evaluated as Authentic and encapsulated by PSA/DNA with an autograph grade of Mint 9. The offered “Denton T. (Cy) Young” (d.1955) cut autograph, affixed to a 6 x 4-1/2” album page, spans a remarkable 4-1/4”. The flowing blue ink script is uninterrupted by any technical deficiency, save a few minor paper creases through “Denton” that do not affect that overall presentation. Beneath the autograph an unknown hand listed the career achievements of the prolific Hall of Famer in period pencil. Research has shown a variety of iterations of his signature, however we have never seen this exact format ever offered at public auction! Opening Bid $750.00

3. 1939 world champion New York Yankees Team-Signed Baseball With Gehrig, DiMaggio and Full JSA

Towering over their opponents as three-time defending World Series champions, the 1939 New York Yankees were devastated with the falling of their soft-spoken leader, Lou Gehrig, who benched himself on May 2 with an uncharacteristic .143 average. Inspired by Gehrig’s selfless heroics, the Bronx Bombers went on a 40-8 tear to distance themselves on their way to a (then) record fourth straight title. This OAL Harridge baseball is autographed by (28) members of that pinstriper roster. The lightly toned orb is minimally affected by scattered surface abrasions and showcases black-ink fountain pen scriptings that range from (“7”) to (“4”) in terms of potency. Includes: Sweet Spot: DiMaggio (“5” strength), and McCarthy (clubhouse); North Panel: Combs (coach, “5”), Gomez (“5-6”), Powell (d.1948, “5-6”), Donald, Jorgens, Heinrich and Rolfe; South Panel: unidentified, Pearson, Schreiber, Hildebrand, Knickeboker, Russo, Hadley and Gehrig (“5”); West Panel: Schulte (coach), Sandu, Crosetti and Keller; East Panel: Dickey (“5”), Selkirk, Rosar, Murphy, Dahlgren, Gordon (“5”) and Ruffing (“5-6”). Full photo LOA from JSA. Opening Bid $400.00

2. 1928 Philadelphia A’s/Chicago White Sox Multi-Signed Baseball With Cobb and Speaker - Full JSA

The ebb and flow of diamond fortunes simultaneously saw the Philadelphia Athletics on the ascent and the Chicago White Sox in the throes of decline as both tried (in vain) to unseat the almighty Yankees in 1928. Likely gathered during one of the 22 meetings between the A’s and ChiSox that year, (15) autographs decorate this vintage baseball. The darkly toned official orb has a uniform coat of period shellac and features black-ink fountain pen scriptings that range between (“7”) and (“2-3”) in terms of strength and clarity. Highlights include: Cobb (“7” strength), Lajoie (“3” strength), Schalk (“3” strength) and Speaker (“7” strength). Full photo LOA from JSA. More on our website.

Opening Bid $500.00

4. Thurman Munson and Catfish Hunter Dual-Signed Baseball - Full JSA

As the Yankees took on the front-running Baltimore Orioles on Saturday August 4, 1979 at Yankee Stadium, Catfish Hunter worked to battery mate Brad Gulden and blanked the Birds on three hits over six innings. But Gulden (who hit a paltry .163 that year) and the Yankee bullpen were not up to the task, not on this dark and somber night just two days after team captain Thurman Munson was killed in an airplane crash. Less than a month prior at Seattle’s Kingdome, Munson and Hunter were battery mates as the latter registered his 224th and final Major League victory. Together in the lineup for the last time on July 29 in Milwaukee, Hunter was felled, 5-3, despite a rare triple (his 32nd and final) by Munson. The offered New York Yankees team-issued souvenir baseball is autographed by the Bronx legends, both of whom left us far too soon. The creamy orb presents beautifully. Munson (d.1979) has signed a side panel in black ballpoint (“8” strength) and Hunter (d.1999) has signed an adjacent panel in blue ballpoint (“7” strength). Full photo LOA from JSA.

Opening Bid $400.00
5. Jimmie Foxx
Single-Signed
Mini-Baseball
With Full
PSA/DNA and JSA
Symbolic of the “old school” and its revered heroes, this OAL mini baseball is autographed by the second-ever member of the esteemed “500 Home Run Club.” The creamy orb measures 7 1/4” in circumference and is signed on a side panel by Jimmie Foxx. Executed in green-ink, Foxx’ penning projects (“7”) strength and clarity with the upper-case “J” and “F” characters unmistakable traits of the first right-handed member and second Maryland native in the esteemed longball fraternity. The trademark stampings show the facsimile scriptings of both Harridge and Conlin and a notation on an adjacent panel (in an unknown hand) dates the souvenir to 1960. Full photo LOAs from PSA/DNA and JSA.
Opening Bid $500.00

6. Dizzy Dean
Single-Signed
Baseball - Full
PSA/DNA
Distinctive in his abilities and personality, Hall of Fame Dizzy Dean enjoyed pitching and talking equally and was embraced by America throughout and well after his playing career. Dean’s autograph, too, had traits all its own. And here’s a stellar example! The medium is a creamy unofficial “Rawlings” sphere and Dean’s black-ink penning is unmistakable with quotation marks (a post-career trait on Dean signatures) within the upper-case “D’y.” As his autograph gradually grew in height, Dean resorted to a side panel rather than compromise his flamboyant compositions in the limited space allowed on the sweet spot. This signature and its location are true to form, showing (“7”) potency just above the trademark stampings, with surface abrasions minimally affecting the first name. Full photo LOA from PSA/DNA.
Opening Bid $250.00

7. Multi-Signed 1950s ONL Giles Baseball With Hornsby, Frisch and Irvin - Full JSA
A changing of the guard, so to speak, is represented on this baseball autographed by (3) Hall of Famers. The occasion is subject to speculation, but the date is likely narrowed to 1952 or 1953. The medium is an OAL Giles sphere that shows apparent diamond use. On a side panel, blue ballpoint signatures of Frankie Frisch (“4” strength) and Rogers Hornsby (“6-7” strength) were rendered in their respective capacities as a New York Giants broadcaster and manager of the St. Louis Browns (1952) or Cincinnati Reds (1952-1953). An adjacent panel is home to the scripting of Monte Irvin (“4” strength). There is evidence of signature removals on side panels. Full photo LOA from JSA.
Opening Bid $250.00

8. 1954 New York Yankees Team-Signed Baseball With Mantle and Letter From Team - Full PSA/DNA
So dominant were the New York Yankees during their remarkable 1949-1964 run of 14 pennants in 16 seasons, that even when they did not advance to the Fall Classic, they remained a well-oiled machine to which also-rans aspired to imitate. The 1954 campaign marked a brief interruption in the pinstripers’ championship run, despite the club’s impressive win total of 103. This baseball is autographed by (26) members of that vaunted runner-up roster. The medium-toned OAL Harridge orb has scattered surface abrasions and ballpoint penning averaging (“5-6”) quality. Keys include: Bauer, Bern, Ford, Mantle, Reynolds, Rizzuto, Skowron and Slaughter. Full photo LOA from PSA/DNA. More on our website.
Opening Bid $200.00

9. 1957 Brooklyn Dodgers Team-Signed Baseball (Last Year in Brooklyn) With Koufax, Campanella and Full JSA
Not long for their Flatbush surroundings, the 1957 Dodgers played their final season before leaving their heartbroken Brooklyn following for sunny California. This OAL Giles ball is autographed by (22) members of that last-ever Ebbets Field installment. The creamy orb (grade “9”) is absolutely gorgeous and features blue ballpoint pennings averaging (“7-8”) potency. Includes: Sweet Spot: Alston (clubhouse); North Panel: Reese, Cimoli, Newcombe, Amoros, Bessent, Walker and Valo; South Panel: Hodges, Smathers, Herman (coach), Pitter (coach), Zimmer, Campanella and McDevitt; West Panel: Mullenax, Drysdale, Erskine, Jackson, Labine and Maglie; East Panel: Furillo and Koufax. Full photo LOA from JSA.
Opening Bid $250.00

10. Mickey Mantle and Roger Maris Dual-Signed Baseball - Full JSA
Seldom do we find an autograph coupling more appropriate in terms of teammates and presentation. The medium is a mildly toned OAL MacPhail sphere (grade “7”) and its endorsers are 1961 longball combatants Mickey Mantle and Roger Maris. The black ink signatures are reflective of the players’ respective personal traits and their standings in the eye of the public. Executed on the sweet spot, Mantle’s scripting is bold, indeed, projecting (“9”) strength and clarity. Relegated to the depths of the south panel, the self-effacing Maris has composed a much simpler autograph in terms of both size and strength. Vestiges of the complete scripting remain, though the penning resonates (“4”) quality. Full photo LOA from JSA.
Opening Bid $400.00

For Brooklyn Dodger purists, the angst stillingers from the 1951 playoff loss in Harlem, but the memories live, as well, with this baseball autographed by (24) members of that Flatbush roster (with no clubhouse signatures). The mildly toned ONL Frick orb (grade “6”) has scattered surface abrasions, an almost indiscernible coat of period shellac and ballpoint pennings averaging ("5-6") strength. This ONL Giles ball is signed by (28) members of that Redbird roster. The mildly toned orb (grade “7”) is home to black ballpoint pennings that, while somewhat faded, average ("5") strength. Nineteenth Century specialists come to attention for this spectacular Allen & Ginter A16 Album of Worlds Champions. Belying its considerable age this 1888 issue reports in remarkable condition with handsome color images, excellent gloss and original gray twine binding. Front cover subjects are boxer J. Dempsey and baseball HOFer J. Ward. Twelve absolutely gorgeous interior pages feature a total of forty-eight multi-sport champions including baseball HOFers C. Anson, J. Clarkson, C. Comiskey, T. Keefe and M. Kelly; western stars “Buffalo Bill” Cody and Annie Oakley; and boxing great J.J. Sullivan.

This diamond-themed correspondence piece holds infinite appeal on several fronts. At first glance, we behold a 3-3/8 x 5-3/8” thick stock postcard with a black-and-white likeness of Hall of Famer Walter Johnson. Based on the authoritative National Baseball Hall of Fame “Dressed to the Nines” database, a closer examination narrows the likeness to the 1924 World Series (which resulted in the franchise’s lone title), as Johnson’s solid white uniform is without pinstripes. An unknown hand inscribed the pitcher’s name on the obverse in black ink as a way to identify the subject. The crystal clear image presents in (VG) condition with scattered creasing and a blank reverse.

290. 1910s Ty Cobb W.B. Jarvis First Baseman’s Mitt
At the top of the list detailing Ty Cobb’s incredible feats, his record .366 lifetime batting average speaks volumes about his hitting prowess. Equally impressive and indicative of his unyielding competitive fire, Cobb’s fielding and well-documented financial endeavors are combined in this vintage baseball mitt. Crafted during the 1910s by the Michigan-based W.B. Jarvis Co., this right-handed first baseman’s mitt bears Cobb’s facsimile signature on the well-preserved cloth label. The retail diamond artifact shows solid use, though its original laces, leather strap and metal buckle remain intact. Jarvis equipment was to Cobb’s liking, as evidenced by his sizable purchase of company stock. This was one of several fruitful investments by Cobb, who reaped dividends from General Motors and Coca-Cola, as well. Opening Bid $400.00

291. 1915 Louisville Slugger Bat Decals Folio Page With Baker, Gowdy and Kauff
As Kentucky’s Hillerich & Bradsby plant supplied white ash weapons to the lion’s share of professional players, decals paying homage to the game’s most prominent hitters was a successful marketing tool. This Louisville Slugger folio page showcases three of those decorative identifiers. The thick stock page measures 7x11 and features colorful crest and scroll style designs respectively listing Frank Baker, Harry Gowdy, and Bennie Kauff. These gorgeous survivors present magnificently, with very minor flaking on the Kauff example. The relic likely dates to 1915, as all (3) had authored impressive feats during the prior season. (Baker led the Majors with nine home runs; Gowdy hit .451 in the Braves’ World Series triumph; and Kauff paced the Federal league with a .370 batting average). Opening Bid $150.00

292. 1917-1921 Hillerich & Bradsby Ty Cobb Decal Bat - Sharp!
While Ty Cobb’s demeanor certainly wasn’t a trait to which youngsters wanted to aspire, his hitting prowess most definitely was. Turned by Kentucky’s famed Hillerich & Bradsby plant during the 1917-1921 labeling period, this Ty Cobb decal bat is a rare and well-preserved survivor. The 31” white ash weapon features a “dashed-dot-dash” center brand, a “YOUTH’S” identifier and “40 T.J.C.” stamping denoting retail status. On the barrel, a “Georgia Peach” decal with Cobb’s likeness and facsimile signature remains at approximately 80%. The uncracked relic maintains a smooth furniture-like finish and minor chipping along the Hornsby-style knob. Opening Bid $250.00

302. 1961-1963 Roberto Clemente Bobble Head Doll
Give a big nod yes to this stunning 1961-1963 white base Roberto Clemente bobble head doll. The scarcest of four player issues from the white base series, this prime 6-1/2” tall example shows abundant original details including full decals, handsome gloss, bold colors and sharp features all around, meriting a highly desirable (NM) grade. Particularly impressive are the chest (Pirates) and base (facsimile signature) decals which are squared up very nicely and as complete as can be expected. Equally as impressive are the nearly perfect facial details highlighted by like-new gloss. The lone flaw preventing a higher designation is a small bit of color loss of the left eyebrow which has minimal impact on this truly tremendous specimen. While close inspection reveals slight wear along the interior of the neckline this condition is not visible at eye level as does not detract from shelf appeal in any way. The underside base stamp appears as “Exclusive License Rights, © 1962 Japan”. While portions of this stamp are faded it remains clearly discernable. Bring your A-game for this one as competition for ownership will be fierce.
Opening Bid $750.00

303. Mickey Mantle 1962 White Base Bobblehead Doll
While the bobblehead craze produced colorful tributes to Major League teams, four standout individual performers were portrayed, as well. The most popular of those stars, Mickey Mantle, is the subject of this 1962 white base collectible. Standing 7” tall, the square-shouldered switch-hitter presents at the (NM) plateau, save for a tiny section of paint loss on the brim of the cap. Of note is Mantle’s facsimile signature decal, which is complete and impeccably centered along the front of the base.

305. 1960-1961 Baltimore Colts “Jumbo” Promotional Bobblehead Doll - Rare!
Peering to his left, this 1960-1961 Baltimore Colts “Jumbo” promotional bobblehead doll casts a quizzical glance as if to ask, “Are there any of us left?” Well, to answer that question, not many!” Standing nearly 14” tall (anywhere from 13-1/2” to 15” as the cranium nods with approval), the papier mâché keepsake is ball-toting figure clad in his blue home jersey and horseshoe-themed helmet, reminders of that since-moved franchise whose glorious years were marked by the NFL’s first marching band and cheerleaders, the immortal Johnny Unitas and 2:00 kickoff times mandated by the Waverly neighborhood’s blue laws. As rare as the team’s attributes, “Jumbo” examples were displayed as point-of-sale advertisements and were not available for retail sale. This rare survivor presents nicely. More on our website.

Belt out a chorus of yeah, yeah, yeah for this stunning 1964 “The Beatles Bobb’n Head” set issued by Car Mascots Inc. of California. Housed in their original box, these “Fab Four” figures display in absolutely gorgeous condition with minimal traces of wear. All (4) pieces exhibit vivid paint and incredible original gloss. Generally this visually commanding quarter presents (NM-MT) with deference to the following condition notes: John: unobtrusive minor paint absence on the underside of the head opening at rear, punctured base sticker, slight paint wear on the back and side of the base; Paul: small chip on neck line behind the left ear, detached base sticker (included), slight paint wear on sections of the base; Ringo: right hand drum stick appears to have been reattached by a dab of clear adhesive, small chip on nose, minor paint wear on back of base; George: base sticker punctured, slight paint wear on back of base. On an artisanal level these blue-suited ceramic icons feature realistic facial renderings and handsome facsimile signatures. The original factory box presents in decent condition with moderately compromised cellophane display windows.

307. 1915 World Series
Game 5 Baker Bowl
PSA 1 Ticket Stub -
Ruth's First W.S.
The Fall Classic has long been defined by images of Babe Ruth setting the standard with three home runs in a single game, repeating that incredible feat two years later, then delivering what legend reports to have been a “called” shot in 1932. But the Sultan of Swat had begun his October resolve in 1915, long before his tenure that established the Bronx Bombers as a well-oiled machine. Encapsulated and Graded PR 1 by PSA, this Baker Bowl ticket stub was issued in Philadelphia for Game 5 of the 1915 World Series, Ruth’s first of 10 October showdowns. One of two at its tier with only one graded higher, the “LOWER GRAND STAND” voucher features printed seating and event dates and ornate finnery in the background. The bright-red game “3” indicator denotes the third game at that particular site, which was the fifth and final game of the series. Hall of Famer Harry Hooper homered in the top of the ninth to give the Boston Red Sox their fourth straight win and the series title.
Limited to a pinch-hitting appearance in Game 1, Ruth was happy, nonetheless. For that World Series had copped off a year during which he turned 21 and was suddenly free of the restraints of the St. Mary’s institution in Baltimore. For his efforts, Ruth received a winners’ share check for $3,780.25, which was more than his annual salary at the time. He took the financial windfall and his wife, Helen to Baltimore, where he used the money to buy his father a new saloon on the corner of Lombard and Eutaw streets. The offered ticket is a priceless and rare keepsake from the start of the most prolific career in both sports history and American culture.

308. April 17, 1951
Yankee Stadium
SGC “Authentic”
Ticket Stub - Mickey Mantle Debut
As the Yankees soared to a record five successive World Series titles from 1949 through 1953, the dominant run was not without ample preparation and foresight.
Stacked with Hall of Famers and perennial All-Stars, the Yankee roster was solid at the Major League level, as well as rich with up-and-coming players groomed in the farm system. Billed as a “can’t miss” prospect, Mickey Mantle lived up to the scouting reports as he hit .383 for the 1950 Joplin Miners. And while the stage at Yankee Stadium is far more glamorous and daunting than any Western Association venue, Mantle got the call and debuted at the tender age of 19.
Encapsulated and assessed “Authentic” by SGC, this ticket stub was issued on April 17, 1951 at Yankee Stadium for the New York Yankees’ season opener and the first-ever appearance by Mantle.
The colorful “Grandstand Admission” voucher features printed seating/event details, as well as the club’s stars-and-stripes themed “top hat” logo. An “APR 17 1951” stamping was rendered by the box office. Having failed in his first two at-bats that afternoon, Mantle reached Boston Red Sox pitcher Bill Wight for a 6th-inning single that scored teammate Jackie Jensen. This is a scarce survivor from the opening chapter of one of the most spectacular careers in baseball history.

309. 1955
World Series
Yankee Stadium
Printer’s Proof Uncut
Ticket Block
Of historical significance on two fronts, the 1955
World Series
marked the New York Yankees’ sixth appearance in seven seasons and eventually, the end of the seemingly annu-lar torrent suff ered by the Brooklyn Dodgers, who managed to overcome their Bronx rivals in seven games for the franchise’s first-ever title. In the circles of Fall Classic tickets, enthusiasts are hard-pressed to find a more scarce and captivating momento than this 1955 World Series uncut ticket sheet. Framed to 17 x 20-1/2” under a cream-colored matte, an 8 x 11-1/2” printer’s proof ticket block features Yankee Stadium full vouchers for Games 1, 2, 6, 7 and X, the latter issued in the event of make-up game. The uncut sheet appears pristine with printed seating/event details. A glassine layer features color text and numerals, as well as the club’s stars-and-stripes themed “Top Hat” logo. This is the lone specimen we have encountered.
Unlike most “proof” tickets or blocks that have surfaced, this October heirloom includes the elements to facilitate sequential step design and printing of the numbered edition.

355. 1931 U.S. Tour of Japan Team-Signed Baseball With Gehrig, Cochrane and Grove - Full JSA

On an international mission to promote baseball across the Pacific Ocean, Major League Baseball’s cream of the crop had a simultaneous (and unofficial) task to strut their diamond prowess and dominate their Asian opponents during a 1931 tour. With unwavering confidence, the big league stars swept 17 straight games. And while the American heroes rolled to triumphs as lopsided as 20-3, 22-4 and 19-1, they saw fit to autograph this baseball. Symbolic of Western dominance and the unsuppressed popularity of a sport that thrilled in spite of the Great Depression, the medium-toned sphere is quite breathtaking in that it has visible evidence of diamond use (with high probability, in Asia). A metallic appendage remains, having long-since facilitated proud display. A series of small indentations and a weighted insert cannot impinge upon the majestic nature of the autographs. All told, (13) black-ink fountain pen inscriptions that read like a roll call for the daily victories. Covered by a uniform layer of period shellac, the autographs range from (“8”) to (“4”) in terms of strength and clarity. Occupying a side panel, the humble signature of Lou Gehrig projects (“5”) quality with very minor surface abrasions preventing higher assessment. Gehrig personalized the signature and added a “Sincerely” salutation and an inscription reading “Japan Tour 1931.” On the next panel are the bold signatures of: Rabbit Maranville (“7” strength); Mickey Cochrane (“6” strength); Muddy Ruel (“7” strength); and George Kelly (“4” strength). The next panel is home to: Lefty Grove (“6-7” strength); Larry French (“5” strength); Tom Oliver (“8” strength) and Al Simmons (“7-8” strength); the final panel features: Frank Frisch (“6” strength); Willie Kamm (“7” strength); Frank O’Doul (“5-6” strength); and Billy Cunningham (“5-6” strength). This precious keepsake is a scarce survivor from that memorable journey and its iconic participants. Full photo LOA from JSA.

356. Multi-Signed Baseball With Foxx, Cronin, Frisch and Full JSA - Gorgeous!

Oh, the incredible heritage linked to this multi-signed souvenir! At a glance, we have a clean and creamy unofficial orb manufactured by the erstwhile “Harwood” plant in Natick, Massachusetts.

The ball itself flaunts an absolutely gorgeous clean and creamy surface with prominent trademark stampings and vibrant alternating green-and-red laces. But as you begin to marvel at the magnificent penning, the mind wanders to recall three Hall of Fame icons and a lesser-known mentor whom, at separate times, they all sought in honing their skills. Just to the right of the sweet spot, Jimmie Foxx has signed in black-ink steel tip fountain pen. The flowing penmanship projects (“6-7”) strength and clarity and can easily display as a single-signed souvenir. On the north panel, Frankie Frisch has signed in black-ink fountain pen, his scripting showing every bit of (“8”) potency. On the west panel, Joe Cronin has signed in black-ink fountain pen (“5-6” strength), with an unknown printed name accompanying. Finally, the south panel is home to a black-ink signature of Jack Onslow (“6” strength). A .169 hitter in his brief Major League career, Onslow toiled for 12 minor league seasons, including a 1914 stint with the Providence Grays during which he was Babe Ruth’s battery mate. He then coached for five separate Major League teams that led to direct encounters with the above-mentioned stars. Full photo LOA from JSA.

357. Babe Ruth Signed Baseball - Full PSA/DNA
As his vigorous swing diminished and his home run trots became less frequent, Bronx legend Babe Ruth set his sights on a managerial position that never came to fruition. This baseball is signed by Ruth and eight of his contemporaries, including Joe McCarthy, the man who took the helm as Ruth was certain the post was his. The OAL Harridge orb has surface abrasions, while trademark stampings date to 1934-1939, a period that began with Ruth’s final season as a Yankee and ended with McCarthy guiding the club to an unprecedented fourth straight title. On a side panel, Ruth and McCarthy have signed in black-ink fountain pen. The ball has an overall grade of “1” from PSA/DNA (Autographs Grade:1; Baseball Grade: 1). PSA/DNA reports an additional (7) signatures. Full photo LOA from PSA/DNA. More on our website.

Pre-dating the beloved “Bums” and their National League supremacy, this ONL Heydler baseball celebrates one of the franchise’s most prolific pitchers and an executive who built Ebbets Field. The darkly toned orb shows game use and is signed on a side panel in black-ink fountain pen by Dazzy Vance (signed “A.C. “Dazzy” Vance”); “6” strength) and inscribed “1924.” The significance here is that 1924 was the year Vance won the MVP award with a 28.6 mark a 2.16 ERA and 30 complete games. On an adjacent panel, Stephen McKeever has signed “S. W. McKeever” in black-ink fountain pen (“4” strength) and inscribed “Good Health Good Luck.” McKeever, a Brooklyn-born construction contractor, purchased the Dodgers in 1912 and was the club’s primary owner until 1938. 358. Babe Ruth and Ty Cobb Dual-Signed Baseball - Full JSA Contemporaries with stellar hitting abilities but far different approaches to baseball and life, Babe Ruth and Ty Cobb endorsed this baseball during their Hall of Fame careers. The sphere is affected by toning and surface abrasions, and any trademark stampings have long-since faded, but what are visible are the black-ink steel tip fountain pen signatures of two of the game’s most legendary performers! In its usual occupancy of the sweet spot, Ruth’s penning maintains (“3”) strength with the upper-case “B” and “R” the definitive traits. On the west panel, Cobb’s signature is decidedly more potent, projecting (“6”) quality with a personalization (in Cobb’s hand) accompanying. Additional notations on adjacent panels have been executed in an unknown hand. Full photo LOA from JSA.

This baseball was signed by the iconic hero likely as he made the transition from the diamond to the desk. The unofficial orb is signed by Robinson on a side panel in blue ballpoint (“7-8” strength). An accompanying letter of provenance dates the signature to 1956 at a Manhattan sporting goods store. This marks the period during which Robinson left baseball for an executive position with New York-based Chock Full O’Nuts Coffee. Full photo LOA from JSA. More on our website.

394. Zack Wheat
1912 Handwritten Signed Letter to His Fiancée - Full JSA
Throughout the Deadball Era and the 1920s, Brooklyn’s diamond installments endured an identity crisis of sorts, going by “Superbas,” “Robins” and ultimately, “Dodgers.” There was no mistaking fleet-footed left fielder, Zack Wheat, however. As he eclipsed the .300 plateau during the 1912 season, Wheat composed and signed this correspondence to Daisy Kerr Forsman, a love interest whom Wheat would marry later that year. Written at Pittsburgh’s Colonial-Annex Hotel on a day the Dodgers and Pirates were rained out, the five-page letter has amazing and heartfelt content. Daisy Kerr Forsman, incidentally, annually encouraged Wheat to hold out for more money before signing his yearly contracts. This practice worked quite well for Wheat. Full photo LOA from JSA. 429. Mickey Mantle Signed 1951 Photo With “No. 6” and “1951” Inscriptions - Full JSA Dubbed a “can’t-miss” prospect and heir to Joe DiMaggio’s throne, 19-year-old Mickey Mantle struggled to a .260 mark with 7 home runs and 45 RBI in his 1951 rookie campaign. After fanning three times in a July 13 loss to Cleveland, the young phenomenon traded his Yankee pinstripes for the Class AAA Kansas City Blues flannels, often doubting his own future. While we all remember the magnificent career that followed, Mantle remembers his rookie “roots” on this impressive display autographed by the Bronx idol. Framed to 26x30, a 16x20 black-and-white photo depicts the slugger in his 1951 home uniform. In blue marker, Mantle has signed (8-9” strength) and inscribed “No. 6 – 1951.” This is a rarely seen Mantle inscription, as he obviously has fonder recollections in his days as number 7! Full photo LOA from JSA. Opening Bid $750.00

475. Miller Huggins Cut Signature - Full JSA
Six inches shorter, 100 pounds lighter and 15 years older than his star slugger, Miller Huggins ruled over Babe Ruth and the Bronx Bombers with unyielding conviction and unparalleled success. Tragically felled by Pyemia at the peak of “Murderers Row,” Huggins (d.1929) has one of the most coveted autographs in both Yankees and Hall of Fame circles. This Huggins cut signature is among the boldest we’ve encountered. Executed on an untrimmed sheet of approximately 4-1/2”-long and adhered to a 5x3 index card, Huggins’ blue-ink fountain pen scripting (signed “Miller J. Huggins”) projects (“8-9”) potency. Just below, the signature of “Lewy W. Witt” was composed by Whitey Witt, who played for Huggins and was the last surviving member of the Yankees’ first-ever World Champion team (1923). 490. Bob Turley 1954 All-Star Game Bat Signed by (20) With Mantle and T. Williams with Full PSA/DNA and JSA - Impeccable Provenance!

Just one day removed from his East St. Louis Central High School graduation in downstate Illinois, 17-year-old Bob Turley inked a deal with the St. Louis Browns. What ensued was a journey defined by extensive travel, hard work and ultimately, championship prominence and recognition as one of the game’s most accomplished pitchers. Issued to Turley for use in the 1954 All-Star Game, this Hillerich & Bradsby bat was signed by (20) members of that year’s roster and is symbolic of the trials and tribulations of Turley and a transplanted franchise that went on to become baseball’s prototype.

Following tours of duty with the Bellville Stags, Aberdeen Pheasants, Wichita Indians and San Antonio Missions, Turley was promoted to the parent club in September, 1951. In his September 29 debut for the moribund Browns, Turley yielded six runs in 7-1/3 innings to take the loss before a scant gathering of 1,014 spectators. He proceeded to enlist in the U.S. Army for two years and, following 10 appearances for the 1953 Browns, was tabbed as the Baltimore Orioles starter in that franchise’s first-ever home game following their 1954 migration. Turley fanned nine en route to a complete game triumph that day and set the precedent for a campaign in which he paced the circuit with 185 strikeouts. For his efforts, Turley was named to the American League All-Star squad and was the Birds’ lone representative. As Turley and his teammates shagged fly balls during batting practice before the ’54 Mid-Summer Classic, the Oriole right-hander chased down a Ted Williams clout and crashed into the chain link fence at Cleveland’s cavernous Municipal Stadium. Suffering from a contusion, Turley was removed from the field, becoming the only American League hurler not to see action in an 11-9 slugfest won by the host Junior Circuit. Both Turley’s arm and this bat were rendered idle that day. But as a “get well” token for the promising fireballer, (20) members of that day’s A.L. All-Star roster autographed the weapon and presented it to Turley.

The Hillerich & Bradsby (35.2-oz/35-3/4”) “$100” white ash lumber features block-letter barrel stampings with “ALL STAR GAME,” “TURLEY” and “CLEVELAND 1954” identifiers. While there are bat-rack streaks, the uncracked war club shows no game use but, as mentioned, is decorated with the signatures of Turley’s appreciative teammates. Executed in steel-tip fountain pen, the autographs vary in terms of strength and clarity and include: Avila (“3”), Bauer (“5”), Berra (“6”), Boone (“6”), Carrasquel (“3”), Finigan (“4-5”), Ford (“5-6”), Hutchinson (coach, “8”), Kuenn (“9”), Lemon (“5”), Lollars (“5”), Mantle (“5-6”), Marion (coach, “5”), Piersall (“7-8”), Porterfield (“5”), Stengel (manager, “4”), Stone (“4”), Swift (coach, “7”), Vernon (“4-5”) and T. Williams (“5”).

491. Michael Jordan 1996-97 “Taxi XII Air Jordan” Game-Worn Shoes

While the speculation was widespread regarding the reasons for Michael Jordan’s first “retirement” from the NBA, there was never a question pertaining to his abilities, leadership and presence upon his return that powered the Chicago Bulls to a second “three-peat.” These Nike “Air Jordan Taxi XII” shoes were worn by the United Center icon during the 1996-97 season. Named for their yellow carbon spring plates, the white and black leather accessories feature gold-colored metallic loops, rubberized red “23” numerals on the heel of each and “TWO 3” embroidered to each tongue with Jordan’s familiar silhouette likeness. The size “13” shoes exhibit evidence of moderate wear with minor scuffing about the heel portions. The underside of the left tongue reads “Made in China” while the underside of the right tongue reads “Made in Taiwan.” This is a matching trait of confirmed Jordan gamers. The sizing tag on the right shoe reads “960810 FT4,” while the left shoe’s tag reads “960709 LN2.” The cloth panel on the back of each reads “JOR-DAN” with fine print that says it all: “Quality Inspired by the Greatest Player Ever.”

Through 14 seasons of bumps, bruises and baseball, Cal Ripken, Jr. arrived every day, clinging to a family-instilled work ethic that wouldn’t allow him to do otherwise. As he surpassed Lou Gehrig’s unmatchable standard of 2,130 consecutive games on September 6, 1995, Ripken warranted appearances by President Bill Clinton, Yankee legend Joe DiMaggio and scores of other celebrities at a sold-out Camden Yards. The league even commissioned special commemorative baseballs for the event, including this one that was used on that historic night and subsequently signed by Ripken and the four American League umpires who worked the contest. The OAL Budig orb shows soiling inherent to diamond use. Just below the event logo, Ripken has signed in blue ballpoint (“8-9” strength). On an adjacent panel, black ballpoint penning of Larry Barnett (inscribed “A.L. #2”) and Greg Kose (inscribed “A.L. #18”) show (“9”) strength. On the opposite panel, the signatures of Al Clark (inscribed “924”) and Dan Morrison (inscribed “A.L. Umpire #34”) both show (“8-9”) strength. Impressive provenance accompanies in the form of an LOA composed on American League letterhead and signed by Morrison (citing the ball’s authenticity); as well as a full photo LOA from JSA (attesting to the authenticity of the autographs).

502. Extremely Scarce 1926 Shotwell Candy Red Grange Wrapper
Along with the mighty "Bambino" another heralded sports moniker of the 1920s belonged to the "Galloping Ghost", Harold (Red) Grange. These standard bearers for their respective sports were among the most highly sought after pitchers of the 1920s. On the heels of his 1926 starring role in the motion picture One Minute to Play, the Shotwell Company capitalized on Grange's success by printing 24 scenes from the film and issuing them as cards in specially marked candy bars. While 1926 Shotwell Red Grange trading cards are difficult to locate in any condition, other packaging such as the offered wrapper is almost impossible to find. The thin 9x6 glassine cover pictures Grange toting the pigskin while staving off tacklers. The bright red illustrations and advertising text are clearly printed. Despite expected and superficial interior creasing, the fragile memento is entirely absent of perimeter notchling, tearing or other significant wear. High-grade and ready to join any advanced wrapper collection.

Sports collectibles don’t get much cooler than this incredible 1913 baseball managers scorecard fan. This well-conceived advertising premium is graced with equal parts humor and practicality. Easily recognizable facial photos are superimposed in dispropor- tionate caricature style over art renderings which pertain humorously to the individual subject’s team. Notables include Huggins, Lajoie, Mack and McGraw. Printed just under the scorecard is “Copyrighted by F.A. Schneider” (the name of the manufacturer). Reverse side printing advertises a local business: “Geo. H. Jave General Store”. Completing the design of this clever device is a 13” slotted wood handle stapled at center. Minor wear in form of a 1/2” edge tear, a small edge chip and an unobtrusive stain have minimal impact on the absolutely tremendous appeal of this vintage advertising vehicle which technically rates as (VG-EX) but presents much nicer. RON OSER AND KHYBER OSER JOIN THE HUGGINS & SCOTT TEAM

It is with a great sense of anticipation and excitement that we, here at Huggins & Scott, proudly announce the arrival of hobby veterans Ron Oser and his son Khyber as part of our ever-expanding auction family.

Ron brings over 40 years of consignment experience to the H & S team, focusing mainly on the “soup to nuts” process of acquiring, managing and following up on any and all collections—no matter the size or significance of the material. Whether it be that T206 Honus Wagner card that you’ve been squirreling away all these years, or just the average group of “stuff” that’s been sitting around gathering dust, Ron will provide his trademark personal hands-on approach.

Ron’s son Khyber is a knowledgeable and energetic writer/researcher with over 20 years of hobby involvement. He has earned a reputation for leaving no stone unturned in his detailed catalog descriptions and for bringing maximum value to past treasures by unearthing their fascinating, long-forgotten back-stories. In addition, Khyber specializes in consignments within the booming sports-art market, working closely with noted contemporary artists.

Huggins & Scott founder Bill Huggins has this to say about the “Oser Boys”: “Ronny is one of my oldest and most trusted friends in the hobby, and someone whom I always hoped to work side by side with one day. He, along with Khyber, will help elevate the Huggins & Scott brand in our continuing pursuit of the finest and best auction experience for you, our loyal and valued customers.”
